Connie Unleashes Fury on Carolina Coast As New Hurricane Develops in Atlantic

Adlai Gives Tip He'll Run Again

Outlines Plans For 1956 Victory

Chicago, Aug. 11 (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson was all but an officially announced candidate today for the Democratic presidential nomination next year.

In an informal and unusual news conference last night, the 1952 Democratic nominee made it plain to all who came to question that he will announce in November he is running again.

Without committing himself finally at this time, Stevenson outlined what he regards as a possible winning Democratic campaign against President Eisenhower. He said he doesn't believe Eisenhower is "invulnerable" despite the outcome of a similar race three years ago.

THE STEVENSON campaign credo, as revealed at a crowded news conference after a cocktail party and dinner given by former Democratic National Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell, was this:

1. Eisenhower has "sharply reversed" the previous GOP foreign policies in favor of "bold and vigorous" action at the Geneva Big Four conference but those policies could change for the worse again" at any moment.

2. While the Eisenhower administration now seems to agree generally with the Democrats in Congress that action is needed on education, health, housing and highways programs, the Republicans only make promises "and the Democrats believe in action."

3. He has "some misgivings" about the threat offered by the Republicans to federal development of natural resources and what he said is the Eisenhower administration's opposition to "the Democratic concept of government for all of the people and not the few."

HAVING laid down this outline, the tanned and healthy appearing potential candidate told reporters he will have something definite to say about his political intentions by November.

Several Democratic governors have suggested at the 47th annual Governors Conference here that Stevenson had better make up his mind quickly if he wants their party's nomination. Stevenson said he had been listening for a year to such advice—and

67 Die as Two C119s Collide Over Germany

Stuttgart, Germany, Aug. 11 (AP)—Two C119 Flying Boxcar transports collided in the air and crashed into the Black Forest today. The U. S. Air Force announced 67 men were killed.

The air force said the death toll included the crews of the two American aircraft as well as soldiers being transported.

The Flying Boxcars have a normal seating capacity of 67, with a maximum capacity of 78.

The planes were two of a nine-plane flight which had just taken off from Echterdingen Field, near here, on a training mission with troops from the U. S. 7th Army aboard.

The air force anouncement said:

"Inintial reports said that one plane developed engine trouble just after takeoff, after reaching a cruising level of 4,000 feet. The crippled plane lost altitude momentarily, then pulled up abruptly across the front of another aircraft in the formation.

"The crippled plane went down immediately. The second plane flew level for almost one minute, then went out of control and nosed into the ground."

The announced death toll would make this the fourth worst air disaster in history. A total of 129 U. S. servicemen died in the flaming wreckage of a C124 Globemaster near Tokyo in 1953. In 1952 another C124 crashed on taking off from Larson Air Force Base, in Washington State, killing 87. In 1950, a commercial plane carrying soccer fans crashed at Cardiff, Wales, with a death toll of 80 persons.

Today's was West Germany's biggest postwar air disaster and also the biggest military death toll in an aircrash in Western Europe.

The air force said today's crash occurred less than 15 minutes after take-off in mid-afternoon.

The announcement said there were 42 passengers, a crew of 5 plus one loadmaster in one plane, and 14 passengers, a crew of 4 and a loadmaster in the second.

Blast, Fire Fatal to 21 in Ohio

Sewer Gas, Spark May Be Cause

Andover, Ohio, Aug. 11 (AP)—A roaring blast and swirling flames tore a path of death last night through a row of buildings on the village square. Many of the victims had taken refuge there from a storm.

There were 21 bodies accounted for, most of them in a makeshift morgue inside a garage three blocks away. The injured numbered at least 18. In the confusion, there were reports of at least 2 persons missing.

THE CENTER of the disaster was the Gateway Restaurant in this village in the resort area of Pymatuning Lake, along the Pennsylvania border. The restaurant and a dairy store were in a 2-story frame building which disintegrated with a force that shook the whole town. It has a population of about 1,200.

Through the sodden ashes and debris the squads of silent firemen worked in a drizzle until 5 a. m. today. Then they stopped for rest and food.

At 2 a. m. they had pulled the 17th body from under the sagging and blackened timbers which had fallen into the cellar. After that, they had been able to recover only portions of bodies.

WHEN THEY resumed their digging in daylight, they pulled a man's body and a woman's body from the debris.

At that point a half dozen bodies had been definitely indentified, and four others tentatively. Many of the corpses were burned beyond immediate recognition.

The task of learning the victims' names was complicated by the fact this village is on Route

CONNIE TWISTS AND THREATENS — Hurricane Connie, first big hurricane threat to eastern seaboard states of the 1955 season, appears to be stalled temporarily approximately 225 miles southeast of Myrtle, S. Hurricane warnings were up from Myrtle Beach to the Virginia Capes, with alert status extended as far north as Cape Ann, Mass. (AP Wirephoto Map).

Big Winds Lash Vast Seaboard

Diane Spotted Near San Juan

Wilmington, N. C., Aug. 11 (AP)—Towering waves and furious winds slammed into the Carolina coast today as Hurricane Connie edged ominously toward the mainland.

Tree limbs, shingles and other debris flew through the air on winds of 60 miles an hour and higher whipping through exposed resort areas.

THE DANGEROUS storm which threatened a vast stretch of the seaboard from Georgetown, S. C., north, was piling up sand and water in the streets of some North Carolina beach towns. Most vacationers and many permanent residents had sought shelter inland.

"It's blowing so hard you can hardly stand up," Police Chief M. E. Williamson reported from Wrightsville Beach, east of Wilmington.

The tide at Swannsboro, north of here and near Jacksonville, was reported higher than it was during the same stage of Hurricane Hazel.

Communication lines were going out in many areas feeling the force of Connie's extended outer gales.

A fishing pier on the north end of Wrightsville Beach, which was destroyed by Hazel and rebuilt, reportedly was swept away again.

New England was told, meanwhile, it could relax. The Boston Weather Bureau announced Connie "no longer appears to threaten the New England area." A special bulletin said the hurricane was not likely to threaten that region within the next 36 hours. Small craft were told they could resume normal operations.

By 8 a. m. winds were near hurricane force of 75 miles an hour near Cape Fear, some 30 miles south of this port city. The eye crept along at about 5 to 7 miles an hour toward the northwest.

A LONG STRETCH of costline from Georgetown, S. C., to Cape Lookout, N. C., braced for the mounting fury of the storm.

Council Vote Challenged

Carvel Claims Site There Before Zone

A supplementary petition was filed by the Carvel Stores Realty Corp., as the zoning board continued hearing on application of the corporation to establish an ice cream store at Albany and Foxhall avenues, and reserved decision at its conclusion last night in the city court room, city hall.

Common Council action last month denied application of the corporation to use the property, owned by Monroe T. Southard, for business purposes, and it now seeks a zoning board ruling to void that action on contention that the property, listed as "non-conforming" is a virtual business site because it was used as such for many years.

A petition signed by 23 residents of the area asking a residential designation was considered by the council in voting down the Carvel bid, and opposition last night argued that the zoning board is not entitled to act as an appellate court on the question.

Continuation of the hearing again drew a large crowd to the city court room. The full zoning board consisting of Joseph Avis, president, Fred J. Baker, and Attorney Thomas F. Saccoman, attended.

Attorney Philip R. Franklin, of New York, who is both vice-president and counsel of the corporation, in filing the supplementary petition, charged that the Common Council's action was "discriminatory, confiscatory, illegal and unconstitutional," be-

Decision Is Held Over in Picket's Case of Assault

Special City Judge Harry Gold today reserved decision after trial of Samuel W. Seigel, 54, of Mist Maid Fashions, Inc., 17 Cornell street, on a third degree assault charge lodged against him by Frances Colao, of Flatbush road, who had been among pickets at the factory.

Decision was also reserved last week after the arrest and trial of James J. Uhl, Jr., of East Chester street extension and James Colao, of Flatbush avenue extension. They were charged with disorderly conduct on complaint of Seigel after a disturbance was reported at the plant.

LOCAL 259, International Ladies Garment Workers Union, has been picketing the factory in an effort to organize about 40 workers there.

The trial of Seigel continued through yesterday and most of this morning. The complainant charges that she suffered a bruised arm as the result of being pushed against the building by the defendant. He denies being outside of the building at the time.

AMONG witnesses for the complainant were two others who had been picketing at the plant. Witnesses for the defendant included persons who testified that he was not out of

Crowds Fill Stores as Sale Opens

Early morning showers apparently were no deterrent to thousands of bargain-seekers who crowded Kingston stores this morning on the opening of August Sales Days which continue through Saturday.

Increased area population, large summer stocks and some "special" merchandise seemed to provide added impetus to store sales.

A FREEMAN spot-check of uptown businessmen drew comments from "very good" to "excellent' in their praise of the annual summer sales event. There was unanimous opinion among them that the day's showers had not affected store traffic appreciably.

Albert Flanagan, president of the Uptown Businessmen's Association, and owner of Flanagan's, 331 Wall street, described sales up to noon today as "very good and very steady." He said he didn't believe the rain hurt anymore than hot weather would.

Vincent Burns, manager of Montgomery Ward, 25 North Front street, and chairman of the Retail Merchants Committee of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce, sponsoring the three-day sales event, said "store traffic looks like the usual Friday night or Saturday." Mr.

Maurice Joseph LaBounty, 38, of 326 Washington avenue, was arrested August 1 in the town of Esopus by Deputy Peter Peterson of the Ulster county sheriff's office.

He was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Allen Dargie, pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $50.

Hurricane May Bypass New York

Present Path Seen As Hope for Area

New York, Aug. 11 (AP)—The weather bureau gave a tiny hope today that the New York area might escape the force of hurricane Connie.

With the volatile storm 125 miles southeast of Myrtle Beach, N. C., and moving northwest at about 5 to 7 miles an hour, Ernest J. Christie, head of the local weather bureau, said if the storm continued its northwest movement "the less chance we will have of its coming here."

He hastened to add, however, "it does not mean we can relax our precautions, as hurricane Connie's movements are most erratic."

Christie said if the last reported movement of the turbulence continued, the Carolinas probably would be hit with full force.

Earlier Christie had said:

"It is quite likely that there will be no important additional effects of the storm in this area for another 24 hours or more, aside from the rough ocean which is causing high breakers on the oceanfronts and tides running one to two feet above normal."

Quarles Gets Talbott Post as Air Secretary

Washington, Aug. 11 (AP) — President Eisenhower today named Donald A. Quarles—top man in the earth satellite project—as the new secretary of the air force.

Quarles is now assistant secretary of defense for research and development. He is 61 a native of Van Buren, Ark., and more recently a resident of Englewood, N. J. He is a Republican.

Quarles will succeed Harold Talbott who resigned Aug. 1, effective this Saturday, after the Senate Investigations Subcommittee publicly explored Talbott's outside business interests and raised a question of ethics.

The appointment will be subject to Senate confirmation when Congress reconvenes in January.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said Quarles was recommended to Eisenhower by Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson.

When a reporter asked about Quarles' private business holdings and what was being done about them, Hagerty said he was not in a position to answer that.

At a news conference Tuesday Wilson told reporters his job of picking a successor to Talbott was a tough one. He commented at that time:

"I don't know anyone who sits next to God and has financial and engineering experience."

The Air Force has planned a mammoth farewell salute to Talbott for late this afternoon, including a display of jet planes if the weather does not interfere.

Quarles became assistant secretary of defense Aug. 2, 1952. He is a graduate of Yale and was a World War 1 field artillery captain.

From 1919 to 1948 he was an engineer for the Bell Telephone Laboratories and served as vice president of that firm from 1948 to 1952.

106,525 Persons Use Beach; Daily Average About 2,663

According to a daily log kept by the Recreation Department, 106,525 persons have used the facilities of the Kingston Point Beach since its opening in late 1954 by Mayor Frederick H. Stang.

This total includes up to Friday, Aug. 6. It has been open 40 days under full time operation with no days lost due to rain so far this season.

Breaking down the figures, the average daily attendance would be 2,663 persons per day.

On the July 4 weekend, 19,500 took advantage of the facilities with the peak crowd of the year, 8,100 attending on Monday, July 4.

Another point of interest to the department was disclosed by Officer Edison Ferguson who said that while on duty on the road approaching the beach he has seen license plates on cars from every state of the union and some from Canada with people either using the facilities of just visiting.

ATTEND EMBASSY RECEPTION — Dr. Sam Maroon and sister, Miss Dorothy Maroon of Kingston, paid their respects in a courtesy call on U. S. Ambassador to Lebanon Donald R. Heath during an embassy reception for American delegates and representatives visiting Lebanon for the official 1955 Home-Coming Year Festival. They were introduced by Michael Guido of 22 Van Gaasbeck street, a member of the embassy staff for the past three years, who is scheduled to return in early September for two months home leave vacation after which he will return to Beirut for a second tour of duty. Boston Appeals for Nurses

Polio Outbreak Now Classed as Epidemic

Boston, Aug. 11 (AP)—An appeal for nurses went out today as Massachusetts' polio emergency was labelled for the first time an epidemic—a "mild epidemic," in the description of Dr. Joseph P. Reardon, state epidemiologist.

The Massachusetts State Nurses Assn. said it hoped to recruit 43 nurses in North Shore communities and Cape Cod to serve in four Boston hospitals where staffs are taxed. If not enough nurses respond a statewide appeal is in prospect.

The 1955 total of polio cases passed 1,000 yesterday in Massachusetts—a figure that Dr. Roy F. Feemster, director of the State Public Health Department's Communicable Diseases Division, had described as "the floor of an epidemic."

The Bay State total of 1,038 through Aug. 10 compared with 98 in the corresponding period of 1954.

Thus far polio has cost 44 lives in New England. Thirty-one of those striken had one or more injections of Salk anti-polio vaccine. But none of those who

Air Force Scientist Declares Russians Ahead in Training

San Francisco, Aug. 11 (AP)—Dr. H. Geyford Stever, chief scientist of the U. S. Air Force, said today that Russian scientific training is, in many ways, superior to that of the United States.

"The current differences in the education system here and there are almost all to the advantage of the scientific and engineering training on their side," Stever said in an address prepared for the Air Force Assn.

The former associate professor of aerounautical engineering at Massachusetts Institute of Technology said:

1. Russian undergraduate science training runs about a year and a half longer than the American equivalent, and calls for practical work in industry.

2. Russian primary and secondary schools give "a much better background" in mathematics and the basic physical sciences than do the American schools.

3. The Russians draft a large number of their university science and engineering graduates to go into teaching in universities as well as primary and secondary schools.

Stever said, "It seems to me that we now have no choice but to follow two courses of action: one to improve our education system in order to get increased quantity and quality in science and engineering, the other to more efficiently employ those technically trained people we have."

106,525 Persons Use Beach; Daily Average About 2,663

According to a daily log kept by the Recreation Department, 106,525 persons have used the facilities of the Kingston Point Beach since its opening in late 1954 by Mayor Frederick H. Stang.

This total includes up to Friday, Aug. 6. It has been open 40 days under full time operation with no days lost due to rain so far this season.

Breaking down the figures, the average daily attendance would be 2,663 persons per day.

On the July 4 weekend, 19,500 took advantage of the facilities with the peak crowd of the year, 8,100 attending on Monday, July 4.

Another point of interest to the department was disclosed by Officer Edison Ferguson who said that while on duty on the road approaching the beach he has seen license plates on cars from every state of the union and some from Canada with people either using the facilities of just visiting.

Air Force Scientist Declares Russians Ahead in Training

San Francisco, Aug. 11 (AP)—Dr. H. Geyford Stever, chief scientist of the U. S. Air Force, said today that Russian scientific training is, in many ways, superior to that of the United States.

"The current differences in the education system here and there are almost all to the advantage of the scientific and engineering training on their side," Stever said in an address prepared for the Air Force Assn.

The former associate professor of aerounautical engineering at Massachusetts Institute of Technology said:

1. Russian undergraduate science training runs about a year and a half longer than the American equivalent, and calls for practical work in industry.

2. Russian primary and secondary schools give "a much better background" in mathematics and the basic physical sciences than do the American schools.

3. The Russians draft a large number of their university science and engineering graduates to go into teaching in universities as well as primary and secondary schools.

Stever said, "It seems to me that we now have no choice but to follow two courses of action: one to improve our education system in order to get increased quantity and quality in science and engineering, the other to more efficiently employ those technically trained people we have."

Glennon Promoted To District Post

The promotion of Lawrence W. Glennon to the post of district sales manager of the Farm Bureau Insurance Companies, Albany, was announced today by Anthony E. Makie, regional sales manager.

An agent in Kingston for two years, Mr. Glennon assumed his new duties last Monday. He will be operating in the southern half of Albany county and in Greene county.

Williams Calls Ike 'Old,' Cites Force by Party

Chicago, Aug. 11 (AP)—Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams yesterday described President Eisenhower as "an old man" who may not want a second term but who is likely to be forced by Republicans into running in 1956.

Williams, who said he is leaving the door open to the possibility that he may seek his own party's nomination, told reporters at the 47th annual governors' conference, that "a lot of things can happen before next year's party conventions.

"President Eisenhower is an old man," Williams said. "He may die before the campaign starts." Eisenhower is 64 years old.

WHEN A REPORTER remarked this seemed "a cold-blooded statement," Williams supplemented it by saying that Adlai E. Stevenson, the 1952 Democratic nominee, "or any of us may die before that time."

Williams noted that if Eisenhower runs and is reelected, he will become the nation's oldest President before he completes a new four year term.

"Under normal circumstances, political parties probably would not choose such a man," Williams said. "But the Republicans probably are going to force him to run."

The Michigan governor said he thinks Stevenson or some other Democrat can beat Eisenhower "because the American people are very dissatisfied with the Republican administration and in the long run the leader of that administration is going to be tied into its misdeeds."

HE ACCUSED Eisenhower of "repudiating his promises" made to the farmers in the 1952 campaign, adding that "the farmers have become the forgotten men of our economy." He said the segment of labor that voted for Eisenhower in 1952 suffered "quick disillusionment."

Williams said there were signs of "corruption or unclean government" in Washington. He mentioned the resignation of Secretary of the Air Force Talbott, whose activities in behalf of an engineering firm in which he held a financial interest were questioned in Congress. He alluded also to the now abandoned Dixon-Yates power contract.

Williams, who said he is "not presently" a candidate for the Democratic nomination, said the odds point to the probability that Stevenson will run. He said it was a "fair interpretation" that if Stevenson bids for the nomination Williams will support Stevenson.

I THINK Stevenson has the first call on the Democrats but I also think it is encumbent on him to announce his intentions at a reasonably early date," he said. He added that he wouldn't specify any date, but "I would say that the time is approaching fast."

Williams said he doesn't believe that an announcement by Gov. Averell Harriman of New York after a conference with Stevenson last night that he will support Stevenson puts the party nomination in the bag.

The Michigan governor said that while some people have been talking about Harriman as a candidate, he takes Harriman's statement "at face value."

HE SAID Harriman, who is a year younger than Eisenhower, also would face some questions about his age if he ran.

"He is an older man. But I wouldn't say too old," said Williams, himself 44 years old.

Williams said that thus far Harold E. Stassen had not discussed with him any details of a proposed new American disarmament plan. Williams added, however, he is asking the governors to appoint a special committee to confer with government agencies about domestic operations of the President's atoms-for-peace plan.

Nothing to Say Is Lincoln Excuse for Not Speaking

By ED CREAGH

Gettysburg, Pa., Aug. 11 (AP)—Almost 6,000 men had been killed in the battle. Hundreds more were dying by the day. Gettysburg—a peacefully bustling town today—was a charnel house in 1863.

So, to bury the dead, a cemetery was started. And a consecration ceremony was decided upon. That called for an orator. Edward Everett was the silver-tongued choice of all concerned.

Would he come? He would, he informed the committee, but he was a busy man. Couldn't they put the ceremony off a month or so?

They could and did—for Edward Everett. Then, pretty much as an afterthought, they sent an invitation to the President of the United States.

HE CAME—on the date selected by Edward Everett.

Abraham Lincoln and his party came by train, after a horse-powered switch from one railroad to another at Baltimore. He walked from the station to David Will's house in the village square.

There he stayed the night. He knew he would be called upon to make a few remarks so he brought some notes from Washington. He didn't think much of this first draft so he called in the reigning expert. Edward Everett was not the first nor the last outside consultant called in to help on a presidential address.

In the end, though, it was Abe Lincoln's speech.

HE WROTE it, painstakingly, on a little oval table you still can see in a little room over a drugstore here in Gettysburg.

But he didn't get to deliver it on schedule.

For one thing, the parade to the cemetery was late in starting. Then Edward Everett was a half-hour late arriving at the cemetery. He'd been out inspecting the battlefield.

Every school child has been told what happened next. Everett spoke for two hours.

"Standing beneath this serence sky," he began, "overlooking these broad fields. . . ."

IT GOT pretty deadly before he was through.

Abraham Lincoln pumped Everett's hand and then spoke his own few words, starting "Fourscore and seven years ago . . ." It is a tribute to his audience that those who could hear the President applauded—six times, according to the Adams Sentinel and General Advertiser's correspondent on the scene.

A few hours later, Lincoln stopped by at the Presbyterian church—where another Republican President, Dwight D. Eisenhower, sometimes worships today. Lincoln didn't stay for the end of the church exercises. His train to Washington was waiting.

FEW PEOPLE remember that, in the midst of all this tumult, Lincoln made another speech. A crowd gathered outside the Wills house and clamored for him. Finally, his tired figure loomed up in the doorway.

"I appear before you, fellow citizens," he said, "to thank you for the compliment. The inference is a fair one that you would hear me for a while, were I to commence to make a speech.

"I do not appear before you for the purpose of doing so, and for several substantial reasons. The most substantial is that I have nothing to say."

("Laughter," reported the newsman on the spot.)

"In my position," the President went on, "it is somewhat important that I should not say foolish things."

("If you can't help it," a heckler interrupted, according to the same observer.)

"It very often happens," concluded the President, "that the only way to help it is to say nothing at all. Believing that is my present condition this evening, I must beg you to excuse me from addressing you further."

What ever became of Edward Everett, anyway?

Air Guard Field Ceremony Aug. 25

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 11 (AP)—Gov. Harriman plans to travel to Hancock Field, Syracuse, Aug. 25 to dedicate the New York State Air National Guard's first permanent training station.

The 107th Fighter-Interceptor Wing of the NYANG will begin a 15-day training course at the field Saturday. Home bases of the wing are Niagara Falls, Schenectady and White Plains.

Col. Robert J. Kirsch of Grand Island, wing commander, said today the coming summer encampment would mark the first time that his tactical squadron and support units would operate as an all-jet wing from a single base. The squadrons fly F-94, all-weather Star-fire interceptors.

About 2,000 officers and men will participate in the training tour.

It takes an expert to beat South at five diamonds in today's hand. The defense isn't difficult, really, but it goes against the average player's grain.

When the hand was actually played, East won the first trick with the ace of spades, cashed the ace of trumps, and got out with a trump. He then sat back and hoped that another trick would develop somewhere or other.

East is still waiting for that other trick. South took the top hearts and ruffed a heart, thus establishing dummy's 10. He could later discard a club on the 10 of hearts, and dummy had two trumps for his two losing spades.

East muffed the defense at the second trick when he led the ace of diamonds. Instead, he should lead a club, right up to dummy's strength. This lead sets up a club trick for West.

Even then South still has a try for his contract. He takes the ace and king of hearts and ruffs a heart, setting up dummy's 10. He then ruffs a spade to get to dummy and leads the 10 of hearts. East must ruff with his low trump to prevent South from discarding. South is then washed up.

It's difficult for West to lead a club up to dummy's ace-ten, but the play is unlikely to cost anything. If South has the queen and jack, he will eventually finnesse even if East doesn't lead the suit. If South has only one picture card, the lead costs nothing. If South has the king and jack, East's lead saves him the trouble of guessing the location of the queen.

Only in the last case does East lose anything by his lead, and in many cases it is vital for East to act at once to develop a club trick before it is too late.

Nothing to Say Is Lincoln Excuse for Not Speaking

By ED CREAGH

Gettysburg, Pa., Aug. 11 (AP)—Almost 6,000 men had been killed in the battle. Hundreds more were dying by the day. Gettysburg—a peacefully bustling town today—was a charnel house in 1863.

So, to bury the dead, a cemetery was started. And a consecration ceremony was decided upon. That called for an orator. Edward Everett was the silver-tongued choice of all concerned.

Would he come? He would, he informed the committee, but he was a busy man. Couldn't they put the ceremony off a month or so?

They could and did—for Edward Everett. Then, pretty much as an afterthought, they sent an invitation to the President of the United States.

HE CAME—on the date selected by Edward Everett.

Abraham Lincoln and his party came by train, after a horse-powered switch from one railroad to another at Baltimore. He walked from the station to David Will's house in the village square.

There he stayed the night. He knew he would be called upon to make a few remarks so he brought some notes from Washington. He didn't think much of this first draft so he called in the reigning expert. Edward Everett was not the first nor the last outside consultant called in to help on a presidential address.

In the end, though, it was Abe Lincoln's speech.

HE WROTE it, painstakingly, on a little oval table you still can see in a little room over a drugstore here in Gettysburg.

But he didn't get to deliver it on schedule.

For one thing, the parade to the cemetery was late in starting. Then Edward Everett was a half-hour late arriving at the cemetery. He'd been out inspecting the battlefield.

Every school child has been told what happened next. Everett spoke for two hours.

"Standing beneath this serence sky," he began, "overlooking these broad fields. . . ."

IT GOT pretty deadly before he was through.

Abraham Lincoln pumped Everett's hand and then spoke his own few words, starting "Fourscore and seven years ago . . ." It is a tribute to his audience that those who could hear the President applauded—six times, according to the Adams Sentinel and General Advertiser's correspondent on the scene.

A few hours later, Lincoln stopped by at the Presbyterian church—where another Republican President, Dwight D. Eisenhower, sometimes worships today. Lincoln didn't stay for the end of the church exercises. His train to Washington was waiting.

("If you can't help it," a heckler interrupted, according to the same observer.)

"It very often happens," concluded the President, "that the only way to help it is to say nothing at all. Believing that is my present condition this evening, I must beg you to excuse me from addressing you further."

IT'S FITNESS—NOT MAN'S AGE

On and on goes the game of trying to infuse with political meaning every word President Eisenhower utters about the future. Most of the guessing gets a bit foolish, but now and then one of his comments is so pointed that it simply demands public response.

Such an occasion came the other day when he told some Ohio Republicans that no American president ever had reached the age of 70 while in the White House. He seemed to imply that he would not be the first, and hence that he would not run again in 1956.

At the outset, it must certainly be noted that he may not have intended to imply this at all, but simply wished to suggest that the combination of advancing age and heavy presidential burdens make the decision a very hard one.

Since duty weighs so mightily on Mr. Eisenhower, and since in the nature of things he cannot in 1955 see clearly what his duty may be in 1956, it is unlikely that he has made that difficult decision yet.

Quite possibly his remarks about age and the presidency reveal what is running through his mind as he turns over and over the question whether or not to run.

If the age factor is high in his consciousness, this is understandable. Most men moving into the middle 60's like to give some thought to the prospect of lessening burdens and greater leisure in the years ahead of them. The President's longing for the peace of his Pennsylvania farm is well known to all of us.

But many citizens—people to whom Mr. Eisenhower felt in 1952 he owed a duty and to whom he might conceivably owe a further duty—will be eager to argue that no artificial age barrier ought to be erected against a president's service.

The state of a man's health is the real test. But if that is good, there is nothing about being 70 that renders a man unfit for work, even great official burdens. Churchill was in his 81st year when he finally agreed, reluctantly, to retire. Chancellor Adenauer of Germany is 79. The late Alcide de Gasperi, able postwar premier of Italy, was still in office in his upper 70's.

We already have a legal two-term limit on presidential service. Were we to add to that an unofficial age limit of 70, that would be too much.

In Mr. Eisenhower's case the question is nearly academic, since he would not be 70 until a few months before a second term would expire in 1961.

But in his or any other case, the matter of candidacy ought to be decided on a basis of fitness—not age.

NOT A ONE-MAN JOB

Critics of Lewis L. Strauss, chairman of the atomic energy commission, are again charging that he indulges in "one-man rule" of the AEC. They saw he is not giving other commission members all the information on AEC business.

Whether the charges are true is a matter for congress to determine. If they are, something should be done to improve the situation. Smooth and efficient functioning of the AEC is vital to the nation's future.

THAT WAS A SUMMER!

When the heat seems too much to bear, think of 1936, a summer really hot. The oppressive blanket of heat spread over a tremendous area. Day after day, week after rainless week, it pressed down over much of the nation. Mercury rose to the 100's and stayed. At night, in many places, it still held in the 80's. In cities people slept outdoors—in back yards, on front terraces, on lawns of public buildings. Deaths mounted to 5,000. So if heat gets you, think of 1936. Things have been worse.

About 100 years earlier there was a cold year, called in northern Ohio and thereabouts the year without a summer. Snow fell in every month, not much fun, either.

The last really dreadful hot spell seems to have broken. Let's stop talking about the weather for a while. Let's forget the past and enjoy today.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

ON BULLFIGHTS

Everybody these days is a censor and wants to keep things out of the papers. Recently I wrote about some entrepreneurs who hoped to make a dollar or so promoting bullfights as a novel form of gambling. I thought that I wrote disapprovingly but some humane society professionals thought otherwise. They want me censored for cruelty to bulls.

Now along comes Mrs. Betty B. Eilers of Scottsdale, Arizona, and she writes me affably and learnedly. She does not want me to be censored; so I love her. Mrs. Eilers says:

"The bull is a bull. He knows he is a bull. He does not have to prove to God or himself that he is a bull and superior to all beings who would vie for the position of a bull. His job is to sire his species. He is beloved of God for he is the result of God's wish to have him on earth. The Bible says that he who slays an ox is as if he had slain a man; he is the symbol of one of the Evangelists."

The bull then is wise in his ways. He knows what he is, which is more than can be said of many humans, some of whom think they are wolves, while others try to establish by conduct that they are swine. The bull, however, is certain of his lineage, his character, his nobility. I have never seen a bullfight, having no penchant for sitting in the sun. Up here in the Berkshires, until this year, the sun was always gentle and peaceful and of the non-scorching variety.

I did not know until Mrs. Eilers told me, that if the bull wins the fight, he gets killed for winning. Well, that must make the United States a bull, because whenever we win a war, somebody else gets the benefits and we pay out of the taxpayers' earnings in apology for having been victorious. In fact, the story goes that two statesmen were discussing the serious problem of getting aid for Israel, instead of it all going to the Arabs.

One Israeli statesman said that the only thing to do is to declare war on the United States. The other statesman was horrified. "How can you say such a thing? If we declare war on the United States, we will not only look ridiculous but we'll be defeated."

"So how else do you expect to get aid?" asked statesman number one.

Also, I understand that if the bull gets defeated, his ears are clipped off and the matador, or however it be, wears those ears in his belt, which must be a smelly affair. Presumably the cards are stacked against the bull to assert the superiority of man: If the matador loses, his victor is to be destroyed lest men regard the bull as superior to man and worship him as a Baal. Bull and Cow worship is the curse of India and perhaps explains the twisted thinking of Nehru and his private devil, Krishna Menon.

Let us be serious for a moment about bullfights, dog races, prize fights, basketball games, slot machines and whatever else may be available for men who want to bet. They will bet. Centuries of criticism, of censure, of laws and penalties have no more succeeded in outlawing gambling than in outlawing war.

Why men want to bet—and women, too—is perhaps for the behaviorist psychologist to analyze, and I can tell you beforehand that whatever he says is a guess, because nobody knows. I once watched a gang of women at that exceedingly dull game, bingo. It is pure gambling, involving no skill. It is therefore a stupid operation.

Gambling is apparently a human trait and if the bull insists upon taking advantage of our weakness, he naturally must suffer the consequences. If the bull is such a wonder, why does he not clip off the ears of the matador and wear them on the tip of his tail?

The person who can answer that one can explain the great theological riddle of why man is different from all else in nature—so different that he can, on a hot day, when the temperature outside is 102 and up in the thousands in this room, write this silly article which no bull could do no matter how sired.

That Body of Yours

FOSTER HOMES FOR THE ELDERLY

Yesterday we were discussing the problem many younger people have to face when a parent or grandparent can no longer be kept at home. A small home, with a busy wife, two or three children, and a husband away most of the day just can't accommodate an aged semi-invalid, no matter how resolutely everybody tries.

Today I read of an experiment being carried on in Toronto, Canada, described as being "one of the most challenging areas of development in the care of elderly citizens." Known as the Special Home Care department, it places elderly persons in private homes in much the same way as children are placed for adoption. Social workers evaluate the home, the hostess, and the older person with an eye to compatibility of background and personality. There are other requirements which the worker must check. The home must be one where the family is already established, where the older person will not be isolated but will be part of the family unit and will share meals with the family. Each person is to have a separate room, except in the case of husband and wife. Basement rooms, no matter how dry they appear to be, are taboo. So are rooms higher than the second floor. The rooms must be well-ventilated and accessible to the bathroom. Houes are checked for fire hazards and narrow stairs.

No placements are made in homes with more than six boarders, ruling out commercial boarding houses and private nursing homes, where care might be adequate but emotional needs would not be met. Workers try, too, to place people in the district with which they are familiar. Since the older person is more set in his ways and finds it more difficult to adjust to others than a young person, the hostess should be a person with an understanding of the older person and a sympathetic attitude toward his varying moods.

Applicants for Special Home Care are given physical checkups as well as personality assessments. They must be able to adjust to life in a community and benefit from the family environment.

Those drawing old age pension ($40 per month) pay $35.00 with another $25.00 payment shared by the province of Ontario and Metropolitan Toronto.

Lambert Lodge, a home for the elderly in what was previously a veterans' hospital, launched this project when they found they had a waiting list of more than 500. Many, it was discovered, would prefer to live in the community but applied for admission merely because, on $40.00 per month, they did not have much choice. A survey disclosed that the average pensioner spent about $5.00 per month for food with the greater percentage going into rent. Special Home Care, while it leaves the pensioner little for extras, does ensure regular and adequate meals.

This project has been underway just about three months but it should help relieve the desperate situation of so many old people, living in poor boarding or rooming huses, sometimes with truly not enough to eat. It is a worthwhile project for any community. Homes for placement were found by inserting a newspaper advertisement.

Getting a Little Less Shy

Edson's Washington News Notebook

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington (NEA) — The American delegation to Geneva brought back no more knowledge of how the new Russian government works on the inside than they had before the conference.

Russia is now supposedly run by 11 men. They make every major decision governing the country with the largest land area in the world, the second largest industrial production—next to the United States—and the third largest population—below China and India.

It would of course be impossible for any one board of directors to run the U. S. economy in this way, but that is apparently today's Russian system.

To the extent that Russia is now run by 11 men instead of by one man, as in Stalin's day, democracy in Russia has been increased by 1100 per cent. But democracy has obviously not arrived in Russia, along with the new apparent desire for peace.

American experts on Russia say there has been too much reading on theoretical Communist ideology in trying to figure how the Russian government is functioning and what it will do next under any given circumstances.

THIS IS CONSIDERED the wrong approach. There has always been a contradiction between Marxist theory and the struggle for power since the 1917 revolution. In this 38 years of history, power has always won—not ideology.

The Russia of Lenin was different from the Russia of Stalin, just as the Russia of Malenkov was different from the Russia of Stalin before and the Russia of Khrushchev, Bulganin & Committee that followed so swiftly.

No one of them was a perfect Communist state. Power has always solved whatever problems arose, not ideology.

Just where the power now lies and how the Russians made their decisions at Geneva they did not reveal to the American delegation.

Whether the four at Geneva—Bulganin, Khrushchev, Molotov and Zhukov—acted with full authority on their own, whether Communist Party Secretary General Khrushchev made all the decisions, or whether everything had to be referred back to the seven who remained in Moscow, the Russians did not disclose.

PREMIER BULGANIN was the front man who did all the talking in the formal meetings of the four heads of government. Was he the mere figurehead? Khrushchev was the silent partner. Was he pulling the strings?

In the foreign ministers' meetings at the second level, where the real work of Geneva was done, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles faced his old adversary, Molotov. In the background were those original hard guy dead pans—Gromyko and Malik—well known to American audiences.

There was no evidence that this trio had softened any. And it is with them that the United States, Britain and France must deal in the United Nations disarmament conference in late August, in the foreign ministers meeting at Geneva again, in October.

Marshall Zhukov, though minister of war, is not one of the top 11 on the governing committee. He was obviously brought along because of his past friendship with President Eisenhower.

THOUGH ZHUKOV conferred privately with the President, there was no indication to the Americans that a Red Army point of view had developed, distinguishable from the Communist Party point of view and in the ascendancy as a new political force in Russia.

Under Stalin, as dictator, it was believed that he wrote all the orders and sent them around to the other members of his politburo for signature and obedience.

Stalin was able to hold all the Russian forces in check—the Secret Police, the Communist Party, the Army.

How the new leaders are doing this is not clear. The police have been broken in two parts and there is no one official who can give an order to both. It apparently takes a committee to give an order. But there is no sure explanation of just how it works.

There is a strong suspicion among American observers that not even the Russians know how it is going to come out.

In such circumstances it is impossible to predict what the American, British and French Foreign Ministers will encounter when they get to Geneva in October.

Eye Bank Started

Iowa City, Iowa (AP)—This state's first eye bank is being established at the State University of Iowa Medical Center with the support of Iowa Lions Clubs. The 250 plus Lions Clubs have already raised more than $10,000 to get the eye bank started. It will be under the direction of Dr. Alson E. Braley, professor and head of ophthalmology at the university. It is primarily intended to provide a clearing house for corneas removed from the eyes of persons who bequeath their eyes for medical use after their deaths. Iowa recently enacted a law permitting the willing of parts of the body for medical use.

Handicaps Are Pointed Out For Harriman and Stevenson

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Aug. 10—"Adlai or Averell?" This is the $64 question which the Democratic party has to answer soon. Will former Gov. Stevenson of Illinois or Gov. Harriman of New York State become the Democratic Presidential candidate in 1956?

There are some handicaps which each faces from a strictly political viewpoint. Politicians say that a divorced man alienates large groups of Catholic voters—and the former Mrs. Stevenson isn't making things any easier for her ex-husband by giving interviews about him. Many of the big-city organizations of Democrats, who can be influential in controlling state delegations at a national convention, are well aware of the political implications of divorce. It is supposed to have beaten Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., for attorney general in New York state last autumn.

NOR IS Gov. Harriman immune. He, too, was divorced once. He is, moreover, a multi-millionaire with large holdings in the Union Pacific Railroad which he inherited from his father, the late E. H. Harriman. Maybe the campaign will introduce the chant that "what's good for Union Pacific is good for the country," and so on.

But the New York Governor prides himself on being more "liberal" or radical than Adlai Stevenson on domestic matters. Despite Gov. Harriman's previous associations with railroad management, he stands well with the railroad labor unions. The Democrats do not mind rich men in their ranks provided they dedicate themselves to a policy of "soaking the rich." The late President Franklin Roosevelt hobnobbed with Vincent Astor and other men of wealth like Myron Taylor, but, except for the usual appointments to diplomatic posts, it didn't affect his radical approach or preachments of class warfare.

IN DEMOCRATIC PARTY politics it is evidently important to be radical nowadays. The theory is that it doesn't matter how mad the conservatives in the South may get, they'll have to vote Democratic anyhow. It didn't work that way in 1952, but that was when the South thought Ike would respect states' rights and wouldn't go as far on the segregation issue as he has gone since then.

In the North, Stevenson has allied himself with the radical organization — "Americans for Democratic Action" — which played so influential a part in shaping the last Democratic presidential campaign. But Gov. Harriman, alert to the dangers of this so far as conservative Democrats are concerned, hasn't stuck his neck out on the "ADA" question and seems anxious to avoid too close a tie-up.

THE REAL DIFFICULTY is that neither Harriman nor Stevenson has sensed the mood of the country so far as reflecting the protests or murmurs on public issues. Usually it is thought politically wise to exploit as many of the accumulated grievances as possible.

Gov. Harriman, by reason of his service as American Ambassador to Soviet Russia, is watching foreign policy closely and is represented as thinking that this may afford the basis for a sharp cleavage among voters. Thus, the fraternization of Mr. Eisenhower with the Soviet's top tyrants at Geneva recently could, if the situation changes to one of disillusionment on the part of the American public, lead to taunting remarks such as greeted President Truman when he referred to dictator Stalin as "Good old Joe."

MR. HARRIMAN is known to have made rapid strides in political orientation since he served as Secretary of Commerce in Washington, and he is said to be keenly aware of how to take advantage of any weaknesses in the Eisenhower armor. But the fact remains that, so far as any positive, constructive, alternative policies go, neither the Stevenson nor Harriman speeches ring any bells with the electorate. Political trends in the past indicate that it isn't always necessary to offer any alternative proposals on either domestic or foreign policies, especially if there is a negative mood in the country—that is, if the voters are "against the in's." There are times when the electorate doesn't much care who the other candidate is—they want primarily to get rid of the party or President in power.

The age-old strategy that seems to work in American politics is to use Congressional investigations to discredit the Administration in office. Thus the revelations about "deep freezes" and "mink coats" led up to the discovery of scandals in the Internal Revenue Bureau under the Democrats.

THE DEMOCRATS in turn are now aiming their fire at business men in government, especially dollar-a-year-men. Chairman Celler, Democrat, of the House Judiciary Committee, is conducting a lively inquiry on the subject.

Sen. Kefauver, who doesn't seem to mind making cracks about the integrity of other people and who shows signs of adopting some of the much condemned "methods" attributed to a certain Wisconsin Senator by the Democrats last year, is counted on to do a job on the Dixon-Yates controversy, though thus far the American people haven't gotten excited about it. Many persons don't know whether "Dixon-Yates" is a vaudeville team or a "TV" show. But the next session of Congress may remedy all this, as the drive starts to use "guilt by association" as the theme of the Democratic effort to discredit Eisenhower and his administration.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

Geneva—The beautiful palace of the polyglot bureaucracy called the International Labor Office on the very shore of Lake Geneva is the political pentagon of a new deal hicogalorum named David A. Morse. His subordinates turn out a monthly paper called the Ilo News published in many languages for enlightenment of 60 "member" nations, including some which are primitive tribes. This enlightenment consists largely of favorable personal publicity about Mr. Morse, a Roosevelt - Truman holdover, whose past jobs included that of general counsel to the labor relations board under the old Wagner Act which he approved.

In a statement of his qualifications, when he strongly endorsed as a fine loyal American a fellow who soon went behind the iron curtain into Czechoslovakia with his wife and four children, Morse informed the U. S. Civil Service Commission that he had been director of labor for the Italian Military Government Operations, acting director of the U. S. Control Group Council in England and France, and later "with the council" in Frankfort and Berlin as a member of Lt. Gen. Lucius Clay's staff.

His tenure in Italy concurred with the period in which the American political administration of that wretched country handed over everything including money printing facilities, public buildings and authority to the Communists. The Italian Prime Minister during his recent Washington visit reminded us that we thus were responsible for the great difficulty which the Italians had encountered in beating back the Reds. I venture to hope that Mr. Morse recorded objection to that policy of our administrators at that time.

Mr. Morse's services in Germany concurred with the campaign of legalized looting and much plain thievery which duplicated the carpetbag era in the southern states. As a fine exemplar of the moral and political virtues of the Roosevelt-Truman regime he doubtless did all he could to reprove the scoundrels.

He also has been back down the years a member of the Solicitor's Staff of the U. S. Department of Labor, chief counsel of the Petroleum Labor Policy Board, special assistant U. S. attorney general and attorney for the New York region of the Labor Relations Board when Mrs. Elinore Herrick was regional authority. During that time that regional bureaucracy threatened to prosecute on criminal charges a man who made copies of an essay of mine exposing certain information not at all laudatory about a union which was trying to muscle into his business. The "region" took the view that this exercise of his right to communicate knowledge through the mails constituted "intimidation" under the Wagner Act.

I do not know what Mr. Morse's attitude was in that case but if I can learn I will let you know. I have inquired but he was out of town.

Altogether Mr. Morse stacks up as a veteran bureaucrat. His publicity conveys an impression that he must be a very fine man. This publicity is written or edited and published by Ed Allen, a Boston and New York newspaper man who is director of the press department. Mr. Allen has the rank of colonel in the army reserve. He states without particular pride that part of his military service as a captain at 90 Church street, New York, consisted of ghosting speeches for delivery at exercises attending the presentation of Pentagon "E" awards to war plants. Mr. Allen is checking out of his nice job and pleasant surroundings here to return to Boston. He says he would even rather take a job on the rim or copy desk than continue this work. He did not elaborate and I did not press him. Last Friday he made merry because his daughter in Boston had made him a grandfather for the first time.

I remarked to Mr. Allen that the lavish and consistently complimentary publicity about Morse in his ILO news reminded me of similar personal stuff about Dave Dubinsky, Dan Tobin, Dave Beck and Joe Curran in their controlled union publications. This lavish rubbish is paid for by the subject members of their unions and Morse's praises are financed largely by American taxpayers. We can go to prison for failure to pay our share of the cost of praising him.

IT'S FITNESS—NOT MAN'S AGE

On and on goes the game of trying to infuse with political meaning every word President Eisenhower utters about the future. Most of the guessing gets a bit foolish, but now and then one of his comments is so pointed that it simply demands public response.

Such an occasion came the other day when he told some Ohio Republicans that no American president ever had reached the age of 70 while in the White House. He seemed to imply that he would not be the first, and hence that he would not run again in 1956.

At the outset, it must certainly be noted that he may not have intended to imply this at all, but simply wished to suggest that the combination of advancing age and heavy presidential burdens make the decision a very hard one.

Since duty weighs so mightily on Mr. Eisenhower, and since in the nature of things he cannot in 1955 see clearly what his duty may be in 1956, it is unlikely that he has made that difficult decision yet.

Quite possibly his remarks about age and the presidency reveal what is running through his mind as he turns over and over the question whether or not to run.

If the age factor is high in his consciousness, this is understandable. Most men moving into the middle 60's like to give some thought to the prospect of lessening burdens and greater leisure in the years ahead of them. The President's longing for the peace of his Pennsylvania farm is well known to all of us.

But many citizens—people to whom Mr. Eisenhower felt in 1952 he owed a duty and to whom he might conceivably owe a further duty—will be eager to argue that no artificial age barrier ought to be erected against a president's service.

The state of a man's health is the real test. But if that is good, there is nothing about being 70 that renders a man unfit for work, even great official burdens. Churchill was in his 81st year when he finally agreed, reluctantly, to retire. Chancellor Adenauer of Germany is 79. The late Alcide de Gasperi, able postwar premier of Italy, was still in office in his upper 70's.

We already have a legal two-term limit on presidential service. Were we to add to that an unofficial age limit of 70, that would be too much.

In Mr. Eisenhower's case the question is nearly academic, since he would not be 70 until a few months before a second term would expire in 1961.

But in his or any other case, the matter of candidacy ought to be decided on a basis of fitness—not age.

NOT A ONE-MAN JOB

Critics of Lewis L. Strauss, chairman of the atomic energy commission, are again charging that he indulges in "one-man rule" of the AEC. They saw he is not giving other commission members all the information on AEC business.

Whether the charges are true is a matter for congress to determine. If they are, something should be done to improve the situation. Smooth and efficient functioning of the AEC is vital to the nation's future.

THAT WAS A SUMMER!

When the heat seems too much to bear, think of 1936, a summer really hot. The oppressive blanket of heat spread over a tremendous area. Day after day, week after rainless week, it pressed down over much of the nation. Mercury rose to the 100's and stayed. At night, in many places, it still held in the 80's. In cities people slept outdoors—in back yards, on front terraces, on lawns of public buildings. Deaths mounted to 5,000. So if heat gets you, think of 1936. Things have been worse.

About 100 years earlier there was a cold year, called in northern Ohio and thereabouts the year without a summer. Snow fell in every month, not much fun, either.

The last really dreadful hot spell seems to have broken. Let's stop talking about the weather for a while. Let's forget the past and enjoy today.

'These Days'

ON BULLFIGHTS

Everybody these days is a censor and wants to keep things out of the papers. Recently I wrote about some entrepreneurs who hoped to make a dollar or so promoting bullfights as a novel form of gambling. I thought that I wrote disapprovingly but some humane society professionals thought otherwise. They want me censored for cruelty to bulls.

Now along comes Mrs. Betty B. Eilers of Scottsdale, Arizona, and she writes me affably and learnedly. She does not want me to be censored; so I love her. Mrs. Eilers says:

"The bull is a bull. He knows he is a bull. He does not have to prove to God or himself that he is a bull and superior to all beings who would vie for the position of a bull. His job is to sire his species. He is beloved of God for he is the result of God's wish to have him on earth. The Bible says that he who slays an ox is as if he had slain a man; he is the symbol of one of the Evangelists."

The bull then is wise in his ways. He knows what he is, which is more than can be said of many humans, some of whom think they are wolves, while others try to establish by conduct that they are swine. The bull, however, is certain of his lineage, his character, his nobility. I have never seen a bullfight, having no penchant for sitting in the sun. Up here in the Berkshires, until this year, the sun was always gentle and peaceful and of the non-scorching variety.

I did not know until Mrs. Eilers told me, that if the bull wins the fight, he gets killed for winning. Well, that must make the United States a bull, because whenever we win a war, somebody else gets the benefits and we pay out of the taxpayers' earnings in apology for having been victorious. In fact, the story goes that two statesmen were discussing the serious problem of getting aid for Israel, instead of it all going to the Arabs.

One Israeli statesman said that the only thing to do is to declare war on the United States. The other statesman was horrified. "How can you say such a thing? If we declare war on the United States, we will not only look ridiculous but we'll be defeated."

"So how else do you expect to get aid?" asked statesman number one.

Also, I understand that if the bull gets defeated, his ears are clipped off and the matador, or however it be, wears those ears in his belt, which must be a smelly affair. Presumably the cards are stacked against the bull to assert the superiority of man: If the matador loses, his victor is to be destroyed lest men regard the bull as superior to man and worship him as a Baal. Bull and Cow worship is the curse of India and perhaps explains the twisted thinking of Nehru and his private devil, Krishna Menon.

Let us be serious for a moment about bullfights, dog races, prize fights, basketball games, slot machines and whatever else may be available for men who want to bet. They will bet. Centuries of criticism, of censure, of laws and penalties have no more succeeded in outlawing gambling than in outlawing war.

Why men want to bet—and women, too—is perhaps for the behaviorist psychologist to analyze, and I can tell you beforehand that whatever he says is a guess, because nobody knows. I once watched a gang of women at that exceedingly dull game, bingo. It is pure gambling, involving no skill. It is therefore a stupid operation.

Gambling is apparently a human trait and if the bull insists upon taking advantage of our weakness, he naturally must suffer the consequences. If the bull is such a wonder, why does he not clip off the ears of the matador and wear them on the tip of his tail?

The person who can answer that one can explain the great theological riddle of why man is different from all else in nature—so different that he can, on a hot day, when the temperature outside is 102 and up in the thousands in this room, write this silly article which no bull could do no matter how sired.

Under Stalin, as dictator, it was believed that he wrote all the orders and sent them around to the other members of his politburo for signature and obedience.

Stalin was able to hold all the Russian forces in check—the Secret Police, the Communist Party, the Army.

How the new leaders are doing this is not clear. The police have been broken in two parts and there is no one official who can give an order to both. It apparently takes a committee to give an order. But there is no sure explanation of just how it works.

There is a strong suspicion among American observers that not even the Russians know how it is going to come out.

In such circumstances it is impossible to predict what the American, British and French Foreign Ministers will encounter when they get to Geneva in October.

Eye Bank Started

Iowa City, Iowa (AP)—This state's first eye bank is being established at the State University of Iowa Medical Center with the support of Iowa Lions Clubs. The 250 plus Lions Clubs have already raised more than $10,000 to get the eye bank started. It will be under the direction of Dr. Alson E. Braley, professor and head of ophthalmology at the university. It is primarily intended to provide a clearing house for corneas removed from the eyes of persons who bequeath their eyes for medical use after their deaths. Iowa recently enacted a law permitting the willing of parts of the body for medical use.

Handicaps Are Pointed Out For Harriman and Stevenson

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Aug. 10—"Adlai or Averell?" This is the $64 question which the Democratic party has to answer soon. Will former Gov. Stevenson of Illinois or Gov. Harriman of New York State become the Democratic Presidential candidate in 1956?

There are some handicaps which each faces from a strictly political viewpoint. Politicians say that a divorced man alienates large groups of Catholic voters—and the former Mrs. Stevenson isn't making things any easier for her ex-husband by giving interviews about him. Many of the big-city organizations of Democrats, who can be influential in controlling state delegations at a national convention, are well aware of the political implications of divorce. It is supposed to have beaten Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., for attorney general in New York state last autumn.

NOR IS Gov. Harriman immune. He, too, was divorced once. He is, moreover, a multi-millionaire with large holdings in the Union Pacific Railroad which he inherited from his father, the late E. H. Harriman. Maybe the campaign will introduce the chant that "what's good for Union Pacific is good for the country," and so on.

But the New York Governor prides himself on being more "liberal" or radical than Adlai Stevenson on domestic matters. Despite Gov. Harriman's previous associations with railroad management, he stands well with the railroad labor unions. The Democrats do not mind rich men in their ranks provided they dedicate themselves to a policy of "soaking the rich." The late President Franklin Roosevelt hobnobbed with Vincent Astor and other men of wealth like Myron Taylor, but, except for the usual appointments to diplomatic posts, it didn't affect his radical approach or preachments of class warfare.

IN DEMOCRATIC PARTY politics it is evidently important to be radical nowadays. The theory is that it doesn't matter how mad the conservatives in the South may get, they'll have to vote Democratic anyhow. It didn't work that way in 1952, but that was when the South thought Ike would respect states' rights and wouldn't go as far on the segregation issue as he has gone since then.

In the North, Stevenson has allied himself with the radical organization — "Americans for Democratic Action" — which played so influential a part in shaping the last Democratic presidential campaign. But Gov. Harriman, alert to the dangers of this so far as conservative Democrats are concerned, hasn't stuck his neck out on the "ADA" question and seems anxious to avoid too close a tie-up.

THE REAL DIFFICULTY is that neither Harriman nor Stevenson has sensed the mood of the country so far as reflecting the protests or murmurs on public issues. Usually it is thought politically wise to exploit as many of the accumulated grievances as possible.

Gov. Harriman, by reason of his service as American Ambassador to Soviet Russia, is watching foreign policy closely and is represented as thinking that this may afford the basis for a sharp cleavage among voters. Thus, the fraternization of Mr. Eisenhower with the Soviet's top tyrants at Geneva recently could, if the situation changes to one of disillusionment on the part of the American public, lead to taunting remarks such as greeted President Truman when he referred to dictator Stalin as "Good old Joe."

MR. HARRIMAN is known to have made rapid strides in political orientation since he served as Secretary of Commerce in Washington, and he is said to be keenly aware of how to take advantage of any weaknesses in the Eisenhower armor. But the fact remains that, so far as any positive, constructive, alternative policies go, neither the Stevenson nor Harriman speeches ring any bells with the electorate. Political trends in the past indicate that it isn't always necessary to offer any alternative proposals on either domestic or foreign policies, especially if there is a negative mood in the country—that is, if the voters are "against the in's." There are times when the electorate doesn't much care who the other candidate is—they want primarily to get rid of the party or President in power.

The age-old strategy that seems to work in American politics is to use Congressional investigations to dicredit the Administration in office. Thus the revelations about "deep freezes" and "mink coats" led up to the discovery of scandals in the Internal Revenue Bureau under the Democrats.

THE DEMOCRATS in turn are now aiming their fire at business men in government, especially dollar-a-year-men. Chairman Celler, Democrat, of the House Judiciary Committee, is conducting a lively inquiry on the subject.

Sen. Kefauver, who doesn't seem to mind making cracks about the integrity of other people and who shows signs of adopting some of the much condemned "methods" attributed to a certain Wisconsin Senator by the Democrats last year, is counted on to do a job on the Dixon-Yates controversy, though thus far the American people haven't gotten excited about it. Many persons don't know whether 'Dixon-Yates" is a vaudeville team or a "TV" show. But the next session of Congress may remedy all this, as the drive starts to use "guilt by association" as the theme of the Democratic effort to discredit Eisenhower and his administration.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

Geneva—The beautiful palace of the polyglot bureaucracy called the International Labor Office on the very shore of Lake Geneva is the political pentagon of a new deal hicogalorum named David A. Morse. His subordinates turn out a monthly paper called the Ilo News published in many languages for enlightenment of 60 "member" nations, including some which are primitive tribes. This enlightenment consists largely of favorable personal publicity about Mr. Morse, a Roosevelt - Truman holdover, whose past jobs included that of general counsel to the labor relations board under the old Wagner Act which he approved.

In a statement of his qualifications, when he strongly endorsed as a fine loyal American a fellow who soon went behind the iron curtain into Czechoslovakia with his wife and four children, Morse informed the U. S. Civil Service Commission that he had been director of labor for the Italian Military Government Operations, acting director of the U. S. Control Group Council in England and France, and later "with the council" in Frankfort and Berlin as a member of Lt. Gen. Lucius Clay's staff.

His tenure in Italy concurred with the period in which the American political administration of that wretched country handed over everything including money printing facilities, public buildings and authority to the Communists. The Italian Prime Minister during his recent Washington visit reminded us that we thus were responsible for the great difficulty which the Italians had encountered in beating back the Reds. I venture to hope that Mr. Morse recorded objection to that policy of our administrators at that time.

Mr. Morse's services in Germany concurred with the campaign of legalized looting and much plain thievery which duplicated the carpetbag era in the southern states. As a fine exemplar of the moral and political virtues of the Roosevelt-Truman regime he doubtless did all he could to reprove the scoundrels.

He also has been back down the years a member of the Solicitor's Staff of the U. S. Department of Labor, chief counsel of the Petroleum Labor Policy Board, special assistant U. S. attorney general and attorney for the New York region of the Labor Relations Board when Mrs. Elinore Herrick was regional authority. During that time that regional bureaucracy threatened to prosecute on criminal charges a man who made copies of an essay of mine exposing certain information not at all laudatory about a union which was trying to muscle into his business. The "region" took the view that this exercise of his right to communicate knowledge through the mails constituted "intimidation" under the Wagner Act.

I do not know what Mr. Morse's attitude was in that case but if I can learn I will let you know. I have inquired but he was out of town.

Altogether Mr. Morse stacks up as a veteran bureaucrat. His publicity conveys an impression that he must be a very fine man. This publicity is written or edited and published by Ed Allen, a Boston and New York newspaper man who is director of the press department. Mr. Allen has the rank of colonel in the army reserve. He states without particular pride that part of his military service as a captain at 90 Church street, New York, consisted of ghosting speeches for delivery at exercises attending the presentation of Pentagon "E" awards to war plants. Mr. Allen is checking out of his nice job and pleasant surroundings here to return to Boston. He says he would even rather take a job on the rim or copy desk than continue this work. He did not elaborate and I did not press him. Last Friday he made merry because his daughter in Boston had made him a grandfather for the first time.

I remarked to Mr. Allen that the lavish and consistently complimentary publicity about Morse in his ILO news reminded me of similar personal stuff about Dave Dubinsky, Dan Tobin, Dave Beck and Joe Curran in their controlled union publications. This lavish rubbish is paid for by the subject members of their unions and Morse's praises are financed largely by American taxpayers. We can go to prison for failure to pay our share of the cost of praising him.

Weekly Food Review

(By The Associated Press)

Beef and frying chickens will offer good value for shoppers in the nation's foodstores this weekend.

Once again, chuck roast will be prominently featured. It's a cut that most meat specialists consider particularly attractive for housewives with an eye on economy.

PRIME RIBS will be another popular special for Sunday dinner. And here and there, stores will offer lower prices on round roast, crossrib roast and ground beef.

Frying chickens, not widely featured in recent weeks, will be back in the spotlight again. Quite a few markets will have turkeys at reasonable prices, too.

Legs of lamb, lamb shoulder roast and pork loins are among other meats mentioned as specials by a number of markets. By and large prices are around week-ago levels.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture takes an optimistic view of meat prices in the months ahead. It looks for seasonal increases in production and says supplies will be larger than last year.

"THE GAIN will be largely in pork, and prices will decline seasonally in late summer and this fall, especially on fresh pork," the department says. "Pork prices will stay below last year. Beef will be as plentiful as it was last year, with a larger proportion of better grade beef on the market.

"Consumers will find plenty of chickens available in the next few months," the USDA adds. "Retail prices of chickens have declined since April and may continue downward in the near future. The expected large supply and a seasonal decline in demand for broilers, as well as the increasing meat supply, should keep poultry prices low."

One important item of your diet is almost sure to cost you more this week—eggs. Leading markets are boosting prices of large grade "A" whites by two to 10 cents a dozen. These increases come on top of higher prices posted a week ago.

POTATOES WENT UP a bit this week but still rate among the outstanding buys, along with onions, nearby tomatoes, eggplant and bunched and topped beets. The list of good vegetable buys includes cabbage, peppers, beans, western and nearby celery, cauliflower, cucumbers, iceberg lettuce and bunched and topped carrots.

Corn prices are irregular, a reflection of the wide range in quality (most of it is only ordinary to fair). Spinach, squash and sweet potatoes are moderately priced.

The price of peaches is somewhat lower and fruit specialists think it should come down further. Cantaloupes and honeydew melons are attractively priced.

There are ample supplies of watermelons and fruit men recommend buying them. Limes, oranges and grapefruit are reasonable.

West Point Road Will Be Closed

West Point, Aug. 11 — Officials at the U. S. Military Academy have announced that Mine Torne Road across the reservation will be closed from 12 noon to 3:30 p. m. daily from August 16 through August 21.

Artillery and small arms firing will be conducted on those days and all individuals are warned to stay clear of danger areas.

Mrs. Landy Would Clear Son First

Bradley Beach, N. J., Aug. 11 (AP)—Mrs. Deborah Landy says she has been contacted by the House Un-American Activities Committee but that she declined to give any information about communism because she wants first to clear up her son's case.

She is the mother of 21-year-old Eugene Landy, the honor Merchant Marine Academy graduate who was denied a naval reserve commission, reportedly on security grounds because his mother had been a Communist.

LANDY'S CASE is being reviewed by the navy.

At her home here last night, Mrs. Landy said she received a telephone call earlier from a woman investigator for the committee who identified herself as Mrs. Dolores Scotti.

Said Mrs. Landy, who has acknowledged she was a Communist Party member during World War 2:

"This young woman wants to find out if I have any information of value. I told her 'no' but she wants to see me personally."

"She probably wants to know who recruited me or something like that, or about dues or activities," the 54-year-old mother said. "I told her there was no conspiracy, no activities that would interest her."

EVENTUALLY, Mrs. Landy went on, she probably will talk to the investigator but what comes first is clearing up the case of her son's commission.

In Washington earlier in the day, a spokesman for the committee said Mrs. Landy might be called for testimony but that this would depend on the amount of information she has to offer.

The spokesman added the committee was "not going to do anything which might affect the outcome" of Landy's case. The youth currently is serving as a seaman aboard a merchant ship which is on a 30-day cruise.

Boy Is Treated After Being Hit By Car Wednesday

A five-year-old boy who was struck by a car on Main street, Kerhonkson, about 6:30 p. m., yesterday, was treated for minor injuries by a Kerhonkson physicians, according to Ellenville state police.

Ralph Cyr, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Cyr of Kerhonkson, suffered lacerations, abrasions and contusions of the left side of his face, troopers said. He was treated by Dr. Edmund Gellert and released.

Troopers R. F. Dauch and N. G. Lecakes said a 1948 convertible operated by Lars Hagen, 17, of Accord, was proceeding south at 15 MPH on Main street when the child darted from behind some parked vehicles into the side of the car.

A light coating of egg white on an unbaked pie crust will keep custard or other moist fillings from soaking into the crust.

PENNEY'S BIGGEST BARGAIN EVENT OF THE YEAR!

Police Checking Newburgh Thefts, One on Thruway

Thruway and state police threw up blockades late Tuesday morning between Albany and the New Jersey line, following a robbery in Newburgh and another on the Thruway about two miles south of that city.

There was apparently no connection between the two robberies, occurring within two hours of each other.

ABOUT 9:15 A. M., a young male Negro, described as between 16 and 18 years of age, approached Ettie Siegel of 78 Williams street, who operates a small restaurant. Mrs. Siegel was taking some packages out of her car at the time, according to the Newburgh Police Department.

The man asked her the way to the ferry, then told her to turn around. He demanded any money she might have in the restaurant and when she told him there was none he took her wallet containing $160 and left in an old gray sedan of unknown make. Police said there were several other people in the car.

The man was described as weighing about 150 pounds and wearing dungarees and a dark blue T-shirt.

A MAN WHO picked up three hitchhikers was forced out of his 1941 convertible on the Thruway about two miles south of Newburgh at 10:50 a. m., robbed of $20 and his car stolen, the Newburgh Police Department said. His name was not immediately available.

One of the hitchhikers was described as about 17, five feet seven inches tall, blonde hair and wearing khaki pants and checked sweater. Another was about 21, six feet tall, with black hair and a stocky build, dark complexion and a moustache, wearing khaki pants, a white T-shirt. There was no description of the third man.

The car left headed in an easterly direction, police said.

Coconut Custard Sauce Fine on Fresh Berries

QUICK COCONUT CUSTARD SAUCE on chilled summer fruit makes a tempting treat for entertaining friends.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

All her life Anthonette Combs of New York has enjoyed entertaining her friends. Now a youthful-looking widow of an Army colonel, with 14 grandchildren, she is a fashion expert and resident buyer for shops in Hawaii, Puerto Rico, South America and many sections of the United States.

Yet despite her demanding career she still likes to entertain in her Westchester apartment decorated with antiques collected on her world travels.

But she keeps her entertaining simple—the best, yes, but nothing that takes time to prepare. Imagination and seasoning can turn most ready-to-serve and labor-saving products into gourmet treats, this smart and life-loving career grandmother insists.

Mrs. Combs gave us her recipe for a quick coconut custard sauce to serve on fresh summertime berries and fruit; also a jiffy snack for unexpected friends.

Coconut Custard Sauce

Two and one-half cups cold milk, ½ cup cold light cream, 2 tablespoons sugar, ½ teaspoon vanilla, 1 package coconut cream instant pudding mix.

Pour milk and cream into mixing bowl. Add sugar and vanilla. Add pudding mix and beat slowly with egg beater just until well mixed, about 1 minute. Do not overbeat or mixture will be thin. Let stand to set—takes 5 minutes. Just before serving, stir until smooth and creamy. Serve over fresh fruit.

Note: If desired, sauce may be chilled. Just before serving stir until creamy.

Note: During summer months, leftovers should be refrigerated.

Spaghetti a la Cheeseburgers
(Quick as "CAN" be)
(Serves 4)

Two cans (4 cups) spaghetti wih meatballs in tomato sauce, 2 slices (2 ounces) packaged, sliced process cheese.

Empty spaghetti into a shallow baking dish. Arrange the 8 meatballs on top of spaghetti. Cut each slice of cheese into 4 small squares. Place a cheese square on top of each meatball. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) about 25 minutes.

TOMORROW'S QUICK DINNER: Spaghetti a la cheeseburgers, mixed green salad, French bread or crisp rolls, butter or margarine, fresh berries and fruit with chilled coconut custard sauce, coffee, tea (hot or iced), milk.

Nacogdoches, Tex. (AP)—Texas towns take their rivalry seriously. A Nacogdoches man made a long distance call to nearby Lufkin. "That'll be $4.50, plus tax," said the operator. "Why, I could call hell for that much," said the man. "Mister," replied the operator, "all you have to do to do that from where you are is to make a local call."

U.S. Weapons Blamed for Korea Riots

Seoul, Aug. 11 (AP)—South Korea's official spokesman tonight blamed American troops for the violence that has flared in Korea for the past five days.

"It was all due to the outrageous use of weapons by the U. S. military forces," said Dr. Hong Kee Karl.

South Koreans have been demonstrating since last Saturday in an effort to drive out Communist Czech and Pole members of the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission. They consider them spies.

Twenty-two U. S. soldiers and 80 Koreans have been injured in clashes at NNSC billets. The demonstrations tapered off too in the face of united western opposition to the use of force.

KARL MADE it plain he was replying to an appeal by U. S. Secretary of State Dulles for no violence.

"We desire to make it clear to the secretary of state and all others that Korea has never used force or indicated any such intention against the NNSC," Karl said.

"It is the United States which has used military force, including armored cars and chemical weapons in war array against civilian groups demonstrating in peaceful and order manner their public feelings by demanding the withdrawal of the Communist spies of the NNSC."

EARLIER TODAY Karl had cautioned the South Koreans against violence against U. S. forces.

"It is greatly to be regretted," he said then, "that those who have come to our aid should be injured as a result of trouble with the Korean people. Our aim is to survive, not to harm others. Our people, therefore, should be careful not to cause any trouble for our friends through violence or disorderly actions."

HIS SECOND statement of the day, however, was couched in far different words:

"It has shocked the Korean people, who never reasoned that our allies, who shed their blood with our forces in defense of the security of Korea and the United States, would turn their weapons against us.

"We are thankful that the enraged demonstrators controlled themselves to the extent that there were no serious conflicts. If there was any acts of violence or struggle of any kind, it was all due to the outrageous use of weapons by the U. S. security forces."

KARL THEN cited the war threat posed by the Communists in the north and said the demonstrators wanted "to protect their lives and the lives of foreigners in Korea."

He then asked that American soldiers be withdrawn from guarding NNSC compounds "immediately."

"This government is capable of giving the members proper protection and we will give our assurance there will be no violence shown to them."

to some contrary opinions—and "I'll do what I believe is best for the party."

What was best for the Democrats, in Stevenson's obvious opinion, was to quit thinking about other potential nominees such as Gov. Averell Harriman of New York and Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee.

HARRIMAN, who repeated after a dinner meeting with the former Illinois governor that "I'm for Stevenson," was described by Stevenson as "understanding my thinking."

Asked if he was "afraid" to run against Eisenhower again next year, Stevenson replied that he hadn't been afraid in 1952 and "I can assure you that it isn't fear that had delayed my decision."

"You run for President because you believe in your party and you have strong convictions, not because your opponent is weak or strong," he said.

Asked if he thinks he or any other Democrat could beat Eisenhower next year Stevenson replied:

"Anyone could do better against Eisenhower than last time. The Democrats are stronger now." He said the strength was demonstrated by Democratic victories in the 1954 election when his party won control of both Houses of Congress.

Stevenson indicated that if he is the party nominee he will not shrink from challenging Eisenhower's foreign policies.

Judge Rules Blood Test Unfair to Kin of Chinese

New York, Aug. 11 (AP) — A federal judge has ruled that a paternity blood test required of Chinese seeking entry into the United States is unconstitutional and smacks of racial discrimination.

The ruling by Judge Edward J. Dimock came yesterday in the case of three Chinese sons of a Chinatown groceryman. Their case affects some 20,000 Chinese seeking American citizenship as sons of Chinese-Americans, conceived during periodic visits of their fathers to China.

THE VALIDITY of the blood tests was recognized a year ago by a federal judge. At that time the Justice Department termed the decision the "first tangible defense against fraudulent claims of identity."

The case before Dimock involved Lee Jum Hoy, 25, Lee Kum Cherk, 16, and Lee Moon Wah, 15. They claimed citizenship through their father, Lee Ha, an American citizen since 1926.

The Immigration Department contended the trio had failed to pass the blood tests.

THE GOVERNMENT argued that few persons in China have birth certificates and that with the Communists in control there is no way for parentage claims to be checked by American investigators.

Defense Attorney Benjamin Gim, an American-born Chinese, offered evidence that Chinese born in British-controlled Hong Kong were forced to submit to blood tests even though they had birth certificates.

Said Dimock:

"The children made an affirmative showing of paternity that would have been sufficient but for the requirement that they submit to blood tests.

"THEY HAVE been excluded. Members of the white race in exactly the same position are admitted. This constitutes a deliberate strict enforcement of the immigration laws in the case of the Chinese and a deliberate loose one in the case of whites.

"This violates their (the Chinese) constitutional rights to be free of discrimination. Except for the evidence in connection with the blood tests, the record would have entitled them to admission."

In Washington last night, the immigration service said Dimock's ruling would be taken under advisement by the agency's general counsel and the justice department.

Polio Outbreak

died had received the vaccine.

New England totals through Aug. 10, with corresponding 1954 figures: Massachusetts, 1,038-98; Connecticut, 135-105; New Hampshire, 56-14; Rhode Island, 47-13; Maine, 34-14; Vermont, 19-6; all six new England states, 1,329-250.

The Nurses Association listed the hospitals needing nurses as: Boston City, 18; Children's Medical Center, 9; Boston Floating Hospital, 6; and Haynes Memorial, 10.

Boston City has 110 polio patients, six in iron lungs. Other patient populations, with respirator cases in parentheses: Children's 169 (1); Floating, 39 Haynes, 80 (18); Massachusetts General, 62 (7).

The new appeal for nursing assistance followed an earlier call which the Nurses Association said produced 201 responses among Boston nurses.

In Boston, which has borne the heaviest incidence of the disease up to now, the death of a 16-year-old South Boston girl raised the city's death count from polio in 1955 to 12.

U.S. Weapons Blamed for Korea Riots

Seoul, Aug. 11 (AP)—South Korea's official spokesman tonight blamed American troops for the violence that has flared in Korea for the past five days.

"It was all due to the outrageous use of weapons by the U. S. military forces," said Dr. Hong Kee Karl.

South Koreans have been demonstrating since last Saturday in an effort to drive out Communist Czech and Pole members of the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission. They consider them spies.

Twenty-two U. S. soldiers and 80 Koreans have been injured in clashes at NNSC billets. The demonstrations tapered off too in the face of united western opposition to the use of force.

KARL MADE it plain he was replying to an appeal by U. S. Secretary of State Dulles for no violence.

"We desire to make it clear to the secretary of state and all others that Korea has never used force or indicated any such intention against the NNSC," Karl said.

"It is the United States which has used military force, including armored cars and chemical weapons in war array against civilian groups demonstrating in peaceful and order manner their public feelings by demanding the withdrawal of the Communist spies of the NNSC."

EARLIER TODAY Karl had cautioned the South Koreans against violence against U. S. forces.

"It is greatly to be regretted," he said then, "that those who have come to our aid should be injured as a result of trouble with the Korean people. Our aim is to survive, not to harm others. Our people, therefore, should be careful not to cause any trouble for our friends through violence or disorderly actions."

HIS SECOND statement of the day, however, was couched in far different words:

"It has shocked the Korean people, who never reasoned that our allies, who shed their blood with our forces in defense of the security of Korea and the United States, would turn their weapons against us.

"We are thankful that the enraged demonstrators controlled themselves to the extent that there were no serious conflicts. If there was any acts of violence or struggle of any kind, it was all due to the outrageous use of weapons by the U. S. security forces."

KARL THEN cited the war threat posed by the Communists in the north and said the demonstrators wanted "to protect their lives and the lives of foreigners in Korea."

He then asked that American soldiers be withdrawn from guarding NNSC compounds "immediately."

"This government is capable of giving the members proper protection and we will give our assurance there will be no violence shown to them."

Adlai Gives

to some contrary opinions—and "I'll do what I believe is best for the party."

What was best for the Democrats, in Stevenson's obvious opinion, was to quit thinking about other potential nominees such as Gov. Averell Harriman of New York and Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee.

HARRIMAN, who repeated after a dinner meeting with the former Illinois governor that "I'm for Stevenson," was described by Stevenson as "understanding my thinking."

Asked if he was "afraid" to run against Eisenhower again next year, Stevenson replied that he hadn't been afraid in 1952 and "I can assure you that it isn't fear that had delayed my decision."

"You run for President because you believe in your party and you have strong convictions, not because your opponent is weak or strong," he said.

Asked if he thinks he or any other Democrat could beat Eisenhower next year Stevenson replied:

"Anyone could do better against Eisenhower than last time. The Democrats are stronger now." He said the strength was demonstrated by Democratic victories in the 1954 election when his party won control of both Houses of Congress.

Stevenson indicated that if he is the party nominee he will not shrink from challenging Eisenhower's foreign policies.

About 20,000 Americans from 15 to 44 years old died of cancer last year.

Judge Rules Blood Test Unfair to Kin of Chinese

New York, Aug. 11 (AP) — A federal judge has ruled that a paternity blood test required of Chinese seeking entry into the United States is unconstitutional and smacks of racial discrimination.

The ruling by Judge Edward J. Dimock came yesterday in the case of three Chinese sons of a Chinatown groceryman. Their case affects some 20,000 Chinese seeking American citizenship as sons of Chinese-Americans, conceived during periodic visits of their fathers to China.

THE VALIDITY of the blood tests was recognized a year ago by a federal judge. At that time the Justice Department termed the decision the "first tangible defense against fraudulent claims of identity."

The case before Dimock involved Lee Jum Hoy, 25, Lee Kum Cherk, 16, and Lee Moon Wah, 15. They claimed citizenship through their father, Lee Ha, an American citizen since 1926.

The Immigration Department contended the trio had failed to pass the blood tests.

THE GOVERNMENT argued that few persons in China have birth certificates and that with the Communists in control there is no way for parentage claims to be checked by American investigators.

Defense Attorney Benjamin Gim, an American-born Chinese, offered evidence that Chinese born in British-controlled Hong Kong were forced to submit to blood tests even though they had birth certificates.

Said Dimock:

"The children made an affirmative showing of paternity that would have been sufficient but for the requirement that they submit to blood tests.

"THEY HAVE been excluded. Members of the white race in exactly the same position are admitted. This constitutes a deliberate strict enforcement of the immigration laws in the case of the Chinese and a deliberate loose one in the case of whites.

"This violates their (the Chinese) constitutional rights to be free of discrimination. Except for the evidence in connection with the blood tests, the record would have entitled them to admission."

In Washington last night, the immigration service said Dimock's ruling would be taken under advisement by the agency's general counsel and the justice department.

Polio Outbreak

died had received the vaccine.

New England totals through Aug. 10, with corresponding 1954 figures: Massachusetts, 1,038-98; Connecticut, 135-105; New Hampshire, 56-14; Rhode Island, 47-13; Maine, 34-14; Vermont, 19-6; all six new England states, 1,329-250.

The Nurses Association listed the hospitals needing nurses as: Boston City, 18; Children's Medical Center, 9; Boston Floating Hospital, 6; and Haynes Memorial, 10.

Boston City has 110 polio patients, six in iron lungs. Other patient populations, with respirator cases in parentheses: Children's 169 (1); Floating, 39 Haynes, 80 (18); Massachusetts General, 62 (7).

The new appeal for nursing assistance followed an earlier call which the Nurses Association said produced 201 responses among Boston nurses.

In Boston, which has borne the heaviest incidence of the disease up to now, the death of a 16-year-old South Boston girl raised the city's death count from polio in 1955 to 12.

New Committee For Riding Club

Woodstock, August 10 — The Woodstock Riding Club now has a Junior Activities Committee, as announced at the club's meeting July 21. This was the decision taken at the recent board of directors' meeting.

The committee has formulated the following plans:

Special activities will be created for young members of the club (under 21, approximately) in addition to the club's normal program. As a starter there will be a "junior" program of events on one day in each of September, October and November. Announcements will be made shortly. Two trophys have already been donated.

The new committee will help younger club members with transportation of their mounts by creating a trailer pool. The cost and burden of moving horses to events is one of the major obstacles for youngsters and elders alike. A club-organized pool will make already available material help all in a sportsman-like manner. The enclosed form invites you to state what you may have on hand. Let's all pull together on this important issue.

Participation of younger club members will be promoted in neighboring equestrian events by disseminating information and organizing joint excursions.

Younger horsemen and women will be encouraged, now members of the club, to participate in activities organized by the Woodstock Riding Club on the club grounds. It is intended to invite selected persons.

Younger members will be helped whenever possible with chores and responsibility connected with their riding and will be given general encouragement. The new stabling on the club's field makes it possible, for the first time, to organize all kinds of activities, widening the scope for those who would like to benefit from this new situation.

Historical Week Attracts Crowds

Woodstock, Aug. 10—Now in full swing, Woodstock's Historical Society Week is attracting a considerable amount of attention. The exhibit of historical objects in the window of the Woodstock Branch of the Bank of Orange County began attracting small crowds from the time it was in process of being arranged Monday morning. The fact that each article is displayed with explanatory tickets adds to interest. Among prominent Woodstockers who have lent rare old treasurers handed down for four or five generations in their families are: Mrs. Elizabeth Clough, Victor N. Lasher, Mrs. Emma Goodrich, Griffin Herrick, and others.

The exhibit has been arranged by Mrs. Oxhandler with help from Mrs. Louise H. Zimm and Alf Evers, president of the Woodstock Historical Society. Articles from the Woodstock Glass Factory, two old quilts, store books of a Shady store dating from 1817, the oldest Indian artifact known in this region, from 2000 to 3000 years old, dug up in Lewis Hollow, are a few of the features.

Another feature of the Woodstock Historical Society Week has just been announced. The proprietors of the Red Barn, Mrs. Louise Bolton and Miss Winifred Haile, are holding the Hudson Valley Antique Show, from Aug. 11 to 14 for the benefit of the Historical Society. The show will feature Woodstock articles as well as those of the vicinity. The hours are from 1 to 10 p. m., permitting people engaged during the day to take advantage of the opportunity to see some of Woodstock's most interesting antiques, lent by residents and collectors of this town. In addition, well known artists are donating valuable posters, painting, lithographs, drawings, etchings, and other items to be disposed of for the benefit of the Society. Contributing artists include Mary Earley, Nan Mason (a lithograph of shipping on Rondout creek), A. A. Champanier, John Pike, Konrad and Florence Cramer, Carl and Virginia Hubbell and many others, all noted Woodstock artists, also Rolph Scarlett of New York and Shady, whose works are in the permanent Guggenheim Collection.

Visitors will also be interested in early Art Colony publications, beautifully illustrated, at the Library's collection, with other exhibits also arranged by Mrs. Oxhandler.

Claremont Players Slated at Maverick

Woodstock, Aug. 10—Three members of the Claremont String Quartet, violinists Marc Gottlieb and Vladimir Weisman and cellist Irving Klein, assisted by the gifted young pianist Martin Canin, will be featured at the Maverick Sunday afternoon Aug. 14. Previous professional commitments make it impossible for the Quartet's able violist, William Schoen, to participate on this particular day.

This program will be of special interest as it will give the superb qualities of the Claremont players an opportunity to reveal themselves to their enthusiastic Woodstock audience in a new light, that is, in chamber music works other than quartet compositions.

The opening number is a precious tidbit for those who love to hear rarely performed works by the great masters: the Trio Concerto for Two Violins, Cello and Piano by Johann Sebastian Bach. For the second number, first violinist Marc Gottlieb graciously steps aside to let his colleague, Vladimir Weisman, take the limelight with the performance of Prokofeiff's Sonata in D major for Violin and Piano op. 94 in which Martin Canin interprets the difficult piano part. It is indicative of the ensemble excellence of the Claremont Quartet that each of its members can give an outstanding solo performance if called upon, yet, in chamber music playing, all players submerge their individual personalities into the sensitive body of a perfect ensemble. The program closes with Franz Schubert's "heavenly" Trio in B flat major op. 99.

Leventhal Exhibition Reveals Mature Talent

Woodstock, Aug. 10—In the 37 paintings which comprise the current exhibition by Ethel S. Leventhal, at the Parnassus Square Galleries, the artist reveals an unusual and mature talent. Joyful living, love of nature, beautiful handling of pigment and textures, controlled design all combine to create poetic energy. This is a sensitive and yet a dramatic art where zest and excitement are the keynotes, brought under perfect control.

Ethel Leventhal was born in Brooklyn, and studied at the Brooklyn Museum, the Art Students League and the New School of Social Research. She held her first one-man show at the Argent Gallery, five years ago. Her work has also been exhibited at the RoKo Gallery, the National Academy and in several group shows. She is a member of Artists Equity and the National Academy of Women Artists.

Reformed Bazaar Scheduled August 18

Woodstock, August 10—Final preparations are being made for the Reformed Church Bazaar to be held on Thursday, Aug. 18, on the Woodstock village green, starting at 10 a. m., and to continue throughout the afternoon.

The Junior Choir of the church is in charge of the toy booth, and requests that anyone with toys to donate, used or new, leave them at the parsonage in advance of the bazaar date. Books and records may also be left at the parsonage; jewelry and buttons should go to Mrs. Karl Cousins; appliances, household articles to Mrs. William Hutty; used clothing to Mrs. Eva Burt and handmade fancy articles to Mrs. Frank Bradley; aprons to Mrs. Ivan Freer or Mrs. William Mower. Mrs. Fred Mower, who is in charge of the food table, requests that food be brought early on the day of the sale. The auction is to be held in back of the parsonage starting at 1:30 p. m.

Schimmerling Concert Acclaimed at Maverick

Woodstock, August 10 — A wildly enthusiastic audience acclaimed the first solo performance of Isabelle Byman, noted concert pianist of New York and Woodstock, Saturday evening at the Maverick Concert Hall in the fifth of the series of musical events presented by H. A. Schimmerling. The high point of the evening was Mrs. Byman's superb presentation of the Dimitri Kabalevski Sonata. This highly difficult work, which is modern yet with a definte form, required but three weeks for Mrs. Byman to commit to memory for its performance. Also enjoying the spotlight for fine performances were Guido Brand, violinist, Mieczislaw Kolinski, composer-pianist, and Sylvia Nesson, soprano, who sang several beautiful songs.

The program included works by Alfred Grant Goodman, Paul BenHaim, Dimitri Kabalevski, Mieczislaw Kolinski, Salvador Ley, Charles Schwartz and Carlos Surinachi.

Mr. Schimmerling acted as commentator and director for a symposium in which, among others, Henry Cowell, noted Woodstock composer, participated.

"All composers are egotists," "Mr. Cowell said, "and I could be more of an egotist if I only had Isabelle Byman to perform my works."

Committees Named For Blind Sale

Woodstock, August 10—Committees from the following churches will serve at the annual Woodstock Sale for the Blind, to be held on the Lutheran Church lawn from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., Wednesday, August 24: Woodstock Reformed Church—Mrs. Alma Simpkins, chairman; Methodist—Mrs. Victor Shultis, chairman; Lutheran—Mrs. Olney Cook, chairman; St. Joan of Arc Catholic—Miss Marguerite Graham, chairman; Episcopal, Mrs. Fennel Franckling, chairman; American Legion Auxiliary, Mrs. John Wolven, chairman.

The sale is under the direction of Mrs. Wolven, who is serving as general chairman.

Well Digging Starts At St. Gregory's

Woodstock, Aug. 10 — The Charles Hasbrouck Sons well digging equipment moved onto the site for Woodstock's new St. Gregory's Episcopal Church this week and "Operation Water" is now in action.

An impressive sign board, announcing the site for the building and showing a large blow-up of the beautiful, contemporary church designed by William H. van Benschoten, was erected by Fennell Franckling.

Meanwhile, St. Gregory's Sunday morning service for August will be held in the temporary corncrib church at 11:45 a. m.

Food Sale Announced

Woodstock, August 10 — The Lutheran Church will hold a food sale, Saturday, August 13, on the church lawn, starting at 10 a. m.

Adrian Siegel Home From Tour

Woodstock, Aug. 10—Adrian Siegel, summer resident of Bearsville, and for 33 years a member of the Philadelphia Orchestra's cello section, one of Conductor Eugene Ormandy's best departments, has recently returned to his home in Bearville following the successful European tour with the famed orchestra. The tour lasted from May 15, to June 20, and was under the auspices of International Exchange Program of the American National Theatre and Academy. It is the first tour abroad taken by the orchestra since that six years ago to England, when the orchestra went by boat and train. This trip, which included France, Belgium, Italy, Portugal, Spain, Germany, Austria, Finland and Sweden, was taken by plane and train.

"We ran into trouble at the very start, "Adrian reported, "when boarding the KLM Royal Dutch Airlines planes, which included two passenger planes and a freight plane, we discovered we were 4,000 pounds over in weight allowed." The 4,000 pounds of luggage had to be returned to New York from which it was shipped to Europe by boat. They were allowed to take only necessities.

The orchestra was given a large sendoff by a Philadelphia Police band.

In their crowded schedule, the orchestra played a total of 28 concerts, averaging two and a half hours apiece.

Adrain explained that orchestras play at somewhat slower tempo in Europe than in the United States. The average length of the same concert here would be two hours.

Since the concerts were a part of the State Department Good Will policy, there were many receptions following the concerts, adding to the rigors of the trip. "We averaged four hours sleep a night!" he said.

HEY, GIRLS!—Keep your eye on Lloyd Drennan, 19, of Champaign, Ill., who is showing the prize-winning cake which he baked to his mother, Mrs. Lloyd Drennan. Only man to enter the Champaign County Fair Baking Contest, he won a second and third prize on two of his creations. Mother's cakes failed to win any prize.

Noted Pianist Gets Chair of Tradition

Woodstock, Aug. 10—Isabelle Byman, noted pianist, now has in her possession, a chair which the famous pianist and violinist, Harold Bauer had made in Europe. The chair had been received from Bauer by Olga Samaroff, Mrs. Byman's piano teacher, and the first wife of Leopold Stokowski. The chair was presented to Mrs. Byman by her teacher, and it is now residing in Mrs. Byman's home in Bearsville. "I now have an insight to tradition, through the chair," Mrs. Byman said.

Claims Job Denied On Father's Signing

New York, Aug. 11 (AP)—A young Brooklyn man says he has been denied appointment to the New York City Police Force because his father signed a Communist nominating petition when he, the son, was 9 years old.

In State Supreme Court yesterday Alfred Aresco, 25, sought a court order directing his appointment to the force. Justice Saul S. Streit set. Aug 31 for a further hearing.

Aresco's father, Joseph, said in an affidavit that he signed a petition to nominate Peter V. Cacchione to the City Council in 1939. Cacchione was elected as a Communist, a Board of Elections spokesman said.

The elder Aresco said he had no idea the petition was for a Communist and that he signed it because "everybody else signed."

The son denied that he or any member of his family was a Communist. He added that he is a Catholic and fought in Korea as a navy volunteer.

Schimmerling Concert Acclaimed at Maverick

Woodstock, August 10 — A wildly enthusiastic audience acclaimed the first solo performance of Isabelle Byman, noted concert pianist of New York and Woodstock, Saturday evening at the Maverick Concert Hall in the fifth of the series of musical events presented by H. A. Schimmerling. The high point of the evening was Mrs. Byman's superb presentation of the Dimitri Kabalevski Sonata. This highly difficult work, which is modern yet with a definte form, required but three weeks for Mrs. Byman to commit to memory for its performance. Also enjoying the spotlight for fine performances were Guido Brand, violinist, Mieczislaw Kolinski, composer-pianist, and Sylvia Nesson, soprano, who sang several beautiful songs.

The program included works by Alfred Grant Goodman, Paul BenHaim, Dimitri Kabalevski, Mieczislaw Kolinski, Salvador Ley, Charles Schwartz and Carlos Surinachi.

Mr. Schimmerling acted as commentator and director for a symposium in which, among others, Henry Cowell, noted Woodstock composer, participated.

"All composers are egotists," "Mr. Cowell said, "and I could be more of an egotist if I only had Isabelle Byman to perform my works."

An impressive sign board, announcing the site for the building and showing a large blow-up of the beautiful, contemporary church designed by William H. van Benschoten, was erected by Fennell Franckling.

Meanwhile, St. Gregory's Sunday morning service for August will be held in the temporary corncrib church at 11:45 a. m.

Adrian Siegel Home From Tour

Woodstock, Aug. 10—Adrian Siegel, summer resident of Bearsville, and for 33 years a member of the Philadelphia Orchestra's cello section, one of Conductor Eugene Ormandy's best departments, has recently returned to his home in Bearville following the successful European tour with the famed orchestra. The tour lasted from May 15, to June 20, and was under the auspices of International Exchange Program of the American National Theatre and Academy. It is the first tour abroad taken by the orchestra since that six years ago to England, when the orchestra went by boat and train. This trip, which included France, Belgium, Italy, Portugal, Spain, Germany, Austria, Finland and Sweden, was taken by plane and train.

"We ran into trouble at the very start, "Adrian reported, "when boarding the KLM Royal Dutch Airlines planes, which included two passenger planes and a freight plane, we discovered we were 4,000 pounds over in weight allowed." The 4,000 pounds of luggage had to be returned to New York from which it was shipped to Europe by boat. They were allowed to take only necessities.

The orchestra was given a large sendoff by a Philadelphia Police band.

In their crowded schedule, the orchestra played a total of 28 concerts, averaging two and a half hours apiece.

Adrain explained that orchestras play at somewhat slower tempo in Europe than in the United States. The average length of the same concert here would be two hours.

Since the concerts were a part of the State Department Good Will policy, there were many receptions following the concerts, adding to the rigors of the trip. "We averaged four hours sleep a night!" he said.

HEY, GIRLS!—Keep your eye on Lloyd Drennan, 19, of Champaign, Ill., who is showing the prize-winning cake which he baked to his mother, Mrs. Lloyd Drennan. Only man to enter the Champaign County Fair Baking Contest, he won a second and third prize on two of his creations. Mother's cakes failed to win any prize.

Noted Pianist Gets Chair of Tradition

Woodstock, Aug. 10—Isabelle Byman, noted pianist, now has in her possession, a chair which the famous pianist and violinist, Harold Bauer had made in Europe. The chair had been received from Bauer by Olga Samaroff, Mrs. Byman's piano teacher, and the first wife of Leopold Stokowski. The chair was presented to Mrs. Byman by her teacher, and it is now residing in Mrs. Byman's home in Bearsville. "I now have an insight to tradition, through the chair," Mrs. Byman said.

Claims Job Denied On Father's Signing

New York, Aug. 11 (AP)—A young Brooklyn man says he has been denied appointment to the New York City Police Force because his father signed a Communist nominating petition when he, the son, was 9 years old.

In State Supreme Court yesterday Alfred Aresco, 25, sought a court order directing his appointment to the force. Justice Saul S. Streit set. Aug 31 for a further hearing.

Aresco's father, Joseph, said in an affidavit that he signed a petition to nominate Peter V. Cacchione to the City Council in 1939. Cacchione was elected as a Communist, a Board of Elections spokesman said.

The elder Aresco said he had no idea the petition was for a Communist and that he signed it because "everybody else signed."

The son denied that he or any member of his family was a Communist. He added that he is a Catholic and fought in Korea as a navy volunteer.

Must Still Aid Allies: Lehman

New York, Aug. 11 (AP)—Sen. Herbert H. Lehman (D.-N. Y.) said today that although international tensions have lessened somewhat, "we must keep up our aid to our allies and not let our guards down."

The senator, sailing abroad the Cunard liner Queen Mary for a European vacation and visits at U. S. embassies and military installations, said he had fought for all defense appropriations offered in the last Congress "some appropriations approved were inadequate, especially for our air forces and ground forces," he said.

CONCERNING the 1956 presidential election, Lehman said the Democratic party was "very fortunate in having a wealth of potential candidates who would be strong contenders against President Eisenhower."

He said he still favors Adlai E. Stevenson as the party's candidate, but that New York Gov. Harriman also would make "a strong candidate and an excellent President."

LEHMAN SAID the last Congress took a "complete bipartisan" stand on foreign affairs, but failed to act on important domestic issues, including highway construction, social security, federal aid to education and various national health bills.

The senator was accompanied by his wife.

Absence Is Noted

Moscow, Aug. 11 (AP)—Western observers have noted the continued absence from public gatherings of Nikolai Shvernik, former president of the Soviet Union. Recurring reports say that he is ill. Shvernik is now chairman of the Central Council of Trade Unions of the USSR. When the body opened its third plenary meeting here recently, Vice Chairman L. N. Solovyev presided. Observers also noted that Shvernik has not been seen at diplomatic functions for several months.

U. S. Lets Contract

Washington, Aug. 11 (AP)—The government has let a contract for the design and development of an atomic power plant suitable for a small submarine. The Atomic Energy Commission's (AEC) announcement yesterday gave no hint of the size, but it apparently would be much closer to that of the conventional sub than either the 2,900-ton Nautilus or the 3,200-ton Seawolf. The average fleet-type submarine has about a 1,700-ton displacement.

Do You Remember

By SOPHIE MILLER

Going back some quarter of a century or more and running through the Kingston City Directory of 1923 under "B" I see Banks and Roder furriers at 272-274 Fair street. I remember they had interesting fur displays with stuffed animals. W. G. Browne Mfg. Co. manufactured kitchen utensils also did brass, copper, silver and nickle plating. They were at 1-7 Stephan street. One item in the kitchenware that seems to have disappeared from the market is the grey, blue or white enamel lightweight one-egg size frying pan. Remember you could buy it in any five and dime or hardware store for about 25 cents. Now try and buy it for any price. It had a four-inch bottom diameter and six inches at the top. I even wrote to Macy's for one and so far have not had success. I did see some very heavy ones of various metals, and they say there are glass ones, but the old-fashioned one-egg frying pan, as far as I am concerned is not with us any longer, yet folks still eat eggs. Perhaps some lady reader knows where I can get one.

I see back in 1923 the City Hotel was run by H. Millonig, at 11 Main street. I remember when later he and his wife ran one of the large restaurants on Wall street. Their food had that real home cooked flavor, not mass production, and they had nice homey desserts like bread pudding and such and flavored just right. Bread pudding is a simple dish, but set up 20 cooks with the same ingredients and believe me every pudding will be different. Some make an art of bread pudding, others make a glue not fit for eating.

No doubt folks remember George H. Muller's Colonial City Band which used to play at Kingston Point Park, it is listed in the 1923 book. They used to play the old fashioned waltzes in the music pagoda while folks rowed around in the lagoon. Remember. Harry E. (Grace) Fields is listed as manager of the U. S. Curtain Mills, at 411 Albany. They employed many people for years. Those were the days Carl G. Fischer ran Fischer's Hotel down at 69 East Strand, and you got a double helping of food if you cleaned your plate. I think lunches were 25 cents with full courses and dessert and coffee. All good food properly cooked and seasoned. Not the blue-plate type all on one plate, but served on white linen tablecloths and with real linen napkins and each course and each vegetable in a small separate plate. My father often took me to Fischer's for Sunday dinner.

Those were also the days that Forsyth and Davis, Inc., of 307 Wall street were advertising "Wholesale and retail stationers and booksellers in Kingston for nearly 50 years." William M. Davis was president and treasurer, M. L. Forsyth was vice president, Eugene Livingston was also vice president, and Arthur C. Quimby was secretary. I remember my father saying that they were very pleasant to deal with. There was also a Forsyth and Davis Motor Car Co. with sales rooms at 32 Main street and service station at 113 Green street. They were distributors of Pierce-Arrow, Franklin and Chevrolet. As folks no doubt remember, the Franklin had no water system and no radiator, was air-cooled. Even some mechanics wonder why the no water system and no radiator was not continued as it saved a lot of trouble especially in winter.

Floods Force Evacuation

Brush, Colo., Aug. 11 (AP)—Floodwaters fed by the heaviest rainfall in this northeast Colorado area in 20 years forced at least 150 farm families from their homes today. One woman was reported drowned. The floodwaters swirled along a three-mile path south and east of Brush. A cloudburst dumped up to four inches of rain and hail on prairie grassland south of here.

Floods Force Evacuation

Brush, Colo., Aug. 11 (AP)—Floodwaters fed by the heaviest rainfall in this northeast Colorado area in 20 years forced at least 150 farm families from their homes today. One woman was reported drowned. The floodwaters swirled along a three-mile path south and east of Brush. A cloudburst dumped up to four inches of rain and hail on prairie grassland south of here.

OILY BIRD — Oil is often called "liquid gold," but this first-in-line depositor at National Bank of America, Salinas, Kan., isn't showing off his hidden assets before depositing them. "He" is an advertising cutout which some heat-addled prankster left in front of the bank one recent sizzling evening.

The silvering inside a thermos bottle prevents loss of heat by reflecting heat waves back into the contained liquid.

Business Fails

Tulsa, Okla. (AP)—Choate Kirby, 7, who lives near the Tulsa entrance to the Oklahoma City-Tulsa turnpike, noticed a lot of travelers were throwing empty pop bottles along the shoulders. Business was good for a few days until patrolmen found the boy pulling his loaded wagon along the shoulder. They warned him his business was illegal and closed him down.

Colgate's New Detergent with JUST-RIGHT SUDS will

it's Colgate's NEW AD with JUST-RIGHT SUDS

guaranteed to wash clothes cleaner and whiter than any other product... protect your machine-or your money back!

Here is the greatest detergent yet produced by science for automatic washing machines!

It's Colgate's amazing new detergent AD—with just-right suds. Cup-for-cup, AD's cleaning and whitening ingredients combine to outwash any other product in your automatic washer.

AD is guaranteed to wash clothes cleaner and whiter than any other detergent known. And it lets your machine work better and last longer, too!

Here's why: AD gives you just the right amount of suds. Not too few. Not too many. But just-right suds for your machine and for perfect washing results.

So try AD today. It upsets all previous recommendations for automatic washers. And it's guaranteed to outwash any low-suds or regular detergent known.

If you don't agree that AD outwashes any other detergent in any automatic machine, we'll refund your money. Mail boxtop to: Colgate-Palmolive Co., Dept. C, P. O. Box 444, Jersey City 3, N. J.

Non-sudsing detergents fail to show proper amount of detergent to use. They may leave clothes looking grey and streaky, many housewives feel. AD, with just-right suds, gives you the cleanest, whitest wash ever!

Regular detergents produce so many suds they may cause "suds lock" . . . clog your machine . . . strain its motor . . . run up extra power and repair bills for you. AD, with just-right suds, lets your machine work smoothly and properly.

AD—with just-right suds—gives you the cleanest and whitest wash you've ever seen. And AD lets your machine work freely and easily, too. For your wash and your washer, try AD. It's better—automatically!

Today try AD—to wash clothes really clean in any type of washing machine!

Various Businesses Take Heavy Beating

New York, Aug. 11 (AP)—Connie could be a very expensive young lady for business to entertain. The property owner isn't the only one to suffer when a hurricane starts a flirtation with the mainland.

Various businesses take a financial beating. But a few, after it's all over, stand to profit.

LAST YEAR'S tempestuous ladies of the winds even had a hand in weakening the exchange value of the British pound sterling for a time.

And after the storms have passed, our ever present friend, the tax collector, gets into the act.

As a hurricane approaches the coast, utility and transportation companies round up emergency crews, stock up on repair materials. Airlines plot alternate routes, move planes out of the path, resign themselves to cancellations.

RESORT OWNERS shiver as much from the loss of business as from the prospect of property damage. With beaches closed to bathers, concession operators batten down for little or no business for awhile. Even the service stations see a drop in gasoline demand.

The aftermath of the storm is just as bad for the resort business. Not only damaged facilities and unsightly beaches, but also the psychological effect on would-be vacationers hammer at receipts.

If the hurricane cuts a wide enough swath across the mainland, its damage to crops may be enough to affect prices of certain commodities, or cause local or one-crop shortages.

THE COMMUNICATION and transportation industries feel the first brunt of the storm. Preparations are costly. Afterward snarled lines, broken pipes, torn out bridges cause loss of income as well as property loss.

Last year's storms halted rail traffic for a time on parts of New England's shoreline. Broken power, gas and water facilities shut down some factories and caused considerable loss from spoilage.

Retail trade suffers from loss of customers while the storm whirls by. Advertising managers of department stores all along the East coast have been pouring over weather maps, trying to decide whether to promote sales of picnic baskets or raincoats. A big sale of sun suits might look pretty silly with Connie calling the tune.

The National Board of Fire Underwriters, wtih Connie still at sea, readied its catastrophe loss adjustment procedure. It got set to send additional adjusters into any area the storm might hit, and was prepared if necessary, to set up one or more temporary offices in hardest hit spots.

HAZEL, ONE OF last year's big blows, cut a one billion dollar property damage path across eastern United States and Canada, to the distress of some insurance companies as well as of many property owners.

Insurance payments had a strange aftermath. Seems British insurance companies were heavily involved, and since they had to pay in American or Canadian dollars their demand for the hard currency was one of the factors contributing to the temporary embarrassment of the British exchequer late last year. The pound sterling dropped for a time in world money marts.

ANOTHER STORM after is a big demand on the building trades for the repair of damages. New copper wires must be strung, twisted steel rails replaced, new concrete poured, new plate glass installed. So a number of industries prosper.

When it's all over, the tax collector steps in. He'll allow deductions for property losses, but only over and above insurance payments. And he won't allow anything for the inconvenience, loss of business, or the expense of moving out of the storm's way.

Borrowers Are Accused of Bank Law Violations

New York, Aug. 11 (AP)—A millionaire apartment house builder and three associates have been accused of borrowing $250,000 from a bank of collateral that did not exist.

Although the money eventually was paid back, the trio have been charged with violating the Federal Banking Laws.

A Brooklyn Grand Jury probing housing windfall profits yesterday indicted Alfred L. Kaskell, a builder; Isidore Weckstein, former president of a Brooklyn bank which no longer exists; Abraham Traub, a Brooklyn attorney; and Samuel Greenberg, a Brooklyn accountant.

THE INDICTMENT charges that Kaskell borrowed the quarter-million dollars in 1952 from Weckstein's bank, the Metropolitan Industrial Bank. He offered as security construction fund advances made by the Williamsburg Bank and the Irving Trust Co. under the Federal Housing Administration insured mortgage program.

The construction fund applications involved two Kaskell-controlled housing projects in Queens—Churchill Manor Inc. and Dara Gardens Inc.

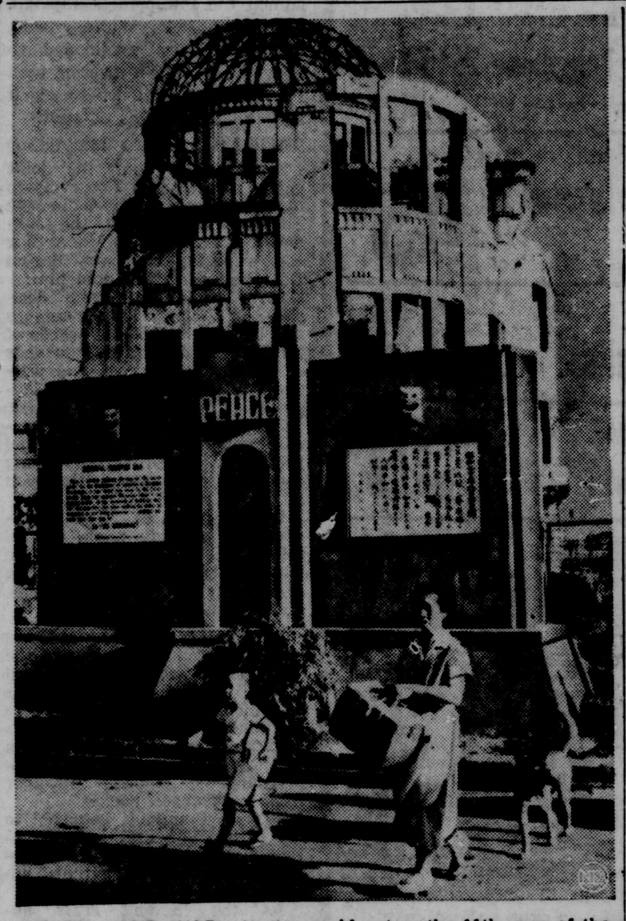
Long after the insured advances had been paid out for construction, the government contends, the Metropolitan Bank continued the loans and renewed them although the security for the loans allegedly did not exist.

KASKELL WAS a majority stockholder and chairman of the board of Metropolitan. Traub was a minority stockholder and chairman of the bank's executive committee.

Weckstein allegedly kept the disappearance of the collateral from the bank's records, and Greenberg purportedly submitted false financial satements to the bank on the corporations' finances.

Speedy Justice

Oklahoma City (AP)—Mrs. Glen Edward Thomason appeared in police court and told Judge James Demopolos she'd take all the blame for her husband's ticket for speeding. She explained it was her fault because she had disconnected the car's speedometer. Mrs. Thomason asked that she be allowed to pay the fine. The judge went one better and suspended sentence.



PEACE—AND WAR—As the world enters the 11th year of the atomic age, a monument to peace stands in the shadow of shattered Industrial Promotion Hall, Hiroshima, Japan. Situated at ground zero, focal point of the blast which leveled the city August 6, 1945, the rubble has been left as a reminder of the cataclysmic power of the atom. Among the inscriptions on the memorial is one that expresses the wish of all mankind—"No More Hiroshimas."

Raccoon Visits

Harrisburg, Pa. (AP) — Fred Marshall heard a scratching in his living room early one morning. When he got out of bed he found a big, snarling raccoon. Marshall chased it to the third floor and back down stairs before it escaped through a hole in a screen door which had been made for the cat.

Tokyo, Aug. 11 (AP)—Mrs. Romola Abidin, 26, of Bayside, N. Y., freed Sunday of the Cherry Blossom Lane murder of her husband, will leave Aug. 17 for the United States.

The army said she would arrive in Tokyo Aug. 16 from Camp Sendai, where she was tried by an army general court-martial.

She will depart the next day for her home via Pan American Clipper. Her three children and her father, Louis Viviano of Bayridge, are expected to be with her.

Her husband, Warrant Officer Robert J. Abidin, 28, was shot in their home near Camp Matsushima, Japan, June 17.

Kills Six, Wounds 12

Kuala Lumpur, Malaya, Aug. 11 (AP)—An African soldier sprayed machinegun bullets through a crowded Singapore-bound train today, killing six Asians and wounding 12 others. Apparently gone berserk, he then shot and killed himself. Four of the dead and five of the wounded were Gurkha soldiers brought from Nepal by the British to fight the Communist guerrillas. The African soldier, from North Rhodesia, also was in Malaya for the anti-Communist fight.

Mrs. Abidin Leaves August 17 for U. S.

Tokyo, Aug. 11 (AP)—Mrs. Romola Abidin, 26, of Bayside, N. Y., freed Sunday of the Cherry Blossom Lane murder of her husband, will leave Aug. 17 for the United States.

The army said she would arrive in Tokyo Aug. 16 from Camp Sendai, where she was tried by an army general court-martial.

She will depart the next day for her home via Pan American Clipper. Her three children and her father, Louis Viviano of Bayridge, are expected to be with her.

Her husband, Warrant Officer Robert J. Abidin, 28, was shot in their home near Camp Matsushima, Japan, June 17.

Kills Six, Wounds 12

Kuala Lumpur, Malaya, Aug. 11 (AP)—An African soldier sprayed machinegun bullets through a crowded Singapore-bound train today, killing six Asians and wounding 12 others. Apparently gone berserk, he then shot and killed himself. Four of the dead and five of the wounded were Gurkha soldiers brought from Nepal by the British to fight the Communist guerrillas. The African soldier, from North Rhodesia, also was in Malaya for the anti-Communist fight.

Will Back Kefauver

Chattanooga, Tenn., Aug. 11 (AP)—The Chattanooga Times said today that Rep. Wayne L. Hays (D.-Ohio) "is planning to move within three months to project Sen. Estes Kefauver into Ohio's 1956 presidential primary." The article, written under a Washington dateline by Times correspondent Charles Bartlett, said the Ohio congressman plans to go ahead "without waiting to hear the Tennessean's decision as to whether he is a candidate."

MacArthur Liberation Move Not Chiefs' Plans

New York, Aug. 11 (AP)—An aide to Gen. Douglas MacArthur says the World War 2 liberation of the Philippine Islands was carried out against the recommendations of American military chiefs of staff.

Maj. Gen. Courtney Whitney, wartime aide and friend of MacArthur, writes in the first of a series of Life Magazine articles of obstacles he said MacArthur encountered as he prepared to launch the Philippine campaign.

In July, 1944, Whitney said, MacArthur was summoned to Pearl Harbor for a meeting with President Franklin D. Roosevelt and the joint chiefs of staff.

WHITNEY SAID MacArthur was informed that the joint chiefs had advised Roosevelt to bypass the Philippines in the Pacific drive against the Japanese. Whitney said MacArthur was reported to have drawn Roosevelt aside and told him:

"Mr. President, if your decision be to bypass the Philippines and leave its million of wards of the United States and thousands of American internees and prisoners of war to continue to languish in their agony and despair—I dare to say that the American people would be so aroused that they would register most complete resentment against you at the polls this fall.

Whitney added: "The President had already made up his mind. He replied at once: 'We will not bypass the Philippines. Carry out your existing plans, and may God protect you.'"

DESCRIBING MacArthur's dramatic landing at Leyte in the Philippines, fulfilling his "I shall return" pledge, Whitney relates this incident aboard ship before the landing on Oct. 20, 1944;

"I went to MacArthur's cabin and entered just as he was slipping an old-fashioned revolver into his trouser pocket.

" 'That, Courtney, belonged to my father,' he said in explanation. 'I take it merely as a precaution—just to insure that I am never captured alive.' "

As the landing craft approached the beach, Whitney said he watched MacArthur closely for signs of the emotion he must have felt.

"HIS FACE was expressionless under the familiar goldleaf-decorated cap that he had worn when he was field marshal of the islands to which he was now returning. It was as if this were a routine ride to ashore, instead of a rendezvous with history," Whitney wrote.

Later, on shore, Whitney said, Japanese planes kept attacking MacArthur's headquarters and one spray of 50-caliber machine gun bullets tore through MacArthur's open window and hit the wall above his desk.

An aide rushed in and found him working imperturbably at his desk.

" 'Well,' said the general, 'what is it?'

" 'Thank God, general,' the aide said, 'I thought you were killed.'

"MacArthur replied, 'not yet. Thank you for coming in.' "

Before the return invasion, Whitney said, MacArthur received orders from Washington forbidding release of details of some Japanese atrocities.

"I am convinced," Whitney wrote, "that this was because the 'Europe firsters' then in power did not want an aroused public indignation to compel the diversion of a larger proportion of our military resources to the Pacific."

Alert Is Ordered

Stockholm, Aug. 11 (AP)—The Swedish navy has been placed on a special alert following five reports of unidentified submarines in Swedish waters in the past month. The orders were issued by the Swedish naval staff yesterday as Russia, in a formal note to Sweden, denied that Soviet submarines were in any way involved.

Says Russia Gave Order

Los Angeles, Aug. 11 (AP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, declining an invitation to speak in Los Angeles, said that Red China's release of imprisoned American fliers was ordered by Russia. "The Chinese Communists on instructions from the Kremlin have decided to put on a peace mask," the Chinese Nationalist leader cabled the Greater Los Angeles Press Club today.

Airport Alert

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 11 (AP)—Albany Airport went on an emergency alert last night when the pilot of an American Airlines Convair, with 43 persons aboard, reported that an indicator light failed to show the right wheel in landing position. The plane landed safely. It was found that the indicator light, not the landing gear, was at fault.

'One of Best' Is To Be Deported

New York, Aug. 11 (AP)—Emilio Funicello, 52, a convict who gained parole by cooperating with police and then went on to lead an exemplary life, now faces deportation to his native Italy.

In 1932, Funicello was sent to prison for life after being convicted of a $1.50 holdup. He already had a record of three felonies and a jailbreak. A four-time offender can get a life sentence in New York state.

While in prison Funicello decided to testify against four men who killed a police sergeant in 1931. He told police he sold the quartet the guns used in the slaying. All four defendants went to prison.

ABOUT A DOZEN years ago then Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, considering Funicello's cooperation with authorities, granted him parole.

In 1944 Funicello married and settled down at a steady job in suburban New Rochelle, N. Y., where he resides.

Yesterday Funicello was taken before Edward J. Shaughnessy, district director of the Immigration and Naturalization Service here.

Shaughnessy said Funicello, who never became a citizen, will be deported to Italy "in about a week" under the Multiple Crimes Law.

FUNICELLO'S WIFE, Anna, said from their home (38 Beechwood avenue) that her mate "has been an excellent husband who loves to work around the house."

Harry Adler, plant manager for Adler Communications Labs where Funicello has worked as a mechanic, terms him "one of our best men, one of our most reliable workers."

Police Capt. John T. Moffett, who remembers when Funicello came down from Clinton State Prison at Dannemora to give testimony against the cop slayers, says the prospective deportee has "led a good life and deserves a break."

Elmira Boy Drowns

Thruway Route 5s To Open Friday

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 11 (AP)—The Schenectady-Route 5S interchange on the State Thruway will be opened to traffic Friday at 4 p. m., the Thruway Authority announced Wednesday.

The new facility will give motorists two express interchanges in the Schenectady area. The new interchange is six miles west of the Schenectady-Route 146 interchange, which has been open since Oct. 26, 1954.

Twins Refuse Parole

Long Beach, Calif., Aug. 11 (AP)—The Finn twins, offered freedom, have turned it down. Their attorney, Joseph Scott, said the twins refused a parole yesterday because "it would imply they are criminals." The twins, George and Charles, 41, were to have been released on parole yesterday after serving 114 days of one-year sentences for interfering with a federal officer. "I'll not sign a parole that requires me to admit I've done wrong," said Charles Finn. The brothers said they want a full pardon.

June 14 definitely was established as Flag Day by a proclamation of President Woodrow Wilson, issued May 30, 1916.

'One of Best' Is To Be Deported

New York, Aug. 11 (AP)—Emilio Funicello, 52, a convict who gained parole by cooperating with police and then went on to lead an exemplary life, now faces deportation to his native Italy.

In 1932, Funicello was sent to prison for life after being convicted of a $1.50 holdup. He already had a record of three felonies and a jailbreak. A fourtime offender can get a life sentence in New York state.

While in prison Funicello decided to testify against four men who killed a police sergeant in 1931. He told police he sold the quartet the guns used in the slaying. All four defendants went to prison.

ABOUT A DOZEN years ago then Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, considering Funicello's cooperation with authorities, granted him parole.

In 1944 Funicello married and settled down at a steady job in suburban New Rochelle, N. Y., where he resides.

Yesterday Funicello was taken before Edward J. Shaughnessy, district director of the Immigration and Naturalization Service here.

Shaughnessy said Funicello, who never became a citizen, will be deported to Italy "in about a week" under the Multiple Crimes Law.

FUNICELLO'S WIFE, Anna, said from their home (38 Beechwood avenue) that her mate "has been an excellent husband who loves to work around the house."

Harry Adler, plant manager for Adler Communications Labs where Funicello has worked as a mechanic, terms him "one of our best men, one of our most reliable workers."

Police Capt. John T. Moffett, who remembers when Funicello came down from Clinton State Prison at Dannemora to give testimony against the cop slayers, says the prospective deportee has "led a good life and deserves a break."

Elmira Boy Drowns

Twins Refuse Parole

Long Beach, Calif., Aug. 11 (AP)—The Finn twins, offered freedom, have turned it down. Their attorney, Joseph Scott, said the twins refused a parole yesterday because "it would imply they are criminals." The twins, George and Charles, 41, were to have been released on parole yesterday after serving 114 days of one-year sentences for interfering with a federal officer. "I'll not sign a parole that requires me to admit I've done wrong," said Charles Finn. The brothers said they want a full pardon.

June 14 definitely was established as Flag Day by a proclamation of President Woodrow Wilson, issued May 30, 1916.

Think It Through

By EDWARD F. HUTTON

Let's get some of the "expert economists" off the Federal payroll. We need a few good ones, of course, but not thousands of them.

A lot of these smart boys know as much about business as a hog has use for a kimona. All they know about business is from books; and a lot of theeir books are slanted anti-business.

Mr. Hutton

Remember the old story about the sea captain? A man came aboard and said he had 5,000 bucks if the captain would carry a certain cargo. The captain replied: "No dice, it's against regulations." "How about 10,000?" asked the guy. "No dice," said the captain.

"Well, cappie, I'll make it 15,000." The captain called two sailors. "Throw this guy overboard," he said. They did.

The mate asked: "How come?" The captain replied: "I was afraid he'd reach my price!"

Daily, the screwball economists are yelling: "The country is in for a bust; the crack-up is here; Congress ain't manning the pumps."

Well, neighbor, if Congress had not provided more money for the Executive Department in the past twenty years than it could sanely spend, these birds never would have been on the payroll.

Write your Congressmen. Tell them to ax the payroll nerve.

Public Not Putting Stock In Word Harriman Is Out

Albany, Aug. 11 (AP)—Gov. Harriman would have more success peddling vodka at a Sunday school picnic than he's having selling the statement that he's not a candidate for President.

The 63-year-old governor has been half way around the world saying that he favors Adlai Stevenson for the 1956 Democratic nomination, but few place much stock in the statement.

Now he's taking the same stand at the annual Governors' Conference in Chicago, where a number of his fellow governors are trotting around saying that Harriman's a candidate.

FOR WHAT it's worthy, the consensus among those who read the signs here is that Harriman, holding down his first elective office, "is running like mad" for the presidency.

Even the Republicans are getting into the act. No less a dignitary than Vice President Nixon has made the prediction that Harriman will be a contender.

And the other day GOP Gov. Arthur B. Langlie of Washington said he thought Harriman might be harder to beat than Stevenson. A fellow Republican, Gov. George N. Craig of Indiana, said Harriman would be easy to defeat.

THE NET effect is that a contest is shaping up, in the public mind if not in the Democratic Party itself, between the former governor of Illinois and the present governor of New York.

Such a battle could stalemate the Democratic convention and force selection of a compromise candidate from elsewhere in the party ranks. Govs. Frank Lausche of Ohio, Frank Clements of Tennessee, and Robert Meyner of New Jersey and Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri are among possibilities that have been cited.

The Stevenson-versus-Harriman angle is being thrashed out with a will at the Governors' Conference. There's been a steady stream of governors trooping in to talk to the party's titular head, presumably to find out whether he'll hit the campaign trail next year.

Harriman and Stevenson huddled over dinner Tuesday night. After the meal they agreed they'd keep in touch on national issues.

HARRIMAN'S age may be in the picture, too. He's 63. Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan described President Eisenhower, at 64, as an old man and later said Harriman's age might be a factor. But he added that he wouldn't say Harriman was "too old."

One thing is practically certain: Harriman won't accept the vice presidential nomination. He said last week that, just as in 1952, he felt the office was "a highly important" one, but he wasn't interested. On the other hand, though, it's a political rule of thumb that you don't show interest in second place when there's a chance to come home first.

Tammany Leader Carmine G. DeSapio, secretary of state and Democratic national committeeman, and Michael H. Prendergast, Democratic state chairman, are thumping the tub for Harriman and making no bones about it.

The situation is nearly a deadringer for 1952, when a loyal band of Stevenson followers were knocking themselves out to get him the nomination and he, at the same time, was saying that he didn't want to run.

The difference this year is that Harriman isn't saying he doesn't want to run.

No wonder the wags are penning these words for Harriman to a tune Julia Sanderson launched from a Broadway stage some years back:

"And when I tell them that I'm for Stevenson

"They never believe me, they never believe me. . . ."

Mormon Pageant

Palmyra, N. Y., Aug. 11 (AP)—The 14th annual presentation of "America's Witness for Christ," the history of ancient America according to the Book of Mormon, opens here tonight on nearby Hill Cumorah—birthplace of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. The colorful pageant, which has attracted nearly 100,000 spectators for its three annual performances in recent years, will be presented on four stages along the wooded hillside. The cast is made up of young people assigned to the Mormon Church's Eastern States Mission, church members from the area and a group of students from Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah. The Book of Mormon, according to Mormon belief, was translated from golden plates found on Hill Cumorah by Joseph Smith in 1847.

For Americans

Paris (AP)—American tourists make a lot of food, drink and laundry business for the French. The Compagnie International des Wagons-Lits et des Grands Express Europeans—which operates the familiar blue railroad dining cars—says that during the season it serves American tourists each month with: A half million meals, 17,000 half bottles of fine wines (hardly anyone ever buys a full bottle); 15,000 bottles of champagne, 8,000 bottles of cognac. In addition, Wagon-Lits launders 55,000 table covers a month, 530,000 napkins and 100,000 bedsheets. Crockery makers do all right, too. Each year, the company replaces 100,000 plates, 74,000 glasses, 93,000 saucers and 10,000 broken cups.

PACK 38, Saugerties Reformed Church entries include a car driven by Jack Pakanen, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack O. Pakanen and sponsored by Saugerties Sales and Service and a car driven by Glen Myers, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen L. Myers and sponsored by Clum's Store.

Chief Arthur W. Richter of the local police who gave permission to use West Bridge street for the derby also said that trial runs could be held Saturday afternoon.

On Saturday at 5 p. m. all cars must be registered at the VFW Hall on Livingston street. From there the cars will be conveyed to a place to be designated for weighing.

THE COASTER cars will then be returned to the VFW Hall where they will be displayed during the evening to the public in a Cub Scout Coaster Car Show beginning at 7 p. m.

The cars will remain in the hall overnight and will be picked up prior to the race at which time each driver will receive one of the plastic crash helmets donated by Jack Offermann's Gift Shop and each cub scout in a den entering a car will receive a special derby T shirt donated by Amrod's Department Store.

The winner of the final heat will be awarded the Saugerties Daily Post Trophy by Miss Crystal Jobst, Miss Saugerties of 1955.

To Honor 496th

San Francisco, Aug. 11 (AP)—The Night Fighter Assn. has announced it will award the Hughes Trophy Saturday to the 496th Fighter Interceptor Squadron, Landstuhl, Germany, as the world's outstanding air defense unit. Lt. Col. Robert R. Fishel, squadron commander, formerly of Fullerton, Calif., will accept the trophy from Lt. Gen. Frank Everest, air force deputy chief of staff for operations. The World War 2 veterans organization is holding its annual meeting here in connection with the Air Force Assn. convention. The 496th Squadron, flying F86 Sabre jets, is a part of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization forces in Germany. The squadron was chosen by a board of officers at air force headquarters, as the outstanding air defense unit on the basis of its operational record during the past year.

Think It Through

By EDWARD F. HUTTON

Let's get some of the "expert economists" off the Federal payroll. We need a few good ones, of course, but not thousands of them.

A lot of these smart boys know as much about business as a hog has use for a kimona. All they know about business is from books; and a lot of theeir books are slanted anti-business.

Mr. Hutton

Remember the old story about the sea captain? A man came aboard and said he had 5,000 bucks if the captain would carry a certain cargo. The captain replied: "No dice, it's against regulations." "How about 10,000?" asked the guy. "No dice," said the captain.

"Well, cappie, I'll make it 15,000." The captain called two sailors. "Throw this guy overboard," he said. They did.

The mate asked: "How come?" The captain replied: "I was afraid he'd reach my price!"

Daily, the screwball economists are yelling: "The country is in for a bust; the crack-up is here; Congress ain't manning the pumps."

Well, neighbor, if Congress had not provided more money for the Executive Department in the past twenty years than it could sanely spend, these birds never would have been on the payroll.

She was reported to have suffered fractures of the right hip and leg and internal injuries. She died in Greene County Memorial Hospital, Catskill, six hours later. Her companions escaped injury.

He declined to be identified.

Bites the Hand

Evanston, Ill. (AP)—Topsy had a good reason for biting her master twice on the left hand. Jack Van Dermeir, 22, was washing some automobile parts in gasoline in a filling station. The pail of gasoline caught fire and Van Dermeir tossed the mass of flames through the door just as Topsy, his dog, was passing it. Van Demeir then chased Topsy trying to put out the flames. When he caught her she bit him, putting him in a hospital.

Salk Vaccine Is Given 150 More

More than 300 Ulster county children were inoculated against polio during clinics yesterday and today at the Kate Walton Field House.

Approximately 150 children in Grades 1 through 4 in the city of Kingston and the towns of Ulster, Kingston, Esopus and Hurley received the vaccine yesterday. As the clinic approached closing time at noon today the number was better than 150, it was reported by Miss Esther Schisa, director of nursing, Ulster County Health Department.

DURING BOTH days the children, accompanied by their parents, drifted in a few at a time. Dr. Dudley Hargrave, Ulster county health commissioner, said the inoculations went smoothly. Eligible children in Grades 1 thrugh 4 who were not able to attend the two-day clinic will receive the vaccine after school opens.

Drs. John Roberts, Walter Levy, Irving Josephson and Herbert Schwarz were at the clinic this morning to handle the inoculations. Also assisting, in addition to nurses, clerks and others listed yesterday, were Miss Esther Meredith, Miss Marion McCoubrey, Miss Gloria Schwenterly and Mrs. Jane Wygant, all nurses with the Ulster County Health Department, and Mrs. Blanche Epstein and Mrs. Luella Giles, mothers from the George Washington School.

Bearsville Mishap Injures 4 Women

Four residents of the metropolitan area, all women, were injured about 3 p. m. Wednesday in a one-car accident on Route 212 in the hamlet of Bearsville.

One of the four, Margaret Pagano, 44, of Queens, was admitted to Kingston Hospital suffering with lacerations of the chin and mouth, broken front teeth and a possible fracture of the spine. Hospital authorities said her condition was "fairly good."

Treated but not admitted were Antoinette M. Rand, 44, of Queens, lacerations of the right knee and a broken nose; Rose Orcenzio, 44, of Carlstadt, N. J., lacerations of the right leg, and Lillian Zabbara, 59, of Astoria, L. I., swelling of the left ankle and lacerations of the left eyebrow.

Trooper J. E. Ellsworth of Phoenicia, who happened to be patroling the area, arrived at the scene a few minutes after the accident. He said the 1952 sedan, operated by Mrs. Rand, was traveling south on Route 212 and approaching the Bearsville store at the intersection of Route 212 and the Wittenberg road when Mrs. Rand attempted to apply her brakes. The brakes apparently failed to work.

THERE WERE cars ahead and Mrs. Rand became nervous, the car swerving off the highway, knocking down a state highway sign and striking a tree, Trooper Ellsworth said.

Dr. Hans Cohn of Woodstock treated the victims at the scene. Two of the women were taken to the hospital by Schultz ambulance and two by private car, it was reported.

Trooper Ellsworth said the car received considerable damage to the right front side and had to be towed away.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Aug 11 (AP)—A selective rally in the stock market today pushed some issues up around 2 points.

There was little interest, however, in the bulk of the list and most price changes were small in either direction in early afternoon.

Trading was light.

The steels, rails, coppers and aircrafts won buying support.

Trading was quiet on the American Stock Exchange, where prices were generally higher.

The corporate bond market was narrowly mixed. U. S. government issues were steady.

Rotary Club Barbecue Was Largely Attended

Members of the Kingston Rotary Club, their families and guests numbering some 300 attended the annual Rotary chicken barbecue Wednesday evening at Harry Beatty's farm. This was the third annual barbecue of the local service club.

President Ray Elmendorf and a staff of Rotarians prepared and served the barbecue, which was one of the most successful held by the club.

Chickens for the barbecue are purchased from the Ulster County 4-H Club. The proceeds are turned over to the local 4-H Club for its permanent camp fund.

Decision Is Held

the building at the time of the alleged assault.

Attorney Frank Martocci appeared for the claimant and prosecution of the case, and Arthur B. Ewig for Seigel.

Geraldine Ray, 27, of 57 Van Buren street, arrested yesterday on a charge dealing with "endangering the health and life of a child," also appeared before Judge Gold today, and her case was put over until Aug. 20.

THE ARREST was the apparent outgrowth of a complaint Tuesday morning that sticks had been thrown through the kitchen window of Mrs. G. J. Greaux, 55 Van Buren street, by children, and that Mrs. Ray had encouraged a repetition of the act.

Officers Gurnsey Burger Sr., and Edward Leonard, who were dispatched to the house after the Tuesday complaint, brought the sticks to police headquarters. It was charged that the Ray children had thrown them, and Detective Clarence Brophy said today that the charge implies that at least one of the children had been encouraged to throw a stick the second time.

The adjournment to Aug. 20 was on consent of the district attorney's office, represented by John E. Gotelli. Bail was fixed at $500.

Crowds

Burns expressed satisfaction at the number of merchants participating in this August's sales.

"I AM VERY HAPPY to see so many merchants joining in August Sales Days," he commented, "and the uptown store traffic looks very good."

At J. C. Penny Company, 318 Wall street, Manager Jack Buffington reported the turnout as "very good." He said the morning traffic was "holding up strong and the response is excellent." Mr. Buffington said he doubted the rain was any hindrance. "In fact, it might have helped a little," he said.

James L. Rowe of Rowe's Shoe Store, 34 John street, compared the influx of shoppers with last year and sales running about the same. "We always have big August Sales Days," Mr. Rowe said, "and this is another big one."

DECLARING that the event seems to gain momentum every year, Oscar London, owner of London's Youth Centre and Junior Bazaar, 33 North Front street, described the opening as "terrific."

Kaye Sportwair, 46 North Front street, also expressed enthusiasm over the number of people making purchases in their store up to noon. Louis and Harold Kantrowitz likewise appraised the sales as "terrific" and reported the biggest morning they ever experienced in the history of the sales event.

Strike Still Threatens

New York, Aug. 1 (AP)—Threat of a strike by 1,000 milk tank truck drivers has flared again, and negotiators scheduled further talks today in an effort to settle the pay and hours dispute. Federal and state mediators stepped back into the picture last night when the new strike threat was made.

Carvel Claims

cause it interfered with the private rights of a property owner.

The petitioner said he failed to see the need of any decision from the council or zoning board since the property in question was of business character long before the zoning laws were enacted in the city. It was described as one of the earliest in the area used for business purposes, and continued in that use up to the present.

Action for years by the council in granting piece-meal zoning changes, it charged, has created a general business district in the area, and on the Albany avenue side, the district is largely composed of business properties from Foxhall avenue to the city line.

The Southard property is no longer non-conforming, it charged, because it conforms to the general character of the section. The petitioner argued against claims that an ice cream store would create new traffic problems in the area and presented a picture showing a tract to be used for parking cars.

Traffic, it held, is a citywide problem today, and existed as such before the Carvel application. It held that control rests with the police and control signals in that area as elsewhere, and asked a declaratory judgment on the petition.

Attorney Louis B. Bruhn and Second Ward Alderman Benjamin A. Storms spoke for the opposition.

Bruhn, after charging that the board was not empowered to sit as an appellate court to review recent Common Council action on the petition, cited the zoning board ruling which permits substituting one use for another on a non-comforming property, and calls for its reverting to a residential property in the event the structure used for business is razed.

THE ZONING BOARD, said Bruhn, was created as a "child" of the Common Council, and he indicated the latter body should have the final, greater power in deciding on such questions as the petition under discussion.

Both Attorney Bruhn and Alderman Storms argued that use of the property for an ice cream store would add to traffic hazards in the area. This and other factors, were taken into consideration when the council voted down the original petition, it was noted.

ANOTHER ARGUMENT was to the effect that the neighborhood streets would become littered with ice cream containers, and it was also argued that location of the store on the proposed site would create a new danger to children from the Roosevelt Park section, who would cross the intersection en route to School No. 6.

It was announced that counsel for the opposition would be granted 20 days in which to file an answer and briefs to the original and supplemental petitions, and that the board would give its decision and opinion some time after that.

Sought in Holdup

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 11 (AP)—A 26-year-old World War 2 veteran, from nearby Lancaster, dscribed by his mother as a "good boy," was being sought by police today in connection with the $11,000 holdup Monday of a suburban branch of the Manufacturers Traders Trust Co. The Federal Bureau of Investigation identified the suspect yesterday as Jacob R. Schnitzer and said he was believed to be driving to Florida in the company of one or more women. Schnitzer was described as probably armed and dangerous.

Says Agreement Near

Geneva, Aug. 11 (AP)—A Chinese Communist source said today his government and the United States are "near agreement" on the release of 40 Americans held by Peiping and only details remain to be worked out. There was no official confirmation of the report, however, from either the Americans or the Reds.

Early Rainfall Only Quarter-Inch

Rain today had the downpour sound in the early hours a few times, but it all added up to less than a quarter of an inch in most areas.

The local office of the New York city water department reported only .15 of an inch in both the Ashokan and Gilboa reservoir areas, and the total for the month, to date, in both areas is .40 of an inch.

Records today in those areas were up to a. m. The city engineer's record will not be taken until later.

The rain dampened the earth which has been parched through July and, to date, this month, but it was considered no real relief so far to farmers, who have been hoping for a long, soaking rain.

The weather remained cool compared to last week's hot days. The temperature today was 84 at 1:30 p. m.

Charged with juvenile delinquency, they were placed in the custody of their parents pending appearance in children's court.

Salk Vaccine Is Given 150 More

More than 300 Ulster county children were inoculated against polio during clinics yesterday and today at the Kate Walton Field House.

Approximately 150 children in Grades 1 through 4 in the city of Kingston and the towns of Ulster, Kingston, Esopus and Hurley received the vaccine yesterday. As the clinic approached closing time at noon today the number was better than 150, it was reported by Miss Esther Schisa, director of nursing, Ulster County Health Department.

DURING BOTH days the children, accompanied by their parents, drifted in a few at a time. Dr. Dudley Hargrave, Ulster county health commissioner, said the inoculations went smoothly. Eligible children in Grades 1 thrugh 4 who were not able to attend the two-day clinic will receive the vaccine after school opens.

Drs. John Roberts, Walter Levy, Irving Josephson and Herbert Schwarz were at the clinic this morning to handle the inoculations. Also assisting, in addition to nurses, clerks and others listed yesterday, were Miss Esther Meredith, Miss Marion McCoubrey, Miss Gloria Schwenterly and Mrs. Jane Wygant, all nurses with the Ulster County Health Department, and Mrs. Blanche Epstein and Mrs. Luella Giles, mothers from the George Washington School.

Bearsville Mishap Injures 4 Women

Four residents of the metropolitan area, all women, were injured about 3 p. m. Wednesday in a one-car accident on Route 212 in the hamlet of Bearsville.

One of the four, Margaret Pagano, 44, of Queens, was admitted to Kingston Hospital suffering with lacerations of the chin and mouth, broken front teeth and a possible fracture of the spine. Hospital authorities said her condition was "fairly good."

Treated but not admitted were Antoinette M. Rand, 44, of Queens, lacerations of the right knee and a broken nose; Rose Orcenzio, 44, of Carlstadt, N. J., lacerations of the right leg, and Lillian Zabbara, 59, of Astoria, L. I., swelling of the left ankle and lacerations of the left eyebrow.

Trooper J. E. Ellsworth of Phoenicia, who happened to be patroling the area, arrived at the scene a few minutes after the accident. He said the 1952 sedan, operated by Mrs. Rand, was traveling south on Route 212 and approaching the Bearsville store at the intersection of Route 212 and the Wittenberg road when Mrs. Rand attempted to apply her brakes. The brakes apparently failed to work.

THERE WERE cars ahead and Mrs. Rand became nervous, the car swerving off the highway, knocking down a state highway sign and striking a tree, Trooper Ellsworth said.

Dr. Hans Cohn of Woodstock treated the victims at the scene. Two of the women were taken to the hospital by Schultz ambulance and two by private car, it was reported.

Trooper Ellsworth said the car received considerable damage to the right front side and had to be towed away.

It was noted that a blast had been set off by the Callanan Road Improvement Co., at 11:30 a. m. Officers John Houghtaling and Julius Glassman, who investigated at the Brewster street house, said two layers of brick had fallen, and others were loose.

Won't Leave

Seoul, Aug. 11 (AP)—A high Swedish official said today the Swiss and Swedish members of the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission (NNSC) would not leave Korea under pressure. His was the first public comment by a commission member since the group received a one-week ultimatum from the Republic of Korea to leave the country by Saturday. "The continuation of the Korean government's campaign only strengthens our determination to stay on the job until the United Nations tells us differently," the Swede said. He declined to be identified.

Bites the Hand

Evanston, Ill. (AP)—Topsy had a good reason for biting her master twice on the left hand. Jack Van Dermeir, 22, was washing some automobile parts in gasoline in a filling station. The pail of gasoline caught fire and Van Dermeir tossed the mass of flames through the door just as Topsy, his dog, was passing it. Van Demeir then chased Topsy trying to put out the flames. When he caught her she bit him, putting him in a hospital.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Aug 11 (AP)—A selective rally in the stock market today pushed some issues up around 2 points.

There was little interest, however, in the bulk of the list and most price changes were small in either direction in early afternoon.

Trading was light.

The steels, rails, coppers and aircrafts won buying support.

Trading was quiet on the American Stock Exchange, where prices were generally higher.

The corporate bond market was narrowly mixed. U. S. government issues were steady.

Rotary Club Barbecue Was Largely Attended

Members of the Kingston Rotary Club, their families and guests numbering some 300 attended the annual Rotary chicken barbecue Wednesday evening at Harry Beatty's farm. This was the third annual barbecue of the local service club.

President Ray Elmendorf and a staff of Rotarians prepared and served the barbecue, which was one of the most successful held by the club.

Chickens for the barbecue are purchased from the Ulster County 4-H Club. The proceeds are turned over to the local 4-H Club for its permanent camp fund.

Decision Is Held

the building at the time of the alleged assault.

Attorney Frank Martocci appeared for the claimant and prosecution of the case, and Arthur B. Ewig for Seigel.

Geraldine Ray, 27, of 57 Van Buren street, arrested yesterday on a charge dealing with "endangering the health and life of a child," also appeared before Judge Gold today, and her case was put over until Aug. 20.

THE ARREST was the apparent outgrowth of a complaint Tuesday morning that sticks had been thrown through the kitchen window of Mrs. G. J. Greaux, 55 Van Buren street, by children, and that Mrs. Ray had encouraged a repetition of the act.

Officers Gurnsey Burger Sr., and Edward Leonard, who were dispatched to the house after the Tuesday complaint, brought the sticks to police headquarters. It was charged that the Ray children had thrown them, and Detective Clarence Brophy said today that the charge implies that at least one of the children had been encouraged to throw a stick the second time.

The adjournment to Aug. 20 was on consent of the district attorney's office, represented by John E. Gotelli. Bail was fixed at $500.

Crowds

Burns expressed satisfaction at the number of merchants participating in this August's sales.

"I AM VERY HAPPY to see so many merchants joining in August Sales Days," he commented, "and the uptown store traffic looks very good."

At J. C. Penny Company, 318 Wall street, Manager Jack Buffington reported the turnout as "very good." He said the morning traffic was "holding up strong and the response is excellent." Mr. Buffington said he doubted the rain was any hindrance. "In fact, it might have helped a little," he said.

James L. Rowe of Rowe's Shoe Store, 34 John street, compared the influx of shoppers with last year and sales running about the same. "We always have big August Sales Days," Mr. Rowe said, "and this is another big one."

DECLARING that the event seems to gain momentum every year, Oscar London, owner of London's Youth Centre and Junior Bazaar, 33 North Front street, described the opening as "terrific."

Kaye Sportwair, 46 North Front street, also expressed enthusiasm over the number of people making purchases in their store up to noon. Louis and Harold Kantrowitz likewise appraised the sales as "terrific" and reported the biggest morning they ever experienced in the history of the sales event.

Strike Still Threatens

New York, Aug. 1 (AP)—Threat of a strike by 1,000 milk tank truck drivers has flared again, and negotiators scheduled further talks today in an effort to settle the pay and hours dispute. Federal and state mediators stepped back into the picture last night when the new strike threat was made.

Carvel Claims

cause it interfered with the private rights of a property owner.

The petitioner said he failed to see the need of any decision from the council or zoning board since the property in question was of business character long before the zoning laws were enacted in the city. It was described as one of the earliest in the area used for business purposes, and continued in that use up to the present.

Action for years by the council in granting piece-meal zoning changes, it charged, has created a general business district in the area, and on the Albany avenue side, the district is largely composed of business properties from Foxhall avenue to the city line.

The Southard property is no longer non-conforming, it charged, because it conforms to the general character of the section. The petitioner argued against claims that an ice cream store would create new traffic problems in the area and presented a picture showing a tract to be used for parking cars.

Traffic, it held, is a citywide problem today, and existed as such before the Carvel application. It held that control rests with the police and control signals in that area as elsewhere, and asked a declaratory judgment on the petition.

Attorney Louis B. Bruhn and Second Ward Alderman Benjamin A. Storms spoke for the opposition.

Bruhn, after charging that the board was not empowered to sit as an appellate court to review recent Common Council action on the petition, cited the zoning board ruling which permits substituting one use for another on a non-comforming property, and calls for its reverting to a residential property in the event the structure used for business is razed.

THE ZONING BOARD, said Bruhn, was created as a "child" of the Common Council, and he indicated the latter body should have the final, greater power in deciding on such questions as the petition under discussion.

Both Attorney Bruhn and Alderman Storms argued that use of the property for an ice cream store would add to traffic hazards in the area. This and other factors, were taken into consideration when the council voted down the original petition, it was noted.

ANOTHER ARGUMENT was to the effect that the neighborhood streets would become littered with ice cream containers, and it was also argued that location of the store on the proposed site would create a new danger to children from the Roosevelt Park section, who would cross the intersection en route to School No. 6.

It was announced that counsel for the opposition would be granted 20 days in which to file an answer and briefs to the original and supplemental petitions, and that the board would give its decision and opinion some time after that.

Sought in Holdup

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 11 (AP)—A 26-year-old World War 2 veteran, from nearby Lancaster, dscribed by his mother as a "good boy," was being sought by police today in connection with the $11,000 holdup Monday of a suburban branch of the Manufacturers Traders Trust Co. The Federal Bureau of Investigation identified the suspect yesterday as Jacob R. Schnitzer and said he was believed to be driving to Florida in the company of one or more women. Schnitzer was described as probably armed and dangerous.

Says Agreement Near

Geneva, Aug. 11 (AP)—A Chinese Communist source said today his government and the United States are "near agreement" on the release of 40 Americans held by Peiping and only details remain to be worked out. There was no official confirmation of the report, however, from either the Americans or the Reds.

Early Rainfall OnlyQuarter-Inch

Rain today had the downpour sound in the early hours a few times, but it all added up to less than a quarter of an inch in most areas.

The local office of the New York city water department reported only .15 of an inch in both the Ashokan and Gilboa reservoir areas, and the total for the month, to date, in both areas is .40 of an inch.

Records today in those areas were up to a. m. The city engineer's record will not be taken until later.

The rain dampened the earth which has been parched through July and, to date, this month, but it was considered no real relief so far to farmers, who have been hoping for a long, soaking rain.

The weather remained cool compared to last week's hot days. The temperature today was 84 at 1:30 p. m.

'Madame Butterfly' Opens at Festival With Eugene Conley, Mary Henderson

Puccini's ever-popular and melodic "Madame Butterfly" will be the second opera presentation of the season at the Empire State Music Festival in Ellenville tonight at 8:30 and again Saturday evening.

The case is headed by leading Metropolitan tenor, Eugene Conley as the American Lt. B. F. Pinkerton. Mr. Conley was seen last week as the tenor lead in "La Boheme" at the festival.

The role of the Japanese maiden, Suzuki, will be sung by well-known American contralto Evelyn Sachs. Others in the cast are noted American soprano Mary Henderson, in the title role, who will sing the beautiful aria "Un bel di vedremo" in the second act, sometimes called the most famed aria in modern opera.

The role of Sharpless, the American consul, will be sung by John Brownlee. Supporting roles of Goro and Bonzo will be done by George Tallone and Lloyd Harris. Edwin Dunning and Mary Lesawyer, leading singers of the New York City Opera Company complete the cast.

"Madame Butterfly," which was poorly received when first produced in 1900, but has now been established as one of the finest of the Puccini operas, is the story of an American officer in Japan who takes the Japanese girl Cio-Cio-San (Madame Butterfly) as his "port wife." Pinkerton departs on his duties while Cio-Cio-San gives birth to his child. When his ship returns, he is found with his legal wife, an American. When Cio-Cio-San discovers this, she gives over her child to Pinkerton, and then commits suicide.

The opera will be produced by John Brownlee on a stage created for the Music Festival by Vienna-born architect Frederick John Kiesler and his associate, Victor Harasty. The setting provides only the bare necessities in furniture and props with no wings or backdrops. The singers make entrances and exits in view of the audience from the steps leading to the stage from the tent floor. Critics have said the accoustics are near-perfect, providing perfect audibility within the tent and on the lawn.

Emerson Buckley conducts the Symphony of the Air for this production.

Rare Chance

Norfolk, Va. (AP)—Norfolk seafarers may have wanted to heckle Arthur (Big Swede) Ronning, but they had to consider discretion. Then Ronning got locked up in the Seafarers International Union hall and had to yell through the steel bars which serve as a door. He had to spend several hours there before the only man with a key could be located. He took a lot of ribbing. Big Swede is 6 feet five inches and weighs 300 pounds.

Annual Glasco Procession Is ScheduledSunday

The annual procession at Glasco in honor of Our Lady and her Assumption ino Heaven will be held on Sunday at 2 p. m. The procession will begin from St. Joseph's Church and after moving through Glasco will return to the church for the Benediction.

According to the Rev. Archibald Damm, pastor of St. Joseph's Church there will not be the usual Benediction after the 10 a. m. Mass which will be short and sung in honor of the "Assunta."

The large statue of Our Lady will be on the lawn of the church during the 8, 9, 10, and 11 a. m. Masses for the benefit of those passing and those whose homes will not see the procession.

Children, forming their own unit, the young and the not so old, parish societies with their banners will march in the procession in the spirit of the penitential pilgrim and in public profession of their esteem for "Our Blessed Mother."

THE GLASCO Community Band will accompany the procession and in case of rain the event will be postponed until next Sunday. Mass will be offered for all participants in or contributing to the procession the Sunday afterward.

Charles Pasqua is the procession chairman and volunteer statue bearers will report to him. All participants will form outside the church at 1:30 p. m. prior to the procession.

The annual Parish Bazaar will be held on the evenings of Aug. 13 and 14.

Hoover'sBoyhood Home Dedicated AsNationalShrine

Newberg, Ore., Aug. 11 (AP)—Herbert Hoover headed for his favorite fishing stream—the McKenzie river in southwestern Oregon—after seeing his boyhood home dedicated as a national shrine yesterday.

Hoover observed his 81st birthday at ceremonies dedicating the house where he came as an orphan to live in the quiet town 70 years ago.

'Madame Butterfly' Opens at Festival With Eugene Conley, Mary Henderson

Puccini's ever-popular and melodic "Madame Butterfly" will be the second opera presentation of the season at the Empire State Music Festival in Ellenville tonight at 8:30 and again Saturday evening.

The case is headed by leading Metropolitan tenor, Eugene Conley as the American Lt. B. F. Pinkerton. Mr. Conley was seen last week as the tenor lead in "La Boheme" at the festival.

The role of the Japanese maiden, Suzuki, will be sung by well-known American contralto Evelyn Sachs. Others in the cast are noted American soprano Mary Henderson, in the title role, who will sing the beautiful aria "Un bel di vedremo" in the second act, sometimes called the most famed aria in modern opera.

The role of Sharpless, the American consul, will be sung by John Brownlee. Supporting roles of Goro and Bonzo will be done by George Tallone and Lloyd Harris. Edwin Dunning and Mary Lesawyer, leading singers of the New York City Opera Company complete the cast.

"Madame Butterfly," which was poorly received when first produced in 1900, but has now been established as one of the finest of the Puccini operas, is the story of an American officer in Japan who takes the Japanese girl Cio-Cio-San (Madame Butterfly) as his "port wife." Pinkerton departs on his duties while Cio-Cio-San gives birth to his child. When his ship returns, he is found with his legal wife, an American. When Cio-Cio-San discovers this, she gives over her child to Pinkerton, and then commits suicide.

The opera will be produced by John Brownlee on a stage created for the Music Festival by Vienna-born architect Frederick John Kiesler and his associate, Victor Harasty. The setting provides only the bare necessities in furniture and props with no wings or backdrops. The singers make entrances and exits in view of the audience from the steps leading to the stage from the tent floor. Critics have said the accoustics are near-perfect, providing perfect audibility within the tent and on the lawn.

Emerson Buckley conducts the Symphony of the Air for this production.

Annual Glasco Procession Is Scheduled Sunday

The annual procession at Glasco in honor of Our Lady and her Assumption ino Heaven will be held on Sunday at 2 p. m. The procession will begin from St. Joseph's Church and after moving through Glasco will return to the church for the Benediction.

According to the Rev. Archibald Damm, pastor of St. Joseph's Church there will not be the usual Benediction after the 10 a. m. Mass which will be short and sung in honor of the "Assunta."

The large statue of Our Lady will be on the lawn of the church during the 8, 9, 10, and 11 a. m. Masses for the benefit of those passing and those whose homes will not see the procession.

Children, forming their own unit, the young and the not so old, parish societies with their banners will march in the procession in the spirit of the penitential pilgrim and in public profession of their esteem for "Our Blessed Mother."

THE GLASCO Community Band will accompany the procession and in case of rain the event will be postponed until next Sunday. Mass will be offered for all participants in or contributing to the procession the Sunday afterward.

Charles Pasqua is the procession chairman and volunteer statue bearers will report to him. All participants will form outside the church at 1:30 p. m. prior to the procession.

The annual Parish Bazaar will be held on the evenings of Aug. 13 and 14.

Cheese should not be stored in a home freezer, but kept at a temperature of about 40 degrees to make it keep and taste better.

Rare Chance

Norfolk, Va. (AP)—Norfolk seafarers may have wanted to beckle Arthur (Big Swede) Ronning, but they had to consider discretion. Then Ronning got locked up in the Seafarers International Union hall and had to yell through the steel bars which serve as a door. He had to spend several hours there before the only man with a key could be located. He took a lot of ribbing. Big Swede is 6 feet five inches and weighs 300 pounds.

Hoover's Boyhood Home Dedicated As National Shrine

Newberg, Ore., Aug. 11 (AP)—Herbert Hoover headed for his favorite fishing stream—the McKenzie river in southwestern Oregon—after seeing his boyhood home dedicated as a national shrine yesterday.

Hoover observed his 81st birthday at ceremonies dedicating the house where he came as an orphan to live in the quiet town 70 years ago.

THE FORMER President spoke bareheaded in the hot afternoon sun to a crowd estimated at 5,000. Hoover showed no signs of fatigue and seemed pleased with the simple ceremonies arranged for the occasion.

Although he did not remember many of his former neighbors—he was 15 when he left Newberg for nearby Salem—he mingled with the crowd, greeting every one who approached him.

At the ceremonies, he told of his early days in this area and praised the heritage left by the builders of Newberg and the small towns over the nation.

RETURNING NEIGHBOR'S VISIT

A wife tells me: "My husband and I have recently moved into a new house in a new neighborhood. Several days after we moved in, a neighbor came to call and brought a box of homemade cookies. I would like to know when I return this call if it would be proper to bring her something. Also, if one does not have anything in common with a new neighbor, would it be a gross breach of etiquette not to return her visit?"

It is very important that you return her visit with apparent pleasure but it is not at all expected that you take anything to her.

Staying With His Friends

Dear Mrs. Post: I'm going to spend part of my vacation in the town in which my fiance works. I'm staying at the house of friends of his, a young married couple with a small child, who are strangers to me. I know from him that they haven't much money and I wondered how I could pay my way. I don't want to hurt their feelings but I would feel a lot better about staying there if I could defray the expense of my visit.

Answer: Just write and tell him how you feel and let him tell his friends what you have said and make arrangements for you. If they refuse, don't press it.

Not Negligee on Coach

Dear Mrs. Post: In the all-coach trains, where one sleeps at night in the same seat one occupies by day, but is not separated from other people, may a woman change into a negligee or housecoat to keep her dress from looking slept in?

Answer: Take an extra, comfortable dress that you could change in, in the ladies' room, but the negligee or housecoat really would be unsuitable.

If you are planning a dinner party without help, you will find Mrs. Post's booklet No. 503 helpful. This booklet includes details for easy serving. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. To obtain a copy, send 25 cents in coin to Dept. EP care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, PO Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

RETURNING NEIGHBOR'S VISIT

A wife tells me: "My husband and I have recently moved into a new house in a new neighborhood. Several days after we moved in, a neighbor came to call and brought a box of homemade cookies. I would like to know when I return this call if it would be proper to bring her something. Also, if one does not have anything in common with a new neighbor, would it be a gross breach of etiquette not to return her visit?"

It is very important that you return her visit with apparent pleasure but it is not at all expected that you take anything to her.

Staying With His Friends

Dear Mrs. Post: I'm going to spend part of my vacation in the town in which my fiance works. I'm staying at the house of friends of his, a young married couple with a small child, who are strangers to me. I know from him that they haven't much money and I wondered how I could pay my way. I don't want to hurt their feelings but I would feel a lot better about staying there if I could defray the expense of my visit.

Answer: Just write and tell him how you feel and let him tell his friends what you have said and make arrangements for you. If they refuse, don't press it.

Not Negligee on Coach

Dear Mrs. Post: In the all-coach trains, where one sleeps at night in the same seat one occupies by day, but is not separated from other people, may a woman change into a negligee or housecoat to keep her dress from looking slept in?

Answer: Take an extra, comfortable dress that you could change in, in the ladies' room, but the negligee or housecoat really would be unsuitable.

If you are planning a dinner party without help, you will find Mrs. Post's booklet No. 503 helpful. This booklet includes details for easy serving. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. Jones Dairy Shades Bowlodrome, 2-1, on Hinkley's 4-Hitter

Misasi Steals Home With Run That Pays Off

Acker Excels In Relief Role

(Second Half City Baseball League)

Dobler Beer	1	0
Nadler Motors	1	0
Jones Dairy	1	0
New York Panthers	0	1
Ferraro Bowlodrome	0	2

Jones Dairy, a team to be reckoned with in the abbreviated second half of the City Baseball League race, launched its bid for a playoff by knocking off Ferraro's Bowlodrome, 2-1, yesterday at the Athletic Field.

It was a particularly tough loss for the bowling alley boys, who played errorless ball for the first time this season. The Dairymen actually stole the game, as Big Sal Misasi pilfered home with the winning marker.

BRUCE "RED" HINKLEY was returned the winner over Al Rubinstein and John Acker in a battle of four-hitters.

Acker turned in another stout relief job for Bowlodrome, blanking the winners after Rubinstein gave up two runs in the first. The lone Bowlodrome tally came in the fourth and it stayed 2-1 through the last four innings.

Rubinstein got the first two Jones batters to open the game but walked Tom Carlino. Misasi and Bob Shelightner singled to load the bases. Nippy Jones walked, forcing in Carlino and Misasi stole home.

A revised schedule for the remainder of the second half has been announced as follows:

Monday, Aug. 15—Doblers vs. Jones Dairy.
Tuesday, Aug. 16—Ferraros vs. Panthers.
Wednesday, Aug. 17—Nadlers vs. Doblers.
Thursday, Aug. 18—Panthers vs. Dairy.
Tuesday, Aug. 23—Doblers vs. Panthers.
Wednesday, Aug. 24—Joneses vs. Nadlers.
Monday, Aug. 30—Nadlers vs. Ferraros.

Royals Hold One-Game Lead

(By The Associated Press)

The International League pennant race is coming down to the wire with a three-way scramble for first place.

With little more than three weeks remaining only 2½ games separate the first three teams today (Thursday).

The Montreal Royals held on to their one game margin over the Toronto Maple Leafs last night by defeating the Rochester Red Wings, 8-1, as the Maple Leafs edged the Buffalo Bisons 1-0 in a 5-inning game called by rain.

Both teams gained a half game on the idle Havana Sugar Kings. The Syracuse Chiefs, Columbus Jets and Richmond Virginians were also idle.

The Royals, who took over first place from the Leafs Sunday, have 34 games left. Toronto has 30 and the Cubans 32. The season ends Monday, September 5 (Labor Day).

A Superb Robert Trent Jones Golf Creation

Wiltwyck's Nine Holes Run 6590 Yards, Par 70

Original Format Re-Arranged for Informal Opening

A challenging but beautiful nine-hole, par 70 layout that stretches 6590 yards through framed fairways, dog-legs, elevated tees and plateau greens awaits Wiltwyck Golf Club members in the informal opening of the new course Saturday.

Mapped out by club pro, David McMeekin, the holes are a rearrangement of the permanent design and were selected from the 10th, 11th, 18th, and first through sixth of the original layout.

THE NINE-HOLE course will feature a pair of scenic but tough par-3 holes, a 500-yard, par-5 and five par-4 holes, the shortest of which is 390 yards. There are no cheapies in the lot.

The greens, each of a different pattern, bear the trademark of the master builder of golf courses—Robert Trent Jones. Some are elevated and liberally trapped in front but there is little, if any rough to harass the average golfer.

A thumbnail sketch of the first nine holes as they will look from the tees:

NO. 1 HOLE—420 yards, par 4. Slight uphill carry to green. 6 or 7 iron second shot for better players.

Yardage of Holes

1st hole	420 yards	par 4
2nd hole	150 yards	par 3
3rd hole	415 yards	par 4
4th hole	420 yards	par 4
5th hole	500 yards	par 5
6th hole	390 yards	par 4
7th hole	400 yards	par 4
8th hole	200 yards	par 3
9th hole	400 yards	par 4
	6590	35

NO. 2 HOLE—Exacting par 3, 150 yards, trapped on left and right front, with deep gorge in back of good size green.

NO. 3 Hole—415 yards, par 4. 150 yard carry over knoll required off tee to avoid trouble. Narrow fairway, with road on right out of bounds. Shots must be placed to the left for safety.

NO. 4 HOLE—420 yard, par 4 will be starting hole when 18 holes are available. Slight dog-leg left with uphill pitch to the green. Trap on right side of green, with woods and stone fence on northern side, boundary line of the course.

NO. 5 HOLE—500 yards, par 5. This is a dog-leg right, flanked by trees on both sides. Narrow fairway demands accurate tee shot. Rolling green breaks to left, with 12-foot safety lane on right side.

NO. 6 HOLE—390 yards, par 4. If Wiltwyck ever picks names for each hole, we suggest "The Bridlepath" for this one. Tightest fairway on the course, framed in by trees on both sides. Second shot is to elevated green, wide but narrow. This will be one of the county's great golf holes.

NO. 8 HOLE—200 yards, par 3. A beautiful hole with downhill shot to elevated green, traps in front, left and right, bordered by trees on left and right and in back of green. It will be an achievement for average golfer to hit this green consistently.

NO. 9 HOLE—400 yards, par 4, dogleg right, with uphill carry. Long driver can cut distance considerably by driving over trees on right. Patch of rough along upper right fairway.

Duke Washburn Race Saturday At Rhinebeck

Rhinebeck Speedway will stage its biggest auto race of the season Saturday night — the Duke Washburn Memorial championship.

The event is named for the late stock car driver who frequently competed at Dutchess county tracks. Washburn died last fall.

The winner of the 250-lap event around Rhinebeck's fifth-mile oval will be richer by $1,000. Approximately $2,000 will be split among the next nine finishers. Lap money will also be paid to each driver for every lap he leads the race.

EIGHT DRIVERS have qualified for the choice starting positions. Sixteen other places are open, and drivers will attempt to qualify for these Saturday afternoon.

The program will also include a 25-lap non-Ford race and a sports car show. The Lafayette Post American Legion drum Corps of Poughkeepsie will give an exhibition.

Qualifying for the Washburn race begins at 1 o'clock. Time trials end at 8 o'clock, with the feature scheduled to begin at 8:30.

BID FOR ARCHDIOCESE HONORS—This is the St. Joseph's CYO baseball team of Kingston which will seek New York archdiocese honors Sunday afternon at Jack Coffey Field, Fordham University, the Bronx. The county CYO League champions of 1955 personnel included, bottom how, l to r: Ronnie Ashdown, Joey Hoffman, Frank Secreto, Jack Dawkins, Frank Reis. Second row: Tom Davitt, Joe Pino, Paul Giannuzzi, Don Ferraro, Joe Modica, Boy Fay. Standing: Leo A. Schupp, Ulster county CYO director; Manager Frank Reis, Ed Gardner, coach and business manager; Monsignor Stephen P. Connelly, pastor; Pete Blanschan, Ronnie Ferraro, Father James Keating, moderator; and William Mahoney, CYO athletic director.

Rose Adios Wins At Yonkers Oval

Yonkers, Aug. 11 (AP)—Rose Adios, with Pete Losee in the sulky, scored a surprise victory in the Eastchester pacing feature at Yonkers Raceway last night.

Racing on the outside for the entire mile, the 4-year-old mare, owned by Adam P. Heist of Reading Pa., won by a nose in a 4 horse blanket finish.

The winner, fifth choice in the six horse field, returned $26.70, $10.60 and $5.90 in scoring her first win of the season. In second place was Luette Hanover and a head further back in third was Senator Byrd. Time of the mile was 2:05.

Yesterday's Stars

Pitching—Don Larsen, Yankees, beat Boston 3-2 over 13 innings for his third straight victory since recall from minors 11 days ago, blanked Red Sox from second inning on, retiring 18 men in order in one stretch.

Batting — Ralph Kiner, Indians, carried Cleveland into first place with grand slam homer in ninth that beat Detroit 6-4 and give him career total of 1,001 runs-batted-in.

Lowly Athletics Big Voice In Torrid American Chase

By ED WILKS
(The Associated Press)

Whoever thought the Kansas City Athletics would have a voice in the American League pennant race? Yet it's been the A's who have had the big say in the snarled flag chase over the past two weeks.

In that span, Lou Boudreau's sixth-place also rans have thwarted the big contenders in five of nine meetings. And last night, they rapped the Chicago White Sox out of first place with a 5-4 decision—leaving the way clear for Cleveland to claim the lead for the first time since May 21 as Ralph Kiner smacked a ninth-inning grand slammer to trim Detroit 6-4.

THAT LEFT the Tribe two percentage points ahead of the White Sox, who in turn are four points to the good over New York after the Yankees' 3-2, 13-inning victory over Boston. The defeat sent the Red Sox two games behind.

The A's, who took 2-of-3 from Boston and split a four-game set with the Yanks before matching Chicago 1-1 in their three-game series, belted the Chisox for two first inning runs on back-to-back triples by lead-off man Vic Power and Enos Slaughter. Hector Lopez then put them beyond reach with a home run and single that made it 5-2.

Chicago had just four hits in seven innings off winner Alex Kellner, one a two-run homer by Minnie Minoso, while the A's were belting Harry Byrd. Then when reliefer Tom Gorman opened the eighth, the Sox got two more runs, one on Bob Nieman's homer, before the right-hander fanned Minoso with the bases loaded.

CLEVELAND had home runs by Al Rosen and Hal Naragon (his first in the majors), but trailed the Tigers 4-2 on the strength of Earl Torgeson's two-run shot off Mike Garcia in the seventh. Then after pinch singles by Hoot Evers and Hank Foiles and Al Smith's bunt single, Kiner put Al Aber's first pitch over the left field fence.

Two innings earlier, Aber had relieved rookie Jim Bunning to fan Kiner with the bases loaded.

Only Lou Ghrig (23), Jimmy Foxx (17) and Babe Ruth (16) hit more grand slam homers than Kiner, who has 13, in the majors.

An error by Billy Klaus and a drawn-in outfield, that enabled Andy Carey to line a run-scoring single over the head of Ted Williams, broke up the Yank-Red Sox duel. Don Larsen, making it three straight since returning from the minors 11 days ago, took it over Frank Sullivan after New York had matched Grady Hatton's two-run single in the second wtih a pair in the third.

RAIN POSTPONED Washington and Baltimore in the only other AL game on tap.

In the National, Brooklyn topped New York 5-4 in a game called in the seventh by rain; St. Louis put second place Milwaukee 15 games back, 7-2; Pittsburgh edged Philadelphia 3-2 in 10 innings, and Cincinnati took two at Chicago, 7-2 and 6-3.

Gil Hodges drove in three runs with a double and single as the Dodgers packed their scoring in the first two frames. The Giants scored twice in the first without a hit against rookie Roger Craig. Karl Spooner won in relief after Craig went wild again in a two-run Giant fifth.

ST. LOUIS smacked 11 hits, three each by Stan Musial and Alex Grammas, while Tom Poholsky held the Braves to six. Musial got his 1,000th extra base hit with a double.

Ted Kluszewski hit his 37th homer (his 200th lifetime) and the Cubs' Ernie Banks tied Brooklyn's Duke Snider for the major league lead with his 38th in the second game as the Redlegs snapped Chicago's six-game winning streak. Rookie Don Gross won his first major league decision in the opener.

Jones Dairy Shades Bowlodrome, 2-1, on Hinkley's 4-Hitter

Misasi Steals Home With Run That Pays Off

Acker Excels In Relief Role

(Second Half City Baseball League)

Jones Dairy	1	0

Ferraro Bowlodrome	0	2

Jones Dairy, a team to be reckoned with in the abbreviated second half of the City Baseball League race, launched its bid for a playoff by knocking off Ferraro's Bowlodrome, 2-1, yesterday at the Athletic Field.

It was a particularly tough loss for the bowling alley boys, who played errorless ball for the first time this season. The Dairymen actually stole the game, as Big Sal Misasi pilfered home with the winning marker.

BRUCE "RED" HINKLEY was returned the winner over Al Rubinstein and John Acker in a battle of four-hitters.

Acker turned in another stout relief job for Bowlodrome, blanking the winners after Rubinstein gave up two runs in the first. The lone Bowlodrome tally came in the fourth and it stayed 2-1 through the last four innings.

Rubinstein got the first two Jones batters to open the game but walked Tom Carlino. Misasi and Bob Shelightner singled to load the bases. Nippy Jones walked, forcing in Carlino and Misasi stole home.

A revised schedule for the remainder of the second half has been announced as follows:

Monday, Aug. 15—Doblers vs. Jones Dairy.
Tuesday, Aug. 16—Ferraros vs. Panthers.
Wednesday, Aug. 17—Nadlers vs. Doblers.
Thursday, Aug. 18—Panthers vs. Dairy.
Tuesday, Aug. 23—Doblers vs. Panthers.
Wednesday, Aug. 24—Joneses vs. Nadlers.

Royals Hold One-Game Lead

(By The Associated Press)

The International League pennant race is coming down to the wire with a three-way scramble for first place.

With little more than three weeks remaining only 2½ games separate the first three teams today (Thursday).

The Montreal Royals held on to their one game margin over the Toronto Maple Leafs last night by defeating the Rochester Red Wings, 8-1, as the Maple Leafs edged the Buffalo Bisons 1-0 in a 5-inning game called by rain.

Both teams gained a half game on the idle Havana Sugar Kings. The Syracuse Chiefs, Columbus Jets and Richmond Virginians were also idle.

The Royals, who took over first place from the Leafs Sunday, have 34 games left. Toronto has 30 and the Cubans 32. The season ends Monday, September 5 (Labor Day).

A Superb Robert Trent Jones Golf Creation

Original Format Re-Arranged for Informal Opening

A challenging but beautiful nine-hole, par 70 layout that stretches 6590 yards through framed fairways, dog-legs, elevated tees and plateau greens awaits Wiltwyck Golf Club members in the informal opening of the new course Saturday.

Mapped out by club pro, David McMeekin, the holes are a rearrangement of the permanent design and were selected from the 10th, 11th, 18th, and first through sixth of the original layout.

THE NINE-HOLE course will feature a pair of scenic but tough par-3 holes, a 500-yard, par-5 and five par-4 holes, the shortest of which is 390 yards. There are no cheapies in the lot.

The greens, each of a different pattern, bear the trademark of the master builder of golf courses—Robert Trent Jones. Some are elevated and liberally trapped in front but there is little, if any rough to harass the average golfer.

A thumbnail sketch of the first nine holes as they will look from the tees:

NO. 1 HOLE—420 yards, par 4. Slight uphill carry to green. 6 or 7 iron second shot for better players.

Yardage of Holes

1st hole	420 yards	par 4
2nd hole	150 yards	par 3
3rd hole	415 yards	par 4
4th hole	420 yards	par 4
5th hole	500 yards	par 5
6th hole	390 yards	par 4
7th hole	400 yards	par 4
8th hole	200 yards	par 3
9th hole	400 yards	par 4
	6590	35

NO. 2 HOLE—Exacting par 3, 150 yards, trapped on left and right front, with deep gorge in back of good size green.

NO. 3 Hole—415 yards, par 4. 150 yard carry over knoll required off tee to avoid trouble. Narrow fairway, with road on right out of bounds. Shots must be placed to the left for safety.

NO. 4 HOLE—420 yard, par 4 will be starting hole when 18 holes are available. Slight dog-leg left with uphill pitch to the green. Trap on right side of green, with woods and stone fence on northern side, boundary line of the course.

NO. 5 HOLE—500 yards, par 5. This is a dog-leg right, flanked by trees on both sides. Narrow fairway demands accurate tee shot. Rolling green breaks to left, with 12-foot safety lane on right side.

NO. 6 HOLE—390 yards, par 4. If Wiltwyck ever picks names for each hole, we suggest "The Bridlepath" for this one. Tightest fairway on the course, framed in by trees on both sides. Second shot is to elevated green, wide but narrow. This will be one of the county's great golf holes.

NO. 8 HOLE—200 yards, par 3. A beautiful hole with downhill shot to elevated green, traps in front, left and right, bordered by trees on left and right and in back of green. It will be an achievement for average golfer to hit this green consistently.

NO. 9 HOLE—400 yards, par 4, dogleg right, with uphill carry. Long driver can cut distance considerably by driving over trees on right. Patch of rough along upper right fairway.

BID FOR ARCHDIOCESE HONORS—This is the St. Joseph's CYO baseball team of Kingston which will seek New York archdiocese honors Sunday afternon at Jack Coffey Field, Fordham University, the Bronx. The county CYO League champions of 1955 personnel included, bottom how, l to r: Ronnie Ashdown, Joey Hoffman, Frank Secreto, Jack Dawkins, Frank Reis. Second row: Tom Davitt, Joe Pino, Paul Giannuzzi, Don Ferraro, Joe Modica, Boy Fay. Standing: Leo A. Schupp, Ulster county CYO director; Manager Frank Reis, Ed Gardner, coach and business manager; Monsignor Stephen P. Connelly, pastor; Pete Blanschan, Ronnie Ferraro, Father James Keating, moderator; and William Mahoney, CYO athletic director.

Rose Adios Wins At Yonkers Oval

Yonkers, Aug. 11 (AP)—Rose Adios, with Pete Losee in the sulky, scored a surprise victory in the Eastchester pacing feature at Yonkers Raceway last night.

Racing on the outside for the entire mile, the 4-year-old mare, owned by Adam P. Heist of Reading Pa., won by a nose in a 4 horse blanket finish.

The winner, fifth choice in the six horse field, returned $26.70, $10.60 and $5.90 in scoring her first win of the season. In second place was Luette Hanover and a head further back in third was Senator Byrd. Time of the mile was 2:05.

Yesterday's Stars

Pitching—Don Larsen, Yankees, beat Boston 3-2 over 13 innings for his third straight victory since recall from minors 11 days ago, blanked Red Sox from second inning on, retiring 18 men in order in one stretch.

Batting — Ralph Kiner, Indians, carried Cleveland into first place with grand slam homer in ninth that beat Detroit 6-4 and give him career total of 1,001 runs-batted-in.

Duke Washburn Race Saturday At Rhinebeck

Rhinebeck Speedway will stage its biggest auto race of the season Saturday night — the Duke Washburn Memorial championship.

The event is named for the late stock car driver who frequently competed at Dutchess county tracks. Washburn died last fall.

The winner of the 250-lap event around Rhinebeck's fifth-mile oval will be richer by $1,000. Approximately $2,000 will be split among the next nine finishers. Lap money will also be paid to each driver for every lap he leads the race.

EIGHT DRIVERS have qualified for the choice starting positions. Sixteen other places are open, and drivers will attempt to qualify for these Saturday afternoon.

The program will also include a 25-lap non-Ford race and a sports car show. The Lafayette Post American Legion drum Corps of Poughkeepsie will give an exhibition.

Qualifying for the Washburn race begins at 1 o'clock. Time trials end at 8 o'clock, with the feature scheduled to begin at 8:30.

Lowly Athletics Big Voice In Torrid American Chase

By ED WILKS
(The Associated Press)

Whoever thought the Kansas City Athletics would have a voice in the American League pennant race? Yet it's been the A's who have had the big say in the snarled flag chase over the past two weeks.

In that span, Lou Boudreau's sixth-place also rans have thwarted the big contenders in five of nine meetings. And last night, they rapped the Chicago White Sox out of first place with a 5-4 decision—leaving the way clear for Cleveland to claim the lead for the first time since May 21 as Ralph Kiner smacked a ninth-inning grand slammer to trim Detroit 6-4.

THAT LEFT the Tribe two percentage points ahead of the White Sox, who in turn are four points to the good over New York after the Yankees' 3-2, 13-inning victory over Boston. The defeat sent the Red Sox two games behind.

The A's, who took 2-of-3 from Boston and split a four-game set with the Yanks before matching Chicago 1-1 in their three-game series, belted the Chisox for two first inning runs on back-to-back triples by lead-off man Vic Power and Enos Slaughter. Hector Lopez then put them beyond reach with a home run and single that made it 5-2.

Chicago had just four hits in seven innings off winner Alex Kellner, one a two-run homer by Minnie Minoso, while the A's were belting Harry Byrd. Then when reliefer Tom Gorman opened the eighth, the Sox got two more runs, one on Bob Nieman's homer, before the right-hander fanned Minoso with the bases loaded.

CLEVELAND had home runs by Al Rosen and Hal Naragon (his first in the majors), but trailed the Tigers 4-2 on the strength of Earl Torgeson's two-run shot off Mike Garcia in the seventh. Then after pinch singles by Hoot Evers and Hank Foiles and Al Smith's bunt single, Kiner put Al Aber's first pitch over the left field fence.

Two innings earlier, Aber had relieved rookie Jim Bunning to fan Kiner with the bases loaded.

Only Lou Ghrig (23), Jimmy Foxx (17) and Babe Ruth (16) hit more grand slam homers than Kiner, who has 13, in the majors.

An error by Billy Klaus and a drawn-in outfield, that enabled Andy Carey to line a run-scoring single over the head of Ted Williams, broke up the Yank-Red Sox duel. Don Larsen, making it three straight since returning from the minors 11 days ago, took it over Frank Sullivan after New York had matched Grady Hatton's two-run single in the second wtih a pair in the third.

RAIN POSTPONED Washington and Baltimore in the only other AL game on tap.

In the National, Brooklyn topped New York 5-4 in a game called in the seventh by rain; St. Louis put second place Milwaukee 15 games back, 7-2; Pittsburgh edged Philadelphia 3-2 in 10 innings, and Cincinnati took two at Chicago, 7-2 and 6-3.

Gil Hodges drove in three runs with a double and single as the Dodgers packed their scoring in the first two frames. The Giants scored twice in the first without a hit against rookie Roger Craig. Karl Spooner won in relief after Craig went wild again in a two-run Giant fifth.

ST. LOUIS smacked 11 hits, three each by Stan Musial and Alex Grammas, while Tom Poholsky held the Braves to six. Musial got his 1,000th extra base hit with a double.

Ted Kluszewski hit his 37th homer (his 200th lifetime) and the Cubs' Ernie Banks tied Brooklyn's Duke Snider for the major league lead with his 38th in the second game as the Redlegs snapped Chicago's six-game winning streak. Rookie Don Gross won his first major league decision in the opener.

All-Star Squad Picked For California Cuties

SPORTS

By Charles J. Tiano
Sports Editor

NOTES TO YOU: Current Yankee-Red Sox created greatest stir in years among local Yankee rooters, who run a bad second to the overpopulated Giant faithful and the runnerup Brooklyn Dodger addicts.

A surprising number of inquiries about time and dates came from women. Proving the influence of those modern marvels—radio and TV.

• Flotsam and Jetsam:

Re the recent Ted Williams item, Murray Olderman of NEA says in Brooklyn, Don Newcombe is doing his best to make himself just as obnoxious. He not only refuses to pose for wire service photographers but drove one of them off with a stream of obscenity. There's only one difference between the lackadaisical Newcombe of last year and the phenom of '55, confides a former coach of the Dodgers—the big guy finally got in shape to pitch. . . . Wiltwyck Golf Club will permit clergymen to play free, president Arthur A. Davis has announced. . . . Ooops department: Mrs. Eleanor Schirmer looked pretty as a picture in that recent photo of the women's golf committee at Woodstock. But, alas, her name was omitted from the distinguished array of ladies. And it never was announced that Mrs. Frances Prior fired an eagle-3 on Woodstock's par-five fifth hole.

• The Nineteenth Hole:

Dr. Fred Holcomb Jr. joined the hole-in-one ranks last week with an ace on 167-yard 14th hole at the Catskill Country Club. The doctor bagged his first ace in 25 years of golfing when he canned a 4-iron tee shot on the uphill hole. Dr. Holcomb was playing with J. Watson Bailey, Maurice Davenport and Bob Daley. As so often happens, the hole has a hidden green and the ace was not discovered until the foursome reached the green. . . . Dr. Douw S. Meyers, who played three practice shots and then two legal ones in the Freeman hole-in-one tournament. That made a total of five shots, where only four are permitted. So in 1956, the doctor will get only three shots. . . . Jim Hutchins and his partner, Walter S. Van Wagenen, carded a best-ball 69 in the recent Pro-Seniors at the Antlers Club in Amsterdam. Hutch also teamed with Walter Seaton for a par 70. Alex Gerlak and Floyd Flint had 70. Gerlak and Jay LeFevre posted 71 and Gerlak and Fabe Russell carded a 73. Gerlak shot 40-37-77 and Hutchins 40-39-79 in the pro division.

If you have been hearing rumors about the increase in cost of bowling and demands for a 40-week guarantee for a season, don't believe them. And save yourself much discomfort in these torrid days (before Connie). Johnny Ferraro, proprietor of the Bowlodrome, has squelched all rumors that might affect his clientele for the 1955-56 season. "Our policy is the same as last season," he says. "We'll charge 40 cents and ask for a 35-week minimum for league schedules. If leagues prefer to pay 45 cents, they'll be asked to roll a minimum schedule of 32 weeks." Ferraro also revealed that he has purchased 10 new alleys to complete the proposed 24-alley layout on the By-Pass Extension.

Like we said last April, when they all laughed, the Yankees just don't have it . . . and junior baseball leagues that permit junior players to umpire behind the plate are asking for trouble. And getting it in boxcar lots.

Girls Prelim Also Booked

Lineups for the City Softball League All-Star team have been made known.

The local club will oppose the California Cuties, a touring novelty team, at Dietz Stadium next Sunday night, Aug. 14.

The Cuties, who mix comedy and softball, are a men's team dressed in female clothes.

Pitchers will be Jim Massuccio, Rapp's; Ed Lowe, Fuller-Skyline; and Joe Enright, Chez Emile.

The catchers will be John Woods, American Legion; and Joe Scholar.

FIRST BASEMEN are Bernie Schlanger, Les Pommier; John Armstrong, Destroyer A.C.

Second basemen are Bob Graves, Perry's Rest; and Harold Fulgum, American Legion.

Vince Peck, Perry's, and Bob Perry are the shortstops.

Third basemen named were Charley Burd, Turcam; and Bob Schatzel.

Outfielders are Fred Orr, Les Pommier; Bob Slover, Perry's; Don Smith, Wimpy's; George Brinkman and Joe Dulin.

The team will be managed by Neil DuBois of Rapp's and Jim Gallagher of Chez Emile.

A preliminary game has been scheduled. The Sprague Electric Co. girls team, managed by Edgar Ougheltree, will play the Nous Modernes of New York city and Kingston. The Nous Modernes are managed by Frank Boyce of the Destroyer AC. Game time for the prelim is 7:30 o'clock.

Victory Was Old But Boos New To Welter Champ

New York, Aug. 11 (AP)—Boos are a new experience to Carmen Basilio. On his way to the welterweight championship of the world there were only cheers for the native son of Canastota, N. Y.

But last night at Madison Square Garden boos rang in his ears for the first time as he whipped Italo Scortichini in a non-title 10-rounder. They were not directed especially at the champion but more at both fighters as the fight became dull in spots.

"The boos bothered me," Carmen said after the fight in his dressing room as handlers patched up a slice under his right eye.

"Never before when I fought, did I ever hear boos. I tried to make a fight of it but he ran. I was over anxious to please the fans. Maybe I was reaching too much. Anybody who fights him, has to miss. I licked him and that's what counts."

Basilio, making his first start since he won the title by stopping Tony De Marco, June 10, wasn't quite up to par. Still he controlled the action all the way, except for sporadic bursts by the swarthy Italian.

The crowd of about 2,500 jeered and stomped for action in the slow middle rounds. They jeered again when the decision was announced. Referee Harry Kessler had it 9-1 and both Judges Harold Barnes and Artie Aidala 7-2-1, a unanimous ballot for the champ.

All-Star Grid Game Friday

Chicago, Aug. 11 (AP)—The Cleveland Browns are two-touchdown favorites to take the College All-Stars in their big battle at Soldier Field tomorrow night, but it may not be that easy.

After four years of famine—the last collegiate victory was the 17-7 defeat of the Philadelphia Eagles in 1950—promoters of the game (Chicago Tribune Charities) have introduced a streamlined All-Star organization in an effort to turn the tide.

The new policy, announced last year after the All-Stars' 31-6 defeat by Detroit, finds a hard-bitten crew of old pros led by Curly Lambeau of Green Bay Packer fame calling the shots instead of college coaches, as in former years.

Starry-Eyed Pros Make Bid For 'World' $50,000 Jackpot

Chicago, Aug. 11 (AP)—A field of 105 starry-eyed pros today start chasing golf's rainbow for the pot of gold going to the winner of the "world" tournament at Tam O'Shanter.

One of them will be a wealthy man after the 72 holes are completed Sunday.

The champion receives $50,000, a $55,000 contract for an all-expense paid tour of 55 exhibitions, and an option to play 50 more at $1,000 each.

Without a doubt, this extravaganza, climaxing nearly two weeks of competitive frolic on Tam's 6,900-yard playground, is the world's greatest "choke-up" tournament.

"ONE BAD SHOT and 20 guys will pass you up," said defending champion Bob Toski, who last year had to can an 8-foot birdie 3 putt on the 72nd hole for a total of 274, 14 under par, to win by a stroke.

Roberto De Vicenzo, the transplanted South American now playing out of Mexico City, and Peter Thomson, of Sydney, Australia, winner of the British Open the last two years, are considered the top foreign threats.

Perhaps the favorite, though, is Doug Ford, who dropped a 40-foot putt yesterday to defeat De Vicenzo 1-up on the final green of their match in international team competition. The U. S. team swept 6 of the 8 match-play games to take the two-day affair 8½ points to 3½.

Insured Captures Roosevelt Feature

Westbury, Aug. 11 (AP)—Insured took the lead going around horses at the three-quarter pole and went on to win the $3,600 Hofstra trot last night at Roosevelt Raceway by a length and a half in 2:05.4.

Second to Insured, piloted by Bill Myer, was Edward Song. D'Artagnon was third.

The winner paid $4.50, $4 and $2.90 in racking up his fifth win in 18 starts this year.

The winning run was set up when Rodger Wells singled and stole second. He reached third on a throwing error by Jerry Robinson and raced home on Bill Reardon's squeeze bunt.

NOTES TO YOU: Current Yankee-Red Sox created greatest stir in years among local Yankee rooters, who run a bad second to the overpopulated Giant faithful and the runnerup Brooklyn Dodger addicts.

A surprising number of inquiries about time and dates came from women. Proving the influence of those modern marvels—radio and TV.

• Flotsam and Jetsam:

Re the recent Ted Williams item, Murray Olderman of NEA says in Brooklyn, Don Newcombe is doing his best to make himself just as obnoxious. He not only refuses to pose for wire service photographers but drove one of them off with a stream of obscenity. There's only one difference between the lackadaisical Newcombe of last year and the phenom of '55, confides a former coach of the Dodgers—the big guy finally got in shape to pitch. . . . Wiltwyck Golf Club will permit clergymen to play free, president Arthur A. Davis has announced. . . . Ooops department: Mrs. Eleanor Schirmer looked pretty as a picture in that recent photo of the women's golf committee at Woodstock. But, alas, her name was omitted from the distinguished array of ladies. And it never was announced that Mrs. Frances Prior fired an eagle-3 on Woodstock's par-five fifth hole.

• The Nineteenth Hole:

Dr. Fred Holcomb Jr. joined the hole-in-one ranks last week with an ace on 167-yard 14th hole at the Catskill Country Club. The doctor bagged his first ace in 25 years of golfing when he canned a 4-iron tee shot on the uphill hole. Dr. Holcomb was playing with J. Watson Bailey, Maurice Davenport and Bob Daley. As so often happens, the hole has a hidden green and the ace was not discovered until the foursome reached the green. . . . Dr. Douw S. Meyers, who played three practice shots and then two legal ones in the Freeman hole-in-one tournament. That made a total of five shots, where only four are permitted. So in 1956, the doctor will get only three shots. . . . Jim Hutchins and his partner, Walter S. Van Wagenen, carded a best-ball 69 in the recent Pro-Seniors at the Antlers Club in Amsterdam. Hutch also teamed with Walter Seaton for a par 70. Alex Gerlak and Floyd Flint had 70. Gerlak and Jay LeFevre posted 71 and Gerlak and Fabe Russell carded a 73. Gerlak shot 40-37-77 and Hutchins 40-39-79 in the pro division.

If you have been hearing rumors about the increase in cost of bowling and demands for a 40-week guarantee for a season, don't believe them. And save yourself much discomfort in these torrid days (before Connie). Johnny Ferraro, proprietor of the Bowlodrome, has squelched all rumors that might affect his clientele for the 1955-56 season. "Our policy is the same as last season," he says. "We'll charge 40 cents and ask for a 35-week minimum for league schedules. If leagues prefer to pay 45 cents, they'll be asked to roll a minimum schedule of 32 weeks." Ferraro also revealed that he has purchased 10 new alleys to complete the proposed 24-alley layout on the By-Pass Extension.

Like we said last April, when they all laughed, the Yankees just don't have it . . . and junior baseball leagues that permit junior players to umpire behind the plate are asking for trouble. And getting it in boxcar lots.

Victory Was Old But Boos New To Welter Champ

New York, Aug. 11 (AP)—Boos are a new experience to Carmen Basilio. On his way to the welterweight championship of the world there were only cheers for the native son of Canastota, N. Y.

But last night at Madison Square Garden boos rang in his ears for the first time as he whipped Italo Scortichini in a non-title 10-rounder. They were not directed especially at the champion but more at both fighters as the fight became dull in spots.

"The boos bothered me," Carmen said after the fight in his dressing room as handlers patched up a slice under his right eye.

"Never before when I fought, did I ever hear boos. I tried to make a fight of it but he ran. I was over anxious to please the fans. Maybe I was reaching too much. Anybody who fights him, has to miss. I licked him and that's what counts."

Starry-Eyed Pros Make Bid For 'World' $50,000 Jackpot

Chicago, Aug. 11 (AP)—A field of 105 starry-eyed pros today start chasing golf's rainbow for the pot of gold going to the winner of the "world" tournament at Tam O'Shanter.

One of them will be a wealthy man after the 72 holes are completed Sunday.

The champion receives $50,000, a $55,000 contract for an all-expense paid tour of 55 exhibitions, and an option to play 50 more at $1,000 each.

Without a doubt, this extravaganza, climaxing nearly two weeks of competitive frolic on Tam's 6,900-yard playground, is the world's greatest "choke-up" tournament.

"ONE BAD SHOT and 20 guys will pass you up," said defending champion Bob Toski, who last year had to can an 8-foot birdie 3 putt on the 72nd hole for a total of 274, 14 under par, to win by a stroke.

Roberto De Vicenzo, the transplanted South American now playing out of Mexico City, and Peter Thomson, of Sydney, Australia, winner of the British Open the last two years, are considered the top foreign threats.

Perhaps the favorite, though, is Doug Ford, who dropped a 40-foot putt yesterday to defeat De Vicenzo 1-up on the final green of their match in international team competition. The U. S. team swept 6 of the 8 match-play games to take the two-day affair 8½ points to 3½.

Insured Captures Roosevelt Feature

Westbury, Aug. 11 (AP)—Insured took the lead going around horses at the three-quarter pole and went on to win the $3,600 Hofstra trot last night at Roosevelt Raceway by a length and a half in 2:05.4.

Second to Insured, piloted by Bill Myer, was Edward Song. D'Artagnon was third.

The winner paid $4.50, $4 and $2.90 in racking up his fifth win in 18 starts this year.

Kaplans Upset Rapp Tossers

Create Tie With Subway

The National Division of the City Softball League is snarled in a first place deadlock between Rapp's Express and Subway Grill, each with 19 wins and 3 losses.

The tie was created yesterday when Kaplan Bag upset the Expressmen, 14-9, while the Subways blanked Cherny's, 8-0, on Al Hunt's one-hitter and grand slam homer.

ANOTHER EYE-lifting result was Miron Lumber's 12-2 rout of the Destroyer A.C. In the other game, Wimpy's overpowered the American Legion, 4 to 1, behind Jake Smith's six-hit pitching.

Kaplan's got a steady pitching job out of Stan Kaplan and made short shrift of Joe Massuccio, running up a 6-2 lead in the first two innings and racking up five in the fifth. Kaplan gave up 11 blows, including homers by John Alecca and Don Hobart.

DANNY BASCH paced the Bagmen with a quartet of singles four times at bat. Dick Bezemer slammed three singles and Harry Levy hit a triple and single. Shelly Levy contributed two spectacular catches in right field for Kaplans.

Ferrell McElrath upended the Destroyers and Walker "No-Hit" Lindsay on four scattered hits, as the Lumberjacks picked up 11 safeties off Lindsay, including a homer by Casella. Felton stroked three singles for the winners.

STATISTICS-WISE, the Cherny-Subway game was a dilly. Al Hunt yielded only a second inning single by Wallace and cracked a grand slammer in the fourth. Les Barringer went "4 for 4" for Subways. DeWitt fanned seven Subway batters and Frank Fede had 12 putouts in left field for the Grills.

J. Bruck slammed a single, double and homer to pace Wimpy's 4-1 conquest of the Legion. Tom Rizzi was the losing pitcher. Fulgum and B. Leonard each had two hits for the Legion.

Volunteer Firemen let Kiwanis luxuriate in undisputed possession of first place in the Fraternal Youth League for just one day.

Yesterday, behind Joe Klonowski's smart four-hitter, the Smoke Eaters blanked American Legion, 8-0, to tie for first win on six victories and one defeat.

It was the second straight shutout in the league.

AN UNEARNED run in the first inning gave the Vols all the working margin they needed off Danny Steltz. But just to make sure they picked up three in the second and three more in the fifth.

Charlie Williams of the Legion led the hitters with a single and double. Steltz, Frank Janaczek and Jase Cullum also had two hits.

Talbott Farewell Depends Upon Storm

Washington, Aug. 11 (AP)—Subject to the vagaries of Hurricane Connie, a jet powerpacked farewell salute by the air force awaits departing Secretary Harold E. Talbot today (4:30 p. m., EDT).

If the hurricane leaves the Washington area alone and the weather clears by this afternoon, Talbott will take an aerial salute from about 100 airplanes, including a flight of Supersonic fighters and possibly one or more giant B52 intercontinental bombers.

Talbott resigned a week ago Monday amid controversy over his outside activities. He leaves the government service officially on Saturday, but plans to fly out of Washington tomorrow.

Double Pays $627

Saratoga Springs, Aug. 11 (AP)—Concessionaire Harry M. Stevens won $627.70 on the daily double at Saratoga race track yesterday when he picked No. 7 in the first race and No. 5 in the second to celebrate his 75th birthday. Born Rich, a 9-1 shot, won the first race and Montana, a 29-1 outsider, came through in the second.

Volunteer Firemen let Kiwanis luxuriate in undisputed possession of first place in the Fraternal Youth League for just one day.

Yesterday, behind Joe Klonowski's smart four-hitter, the Smoke Eaters blanked American Legion, 8-0, to tie for first win on six victories and one defeat.

It was the second straight shutout in the league.

AN UNEARNED run in the first inning gave the Vols all the working margin they needed off Danny Steltz. But just to make sure they picked up three in the second and three more in the fifth.

Charlie Williams of the Legion led the hitters with a single and double. Steltz, Frank Janaczek and Jase Cullum also had two hits.

Talbott Farewell Depends Upon Storm

Washington, Aug. 11 (AP)—Subject to the vagaries of Hurricane Connie, a jet power-packed farewell salute by the air force awaits departing Secretary Harold E. Talbot today (4:30 p. m., EDT).

If the hurricane leaves the Washington area alone and the weather clears by this afternoon, Talbott will take an aerial salute from about 100 airplanes, including a flight of Supersonic fighters and possibly one or more giant B52 intercontinental bombers.

Talbott resigned a week ago Monday amid controversy over his outside activities. He leaves the government service officially on Saturday, but plans to fly out of Washington tomorrow.

Why We Say--

LUCKY RABBIT'S FOOT

Many people today carry a rabbit's foot as a symbol of good luck. The idea got prominent from show business where a rabbit's foot was used as a powder puff. If it was missing before the act, it held up preparations and was troublesome, but if the foot was there, everything could go along as planned.

An antique collector, passing through a small village, stopped to watch an old man chopping wood with an ancient ax.

Heck Says Ave's Mind on Bid for U. S. Presidency

Goshen, N. Y., Aug. 11 (AP)—State Assembly Speaker Oswald D. Heck says Gov. Averell Harriman is more interested in the presidency than in the governorship.

The Schenectady Republican ascribed White House ambitions to the Democratic governor last night in addressing a picnic of the Orange County Federation of Women's Clubs.

Speaking in the governor's home county, Heck said the Harriman administration is "led by a man whose interests lie on the shores of the Potomac rather than on the Hudson."

HARRIMAN, who made an unsuccessful bid for the presidential nomination at the 1952 Democratic convention, is being boomed for 1956 by several powerful state party leaders. He has said many times that he is for Adlai E. Stevenson.

Heck said that he will concede that the Harriman state administration "is motivated by good intentions, according to its principles and concepts of government."

He said that the state administration, however, "is hindered constantly by a split political personality and a rather naive conception of the way a government should operate."

HE SAID the men who "control" the administration's destinies appear to be "inexperienced and overwhelmed by the magnitude of the task of governing a great state."

Heck said Harriman, who was nominated by the Liberal Party as well as the Democratic Party for last November's election, repudiated a Liberal Party plank calling for increased state personal income taxes.

"What happened?" Heck asked. "After he was elected he increased the income tax by vetoing a Republican measure which would have continued the 10 per cent forgiveness of that tax.

"And so the Liberal Party got its tax increase after all. That's what I mean by a split political personality."

Stories of Girls Bring Charges On Morals Counts

New York, Aug. 11 (AP)—Nine Brooklyn policemen assigned to the Coney Island station face Felony Court today on charges of impairing the morals of a 15-year-old girl.

Also up for arraignment were 21 civilians, including one woman, who were arrested on various morals charges on the basis of stories told by two 15-year-old girls, both reported pregnant.

More arrests were in the offing.

The policemen were charged after the girls looked over a series of lineups of 250 Coney Island policemen which ran through yesterday and last night.

THE ROUNDUP resulted from a juvenile delinquency crackdown in Coney Island by Brooklyn Dist. Atty. Edward S. Silver.

Authorities said the girls, who were picked up in a bar raid, told of launching prostitution careers four months ago. They could not say how many men in all were involved, but they named some and described others.

More than 100 policemen combed through Coney Island honky-tonks last night and today looking for more men suspected of being linked with the girls.

AUTHORITIES said the girls told this story: They went to Coney Island after running away in April—one from her home in Richmond Hills, Queens, and the other from a Salvation Army home for wayward girls at Valley Stream on Long Island. They met Peggy Paine, 28, of Coney Island—one of those charged with impairing the morals of a minor—and she frequently gave them shelter. On nights when the girls were not at the woman's apartment, they slept under the boardwalk, in doorways, in subway stations or in parked cars. Their usual fees were $2 or $5, but policemen paid nothing.

THE TWO GIRLS were picked up Tuesday night in the H. & H. Bar and Grill on Surf avenue, Coney Island, during the district attorney's drive against bars selling to minors. Nathan Helfman, 55, owner of the bar, and Sol Gaber, 37, a waiter, were charged with selling alcoholic beverages to minors and were held in $500 bail each.

First Deputy Police Commissioner James R. Kennedy, who ordered the lineups of policemen after the girls told their stories, said it was "the worst case of its kind" ever to come to his official attention.

THE NINE SUSPENDED policemen were taken from Brooklyn to Manhattan last night and Night Court Magistrate Edward T. Galloway released them without bail and without court appearance.

They were released in custody of James H. Tully, counsel for the Patrolmen's Benevolent Assn. Tully told newsmen the policemen are "responsible citizens" and "family men."

Release papers were signed for these patrolmen, all Brooklyn residents: Stanley L. Greenthal, 31; George P. Gaffney, 35; Morris Brofsky, 27; Ernest Bonnevier Jr., 28; Francis J. Mazza, 30; Joseph P. McGreevey, 27; Leo C. Aloi, 35; Matthew Dwyer, 33, and Edwin C. Clark, 27.

Charges against the civilians included impairing the morals of a minor, statutory rape and unnatural assault. There was no court action last night in any of these cases.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Aaron Koota, of the Brooklyn Rackets Squad, said both 15-year-old girls were involved. However, the name of only one—listed as Dorothy Schwamle, of 130-13 92nd avenue, Richmond Hills, Queens—was used in the complaints against the policemen.

Speeding Costs

charge he was arrested on a warrant issued by Justice of the Peace Harold E. Macholdt of the town of Ulster charging him with speeding along Route 213 in the village of Eddyville.

LaBounty pleaded guilty before Judge Macholdt and paid a second fine of $50.

John E. Gotelli appeared for the district attorney and Louis DiDonna for the defendant.

Hal Roettger Dies

St. Petersburg, Fla., Aug. 11 (AP)—Harold E. (Hal) Roettger, 41, assistant to General Manager Branch Rickey of the Pittsburgh Pirates, died yesterday in a swimming pool of a motel. Two vacationing nurses found his body in the pool about an hour after he checked into the El Rancho Motor Lodge. He was in Florida on club business. Roettger, who was a bachelor, carried a card identifying himself as a diabetic. Cause of his death was not immediately determined. A Pirate official immediately left for Florida to make funeral arrangements.

Heck Says Ave's Mind on Bid for U. S. Presidency

Goshen, N. Y., Aug. 11 (AP)—State Assembly Speaker Oswald D. Heck says Gov. Averell Harriman is more interested in the presidency than in the governorship.

The Schenectady Republican ascribed White House ambitions to the Democratic governor last night in addressing a picnic of the Orange County Federation of Women's Clubs.

Speaking in the governor's home county, Heck said the Harriman administration is "led by a man whose interests lie on the shores of the Potomac rather than on the Hudson."

HARRIMAN, who made an unsuccessful bid for the presidential nomination at the 1952 Democratic convention, is being boomed for 1956 by several powerful state party leaders. He has said many times that he is for Adlai E. Stevenson.

Heck said that he will concede that the Harriman state administration "is motivated by good intentions, according to its principles and concepts of government."

He said that the state administration, however, "is hindered constantly by a split political personality and a rather naive conception of the way a government should operate."

HE SAID the men who "control" the administration's destinies appear to be "inexperienced and overwhelmed by the magnitude of the task of governing a great state."

Heck said Harriman, who was nominated by the Liberal Party as well as the Democratic Party for last November's election, repudiated a Liberal Party plank calling for increased state personal income taxes.

"What happened?" Heck asked. "After he was elected he increased the income tax by vetoing a Republican measure which would have continued the 10 per cent forgiveness of that tax.

"And so the Liberal Party got its tax increase after all. That's what I mean by a split political personality."

Stories of Girls Bring Charges On Morals Counts

New York, Aug. 11 (AP)—Nine Brooklyn policemen assigned to the Coney Island station face Felony Court today on charges of impairing the morals of a 15-year-old girl.

Also up for arraignment were 21 civilians, including one woman, who were arrested on various morals charges on the basis of stories told by two 15-year-old girls, both reported pregnant.

More arrests were in the offing.

The policemen were charged after the girls looked over a series of lineups of 250 Coney Island policemen which ran through yesterday and last night.

THE ROUNDUP resulted from a juvenile delinquency crackdown in Coney Island by Brooklyn Dist. Atty. Edward S. Silver.

Authorities said the girls, who were picked up in a bar raid, told of launching prostitution careers four months ago. They could not say how many men in all were involved, but they named some and described others.

More than 100 policemen combed through Coney Island honky-tonks last night and today looking for more men suspected of being linked with the girls.

AUTHORITIES said the girls told this story: They went to Coney Island after running away in April—one from her home in Richmond Hills, Queens, and the other from a Salvation Army home for wayward girls at Valley Stream on Long Island. They met Peggy Paine, 28, of Coney Island—one of those charged with impairing the morals of a minor—and she frequently gave them shelter. On nights when the girls were not at the woman's apartment, they slept under the boardwalk, in doorways, in subway stations or in parked cars. Their usual fees were $2 or $5, but policemen paid nothing.

THE TWO GIRLS were picked up Tuesday night in the H. & H. Bar and Grill on Surf avenue, Coney Island, during the district attorney's drive against bars selling to minors. Nathan Helfman, 55, owner of the bar, and Sol Gaber, 37, a waiter, were charged with selling alcoholic beverages to minors and were held in $500 bail each.

First Deputy Police Commissioner James R. Kennedy, who ordered the lineups of policemen after the girls told their stories, said it was "the worst case of its kind" ever to come to his official attention.

THE NINE SUSPENDED policemen were taken from Brooklyn to Manhattan last night and Night Court Magistrate Edward T. Galloway released them without bail and without court appearance.

They were released in custody of James H. Tully, counsel for the Patrolmen's Benevolent Assn. Tully told newsmen the policemen are "responsible citizens" and "family men."

Release papers were signed for these patrolmen, all Brooklyn residents: Stanley L. Greenthal, 31; George P. Gaffney, 35; Morris Brofsky, 27; Ernest Bonnevier Jr., 28; Francis J. Mazza, 30; Joseph P. McGreevey, 27; Leo C. Aloi, 35; Matthew Dwyer, 33, and Edwin C. Clark, 27.

Charges against the civilians included impairing the morals of a minor, statutory rape and unnatural assault. There was no court action last night in any of these cases.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Aaron Koota, of the Brooklyn Rackets Squad, said both 15-year-old girls were involved. However, the name of only one—listed as Dorothy Schwamle, of 130-13 92nd avenue, Richmond Hills, Queens—was used in the complaints against the policemen.

Speeding Costs

charge he was arrested on a warrant issued by Justice of the Peace Harold E. Macholdt of the town of Ulster charging him with speeding along Route 213 in the village of Eddyville.

LaBounty pleaded guilty before Judge Macholdt and paid a second fine of $50.

John E. Gotelli appeared for the district attorney and Louis DiDonna for the defendant.

"There is still no indication of any definite trend in the movement of this storm and, until it does decide to move in one direction or another, the New York metropolitan area will have to remain on the alert and hope for the best while expecting the worst."

Drizzle and fog shrouded the city last night, by early today had closed Idlewild Airport and La Guardia Field.

Hal Roettger Dies

St. Petersburg, Fla., Aug. 11 (AP)—Harold E. (Hal) Roettger, 41, assistant to General Manager Branch Rickey of the Pittsburgh Pirates, died yesterday in a swimming pool of a motel. Two vacationing nurses found his body in the pool about an hour after he checked into the El Rancho Motor Lodge. He was in Florida on club business. Roettger, who was a bachelor, carried a card identifying himself as a diabetic. Cause of his death was not immediately determined. A Pirate official immediately left for Florida to make funeral arrangements.

Connie Unleashes

Connie still threatened the whole eastern seaboard from Savannah to Block Island, R. I.

Even as Connie whirled her menacing winds off the Carolinas resort area devastated last October by hurricane Hazel, another tropical storm was developing in the Atlantic about 400 miles northeast of San Juan. The Miami Weather Bureau said the new storm, named Diane, has winds of 50 to 60 miles near the center and gales outward 100 miles. It is expected to grow stronger steadily, continuing its generally northwest movement at 14 miles an hour.

The 8 a. m. weather bureau bulletin on Connie extended hurricane warnings along the South Carolina coast as far as Cape Romain, about 50 miles northeast of Charlestown. The red and black flags were up as far north as the Virginia capes.

TIDES IN the area were 4 or 5 feet above normal and were expected to be double that in some places.

The Frying Pan Shoals lightship, 45 miles off the mouth of the Cape Fear river and 60 miles southeast of Wilmington, pitched and tossed in winds up to 90 miles an hour and raging seas as early as 7 a. m.

At the mouth of the Cape Fear near Southport coast guardsmen at Oak Island reported steady 60-mile winds.

Paul Moore, forecaster in the Miami storm warning center, noted that Connie was spreading out somewhat, thereby reducing peak wind velocity near the center. But she is far from a dying storm, he warned, and "we don't want anybody to let down their guard."

UNLESS THERE is a radical, unexpected change," he said, "the Georgia coast appears out of trouble except from rough seas."

Moore said the Georgia coast and all other alerted sections should stand by with full precautions, however.

Meantime, there were increasing reports of dangerous squalls from coastal villages and towns in the hurricane's path.

Mayor Frank Collier, whose vacation resort of Carolina Beach, N. C., was almost destroyed by Hurricane Hazel last October, reported increasingly high winds and water during the night.

GUSTS WHICH he estimated reached 75 miles an hour sent heavy swells rolling over board walks and lapping at summer cottages, some of them only recently rebuilt.

Officials at Wrightsville Beach, some 12 miles south of here, reported water was lapping at the city hall and had almost inundated the lower half of the mile-long beach strand.

Officials at both beaches cut the area's power supply as a precautionary measure. But at Southport, N. C., 30 miles south of here, high winds disrupted the power supply and the coast guard planned to set up emergency measures.

Connie, which was spotted first as a tropical storm last Friday, had churned the past three days off the coast, giving ample time for persons along the Atlantic seaboard to prepare.

NORTH CAROLINA'S Gov. Luther Hodges made an emergency air trip from Chicago yesterday, where he was attending the National Governor's Conference, to assist in disaster preparations.

The Red Cross and Civil Defense had hundreds of workers standing by and the highway patrol, the Civil Air Patrol and amateur radio operators set up an emergency communications system.

Most of the popular beach resorts along the coast were evacuated as were many of the small towns that stood in the possible path of the hurricane.

AT MYRTLE BEACH the first two rows of beach houses were ordered evacuated yesterday with many of the townspeople and vacationers seeking refuge in the big Ocean Forest Hotel or at emergency stations set up in churches and schools.

Wrightsville Beach, just 12 miles south of here, was ordered by city officials evacuated last night. At Carolina Beach, on the peninsula a few miles south of Wrightsville Beach, it was the same story, evacuate or stay and take your chances.

Southwest of here at Long Beach, Holden Beach and Ft. Caswell most residents and vacationers left. These beaches were among the hardest hit by Hazel last year. The Ft. Macon Coast Guard Station near Morehead City also directed that the communities of Salter Path, Emerald Isle and Atlantic Beach be evacuated.

MOST MILITARY and naval aircraft previously were flown inland out of the projected path of the big storm. But two men were killed at Norfolk when their plane crashed on takeoff.

At Hampton Roads, Va., 111 vessels were concentrated to ride out the hurricane. Special pains were taken to secure the unfinished supercarrier Forrestal at Newport News, Va.

And last night, while all attention was focused on Connie, a tornado ripped through eastern South Carolina injuring at least six persons and damaging numerous small buildings. It struck near Wallace, N. C., skipping to Dillon, Latta, Conway and Georgetown, S. C. Four persons were hospitalized at Conway, only 14 miles inland, and two more were reported injured at Dillon.

Three hurricanes bombarded the eastern coast last year, taking 250 lives and causing countless millions of dollars of damage.

Hazel, which claimed 177 lives, proved the worst. Connie's early path and hesitant wait before lashing the coast was reminiscent of Hazel's actions.

FLEW OVER HURRICANE 'EYE' — Lieut. George Hudson of St. Louis, Mo., attached to the Jacksonville, Fla., Naval Air Station, explains how the "eye" of Hurricane Connie looked when he flew over it August 9 to make pictures for the Weather Bureau. At 40,000 feet, Hudson said, temperatures, although in the freezing zone, were 15 degrees "hotter" than normal when he reached the "eye." He said he had flown over one other hurricane but "it was nothing like this. It has lots of power." (AP Wirephoto).

Blast

6, used by tourists headed for Lake Erie as well as Lake Pymatuning. Some of them may have been eating in the restaurant at the time of the explosion.

A Pittsburgh family of four was among those definitely listed. They were Mr. and Mrs. George Schroeder, their 2-year-old son George Jr., and Mrs. Schroeder's father, Thomas Kennell,, 45. The latter's wife was in a hospital in Ashtabula.

Sixteen-year-old twins who had been working as waitresses also were identified. They were Arlene and Darlene Cuttlip of Andover.

SHERIFF Tom Fasula said he thought sewer gas, backed up by clogged drains, might have been the agent which ignited the blast. But he said he could not be sure.

Debris showered Main street in front of the restaurant, ripping up sections of the street and wrecking several automobiles. Then the flames whipped on to other buildings.

A Cleveland policeman, Elmer Bumblis, was driving past the restaurant at the time of the explosion and gave this description of the disaster:

"The walls blew out and the roof fell in. There were arms and legs sticking out of the wreckage all over the building."

NO ONE was certain what caused the explosion. Firemen, however, speculated that accumulated gas was set off either by a bolt of lightning or a spark from electrical equipment in the basement, flooded by the heavy rains.

Today, tired-eyed and grimy firemen and volunteer rescuers still were picking through the smoking wreckage in search of more bodies. They worked through the night with searchlights and emergency generators, as the storm had knocked out power lines and telephone communications.

THE FIRE itself was brought under control in four hours as firemen from 20 nearby Ohio and Pennsylvania towns rushed equipment to the stricken village.

Traffic was snarled through much of the night by the effects of the explosion and hordes of curious motorists drove to see the fire.

Unoccupied Home Damaged by Fire

Fire of undetermined origin caused damage to an unoccupied dwelling in Sawkill early today.

Chief Francis Joy of the Sawkill Fire Department said the fire which started downstairs in the north end of the house and spread upstairs caused damage to the east side of the structure.

The alarm was answered by the Sawkill department at 2:45 a. m., and Chief Joy called mutual aid for assistance with the West Hurley Fire Department under the direction of Chief Howard Every arriving 20 minutes later.

THE SHERIFF'S office was notified at 3:10 a. m., and Deputies Chester Wolven and Fred Brinkman were assigned to investigate.

Thomas Brophy of 25 Dunneman avenue was listed in the sheriff's office report as owner of the house located near the village of Sawkill.

The report said the Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corporation was called to remove some wires from the house, which according to the report, was used by the Pilgrim Furniture Company to store some items.

Chief Joy said the firemen secured at 4:45 a. m.

By 1965 it is expected there will be about eight million men between the ages of 20-25 in the United States.

Connie Unleashes

Connie still threatened the whole eastern seaboard from Savannah to Block Island, R. I.

Even as Connie whirled her menacing winds off the Carolinas resort area devastated last October by hurricane Hazel, another tropical storm was developing in the Atlantic about 400 miles northeast of San Juan. The Miami Weather Bureau said the new storm, named Diane, has winds of 50 to 60 miles near the center and gales outward 100 miles. It is expected to grow stronger steadily, continuing its generally northwest movement at 14 miles an hour.

The 8 a. m. weather bureau bulletin on Connie extended hurricane warnings along the South Carolina coast as far as Cape Romain, about 50 miles northeast of Charlestown. The red and black flags were up as far north as the Virginia capes.

TIDES IN the area were 4 or 5 feet above normal and were expected to be double that in some places.

The Frying Pan Shoals lightship, 45 miles off the mouth of the Cape Fear river and 60 miles southeast of Wilmington, pitched and tossed in winds up to 90 miles an hour and raging seas as early as 7 a. m.

At the mouth of the Cape Fear near Southport coast guardsmen at Oak Island reported steady 60-mile winds.

Paul Moore, forecaster in the Miami storm warning center, noted that Connie was spreading out somewhat, thereby reducing peak wind velocity near the center. But she is far from a dying storm, he warned, and "we don't want anybody to let down their guard."

UNLESS THERE is a radical, unexpected change," he said, "the Georgia coast appears out of trouble except from rough seas."

Moore said the Georgia coast and all other alerted sections should stand by with full precautions, however.

Meantime, there were increasing reports of dangerous squalls from coastal villages and towns in the hurricane's path.

Mayor Frank Collier, whose vacation resort of Carolina Beach, N. C., was almost destroyed by Hurricane Hazel last October, reported increasingly high winds and water during the night.
